The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain electronic devices, including wireless

On September 14, 2012, the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) issued his final initial determination (“ID”) in this investigation finding no violation of section 337.

On November 19, 2012, the Commission determined to review the ID and issued a notice requesting various written submissions from the parties and from the public. The Commission has received numerous submissions in response to the notice. The current target date for completion of the investigation is January 14, 2013.

The Commission has determined to extend the target date for completing the investigation until February 6, 2013.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).
