(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable; the symbol "A" placed as a prefix to the statistical reporting number when claiming duty-free treatment for an article under the Generalized System of Preferences;

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under heading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

Legal Notes

1. This section does not cover--

   (a) Prepared paints, inks or other products with a basis of metallic flakes or power (headings 3207 to 3210, 3212, 3213 or 3215);

   (b) Ferrocerium or other pyrophoric alloys (heading 3606);

   (c) Headgear or parts thereof of heading 6506 or 6507;

   (d) Umbrella frames and other articles of heading 6603;

   (e) Articles of chapter 71 (for example, precious metal alloys, base metal clad with precious metal, imitation jewelry);

   (f) Articles of section XVI (machinery, mechanical appliances and electrical articles);

   (g) Assembled railway or tramway track (heading 8609) or other articles of section XVII (vehicles, ships and boats, aircraft);

   (h) Instruments or apparatus of section XVIII, including clock or watch springs;

   (ij) Lead shot prepared for ammunition (heading 9306) or other articles of section XIX (arms and ammunition);

   (k) Articles of chapter 94 (for example, furniture, mattress supports, lamps and lighting fittings, illuminated signs, prefabricated buildings);

   (l) Articles of chapter 95 (for example, toys, games, sports requisites); or

   (m) Hand sieves, buttons, pens, pencil-holders, pen nibs or other articles of chapter 96 (miscellaneous manufactured articles).

2. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, the expression "parts of general use" means--

   (a) Articles of headings 7307, 7312, 7315, 7317 or 7318 and similar articles of other base metals;

   (b) Springs and leaves for springs, of base metal, other than clock or watch springs (heading 9114); and

   (c) Articles of headings 8301, 8302, 8308, 8310 and frames and mirrors, of base metal, of heading 8306.

   In chapters 73 to 82 (but not in heading 7315) references to parts of articles do not include references to parts of general use as defined above.

   Subject to the preceding paragraph and to the note to chapter 83, the articles of chapters 82 or 83 are excluded from chapters 72 to 81.

3. Classification of alloys (other than ferroalloys and master alloys as defined in chapters 72 and 74):

   (a) An alloy of base metals is to be classified as an alloy of the metal which predominates by weight over each of the other metals.

   (b) An alloy composed of base metals of this section and of elements not falling within this section is to be treated as an alloy of base metals of this section if the total weight of such metals equals or exceeds the total weight of the other elements present.

   (c) In this section the term "alloys" includes sintered mixtures of metal powders, heterogeneous intimate mixtures obtained by melting (other than cermets) and intermetallic compounds.

4. Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in the tariff schedule to a base metal includes a reference to alloys which, by virtue of legal note 3 above, are to be classified as alloys of that metal.

5. Classification of composite articles:

   Except where the headings otherwise require, articles of base metal (including articles of mixed materials treated as articles of base metal under the General Rules of Interpretation) containing two or more base metals are to be treated as articles of the base metal predominating by weight. For this purpose:

   (a) Iron and steel, or different kinds of iron or steel, are regarded as one and the same metal;

   (b) An alloy is regarded as being entirely composed of that metal as an alloy of which, by virtue of legal note 3, it is classified; and

   (c) A cermet of heading 8113 is regarded as a single base metal.

6. In this section, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:

   (a) Waste and scrap:

   Metal waste and scrap from the manufacture or mechanical working of metals, and metal goods definitively not useable as such because of breakage, cutting-up, wear or other reasons.

(b) Powders:

Products of which 90 percent or more by weight passes through a sieve having a mesh aperture of 1 mm.

Additional U.S. Legal Note

1. For the purposes of this section, the term "base metals" embraces aluminum, antimony, beryllium, bismuth, cadmium, chromium, cobalt, copper, gallium, germanium, hafnium, indium, iron and steel, lead, magnesium, manganese, molybdenum, nickel, niobium (columbium), rhenium, tantalum, thallium, tin, titanium, tungsten, vanadium, zinc, and zirconium.

Legal Notes

1. In this chapter the following expressions have the meanings assigned to them--

(a) Refined copper

Metal containing at least 99.85 percent by weight of copper; or

Metal containing at least 97.5 percent by weight of copper, provided that the content by weight of any other element does not exceed the limit specified in the following table:

TABLE - Other elements

Ag	Silver	0.25
As	Arsenic	0.5
Cr	Chromium	1.4
Mg	Magnesium	0.8
Pb	Lead	1.5
S	Sulphur	0.7
Sn	Tin	0.8
Te	Tellurium	0.8
Zn	Zinc	1.0
Zr	Zirconium	0.3
Other elements*, each		0.3

* Other elements are, for example, Al, Be, Co, Fe, Mn, Ni, Si.

