

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Note regarding participation in other investigations of PRCBs.

The enclosed documents are related to the review investigations into imports of PRCBs -from China, Malaysia, and Thailand. Your company may have been contacted previously over the past year regarding the preliminary and final phases of the investigations into imports of PCRBs from Indonesia, Taiwan, and Vietnam. Your company is required to provide questionnaire responses related to these review investigations irrespective of any participation in the preliminary or final phases.

While some of the questions are the same¹, many of the questions are different than those in the questionnaires for the final phase investigations of PRCBs from Indonesia, Taiwan, and Vietnam. In particular, please note that the period for which data is requested (2004-2009) is different.

If your company completed a questionnaire in the final phase investigations of PCRBs from Indonesia, Taiwan, and Vietnam please cross check the information in those questionnaires with the information provided in current questionnaires.

¹ Please note that the definition (scope) of PRCBs is the same as the definition in the final phase investigations of PCRBs from Indonesia, Taiwan, and Vietnam.
