SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 27) granting a joint motion to terminate Respondent Taylor Made Golf Company, Inc. of Carlsbad, California ("Taylor") from the investigation based upon the entry of a consent order and a settlement agreement.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 21, 2012, based on a complaint filed by Hitachi Metals, Ltd. of Tokyo, Japan and Hitachi Metals North Carolina, Ltd. of China Grove, North Carolina (collectively, "Hitachi"). 77 Fed. Reg. 58578 (Sept. 21, 2012). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain sintered rare earth magnets, methods of making same and products containing same by reason of infringement of certain claims of United States Patent Nos. 6,461,565; 6,491,765; 6,527,874; and 6,537,385. The notice of investigation named several entities as respondents, including Taylor.

On October 17, 2012, Hitachi and Taylor filed a joint motion to terminate the investigation as to Taylor based upon the entry of a consent order and a settlement agreement. On October 31, 2012, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the motion. No other responses to the motion were filed.

On November 14, 2012, the ALJ issued the subject ID, granting the joint motion to terminate Taylor from the investigation. The ALJ found that the consent order stipulation complies with the requirements of Commission Rule 210.21(c)(3) (19 C.F.R. § 210.21(c)(3)) and that the settlement agreement complies with the requirements of Commission Rule 210.21(b) (19 C.F.R. § 210.21(b)). The ALJ also concluded that terminating Taylor from the investigation would not be contrary to the public interest. None of the parties petitioned for review of the ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID and to issue a consent order.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