(b) Copper alloys

Metallic substances other than unrefined copper in which copper predominates by weight over each of the other elements, provided that:

(1) the content by weight of at least one of the other elements shall be greater than the limit specified in the foregoing table; or

(2) the total content by weight of such other elements exceeds 2.5 percent.

(c) Master Alloys

Alloys containing with other elements more than 10 percent by weight of copper, not usefully malleable and commonly used as an additive in the manufacture of other alloys or as deoxidants, desulphurising agents or for similar uses in the metallurgy of nonferrous metals. However, copper phosphide (phosphor copper) containing more than 15 percent by weight of phosphorus falls in heading 2848.

(d) Bars and rods

Rolled, extruded, drawn or forged products, not in coils, which have a uniform solid cross section along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons (including "flattened circles" and "modified rectangles", of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel). Products with a rectangular (including square), triangular or polygonal cross section may have corners rounded along their whole length. The thickness of such products which have a rectangular (including "modified rectangular") cross section exceeds one-tenth of the width. The expression also covers cast or sintered products, of the same forms and dimensions, which have been subsequently worked after production (otherwise than by simple trimming or descaling), provided that they have not thereby assumed the character of articles or products of other headings.

Wire bars and billets with their ends tapered or otherwise worked simply to facilitate their entry into machines for converting them into, for example, drawing stock (wire rod) or tubes, are however to be taken to be unwrought copper of heading 7403.

(e) Profiles

Rolled, extruded, drawn, forged or formed products, coiled or not, of a uniform cross section along their whole length, which do not conform to any of the definitions of bars, rods, wire, plates, sheets, strip, foil, tubes or pipes. The expression also covers cast or sintered products, of the same forms, which have been subsequently worked after production (otherwise than by simple trimming or descaling), provided that they have not thereby assumed the character of articles or products of other headings.

(f) Wire

Rolled, extruded or drawn products, in coils, which have a uniform solid cross section along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons (including "flattened circles" and "modified rectangles", of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel). Products with a rectangular (including square), triangular or polygonal cross section may have corners rounded along their whole length. The thickness of such products which have a rectangular (including "modified rectangular") cross section exceeds one-tenth of the width.

(g) Plates, sheets, strip and foil

Flat-surfaced products (other than the unwrought products of heading 7403), coiled or not, of solid rectangular (other than square) cross section with or without rounded corners (including "modified rectangles" of which two oposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel) of a uniform thickness, which are:

- of rectangular (including square) shape with a thickness not exceeding one-tenth of the width,

- of a shape other than rectangular or square, of any size provided that they do not assume the character of articles or products of other headings.

Headings 7409 and 7410 apply, inter alia, to plates, sheets, strip and foil with patterns (for example, grooves, ribs, checkers, tears, buttons, lozenges) and to such products which have been perforated, corrugated, polished or coated, provided that they do not thereby assume the character of articles or products of other headings.

(h) Pipes and tubes

Hollow products, coiled or not, which have a uniform cross section with only one enclosed void along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons, and which have a uniform wall thickness. Products with a rectangular (including square), equilateral triangular or regular convex polygonal cross section, which may have corners rounded along their whole length, are also to be taken to be tubes and pipes provided the inner and outer cross sections are concentric and have the same form and orientation. Tubes and pipes of the foregoing cross sections may be polished, coated, bent, threaded, drilled, waisted, expanded, cone-shaped or fitted with flanges, collars or rings.

2. In this chapter the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them--

(a) Copper-zinc base alloys (brasses)

Alloys of copper and zinc, with or without other elements. When other elements are present:

- zinc predominates by weight over each of such other elements;

- any nickel content by weight is less than 5 percent (see copper-nickel-zinc alloys (nickel silvers)); and

- any tin content by weight is less than 3 percent (see copper-tin alloys (bronzes)).

(b) Copper-tin base alloys (bronzes)

Alloys of copper and tin, with or without other elements. When other elements are present, tin predominates by weight over each of such other elements, except that when the tin content is 3 percent or more the zinc content by weight may exceed that of tin but must be less than 10 percent.

(c) Copper-nickel-zinc base alloys (nickel silvers)

Alloys of copper, nickel and zinc, with or without other elements. The nickel content is 5 percent or more by weight (see copper-zinc alloys (brasses)).

(d) Copper-nickel base alloys (cupro-nickel)

Alloys of copper and nickel, with or without other elements but in any case containing by weight not more than 1 percent of zinc. When other elements are present, nickel predominates by weight over each of such other elements.

3. Heading 7412 applies, inter alia, to pipe or tube fittings which have been polished, coated, shaped or worked (for example, threaded, drilled).

