1. Access to an electronic copy of this memorandum is available at http://www.usitc.gov/tariff_affairs/congress_reports/.
2. In regard to the country(ies) of origin listed in section III, this report focuses on dutiable imports and does not take into account any tariff preference programs or special rates of duty.

II. Suggested article description(s) for enactment (including appropriate HTS subheading(s)):

Electromechanical juice extractors, each with a self-contained 2-speed electric motor rated at 800 W or higher (provided for in subheading 8509.40.00)

(If enacted, the tariff relief provided for in this bill would be available to any entity that imports the product that is covered by the bill.)

Description above compared with bill as introduced:

- Same
 Different (see Technical Comments section)

III. Other product information, including uses/applications and source(s) of imports

The subject product consists of a plastic, dome-shaped container and housing, a steel cutting blade, and a strainer powered by an electric motor. Juice extractors slice fruits and vegetables into small pieces and then toss them against a spinning bowl to separate the fiber from the juice. This juice extractor consists of a two-speed motor with electrical wattage rated at 800 watts (W) or more, and a pulse function to process fruits and vegetables for short periods of time. It features a plastic cup with a pulp bin and a transparent lid with latch to open and close the container. The principal source of U.S. imports of juice extractors is China, with approximately $63.8 million of the total $81.3 million in total dutiable imports of juice extractors under HTS statistical reporting number 8509.40.0030 (a broader category than would be covered by the proposed heading) in 2011. Opposition to this bill is noted below in the Contacts table.

IV. Estimated effect on customs revenue

Subject product HTS subheading(s)	8509.40.00

Customs revenue loss ($)	462,000	462,000	462,000	462,000	462,000

Note: Customs revenue loss is provided for 5 years, although the effective period of the proposed legislation may differ. Regarding the HTS subheading listed in the article description of the bill, the Commission may express an opinion on the HTS classification of a product to facilitate consideration of the bill. However, by law, only U.S. Customs and Border Protection is authorized to issue a binding ruling on this matter. The Commission believes that Customs should be consulted prior to enactment of the bill.

Dutiable imports were based on (more than one may apply):

- Official statistics of the U.S. Department of Commerce
 Provided by industry sources
 Industry information
 Commission estimates

Duty reduction notes:

- This bill is not a duty reduction
 This bill is a temporary duty reduction. Rates are shown below.

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Thank you the opportunity to comment on each of the bills referenced in your email.

As I stated on the phone, unless Congress removes the duty on ALL electric appliances coming from China, we are opposed to all of these bills, regardless of whether we make the product or not. Please understand that the categories listed are very narrow, yet they compete with other items - some of which are in the same class (e.g., grills with floating locks compete with our electric grills, griddles and skillets) and in some cases against the entire class of small appliances, e.g., a customer like Sam's or Costco does not carry a full line of electrical appliances, so that each appliance effectively competes with the other for limited shelf space devoted to kitchen appliances. If one is dutiable while another is not, that provides an unfair advantage to the dutiable item. At this point, all of these products are being manufactured in China - no one makes them in the U.S.

Accordingly, I'd recommend that the duties either be maintained or all duties on Chinese-made kitchen appliances be dropped.

Per your request, I will leave a comment to the above effect on each bill using the HR web site prior to the June 22, comment deadline period.