Legal Notes

1. In this chapter the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:

(a) Bars and rods

Rolled, extruded, drawn or forged products, not in coils, which have a uniform solid cross-section along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, ellipses, squares, rectangles, equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons (including "flattened circles" and "modified rectangles", of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel). Products with a square, rectangular, triangular or polygonal cross-section may have corners rounded along their whole length. The thickness of such products which have a rectangular (including "modified rectangular") cross-section exceeds one-tenth of the width. The expression also covers cast or sintered products, of the same forms and dimensions, which have been subsequently worked after production (otherwise than by simple trimming or de-scaling), provided that they have not thereby assumed the character of articles or products falling within other headings.

(b) Profiles

Rolled, extruded, drawn, forged or formed products, coiled or not, of a uniform cross-section along their whole length, which do not conform to any of the definitions of bars, rods, wire, plates, sheets, strip, foil, tubes or pipes. The expression also covers cast or sintered products, of the same forms, which have been subsequently worked after production (otherwise than by simple trimming or de-scaling), provided that they have not thereby assumed the character of articles or products falling within other headings.

(c) Wire

Rolled, extruded or drawn products, in coils, which have a uniform solid cross-section along their whole length in the shape of circles,ovals, ellipses, squares, rectangles, equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons (including "flattened circles" and "modified rectangles", of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel). Products with a square, rectangular, triangular or polygonal cross-section may have corners rounded along their whole length. The thickness of such products which have a rectangular (including "modified rectangular") cross-section exceeds one-tenth of the width.

(d) Plates, sheets, strip and foil

Flat-surfaced products (other than the unwrought products of heading 7502), coiled or not, of rectangular cross-section with or without rounded corners (including "modified rectangles" of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel) of a uniform thickness, which are:

- of rectangular shape with a thickness not exceeding one-tenth of the width,
- of non-rectangular shape of any size provided that they do not assume the character of articles or of products falling within other headings.

Heading 7506 applies, inter alia, to plates, sheets, strip and foil with patterns (for example, channels, ribs, chequers, tears) and to such products which have been perforated, corrugated, polished or coated, provided that they do not thereby assume the character of articles or of products falling within other headings.

(e) Pipes and tubes

Hollow products, coiled or not, which have a uniform cross-section with only one enclosed void along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, ellipses, squares, rectangles, equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons, and which have a uniform wall thickness. Products with a square, rectangular, equilateral triangular or regular convex polygonal cross-section, which may have corners rounded along their whole length, are also to be taken to be tubes and pipes provided the inner and outer cross-sections are concentric and have the same form and orientation. Tubes and pipes of the foregoing cross-sections may be polished,coated, bent, threaded, drilled, waisted, expanded, cone-shaped or fitted with flanges, collars or rings.

2. In this chapter the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:

(a) Nickel, not alloyed

Metal containing by weight at least 99 percent of nickel plus cobalt, provided that:

(i) the cobalt content by weight does not exceed 1.5 percent and

(ii) the content by weight of any other element does not exceed the limit specified in the following table:

TABLE - Other elements

Fe Iron	0.5
Other element, each	0.3

(b) Nickel alloys

Metallic substances in which nickel predominates by weight over each of the other elements provided that:

(i) the content by weight of cobalt exceeds 1.5 percent,

(ii) the content by weight of at least one of the other elements shall be greater than the limit specified in the foregoing table, or

(iii) the content by weight of elements other than nickel plus cobalt exceeds 1 percent.

3. Heading 7507 applies, inter alia, to tube or pipe fittings which have been polished, coated, shaped, or worked (for example, threaded, drilled).

Additional U.S. Legal Note

1. For the purpose of Heading 7506, plates, sheets and strip are not under 0.20 mm in thickness, and foil is under 0.20 mm in thickness (excluding any backing).

Headings 7606 and 7607 apply, inter alia, to plates, sheets, strip and foil with patterns (for example, grooves, ribs, checkers, tears, buttons, lozenges) and to such products which have been perforated, corrugated, polished or coated, provided they do not thereby assume the character of articles or products of other headings.

(e) Tubes and pipes

Hollow products, coiled or not, which have a uniform cross section with only one enclosed void along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons, and which have a uniform wall thickness. 2. In this chapter the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:

(a) Aluminum, not alloyed

Element	Limiting Content Percent by Weight
Fe + Si (iron plus silicon)	1.0
Other elements (1), each	0.10(2)

(1) Other elements are, for example, Cr, Cu, Mg, Mn, Ni, Zn.

(2) Copper is permitted in a proportion greater than 0.10 percent but not more than 0.20 percent, provided that neither the chromium nor manganese content exceeds 0.05 percent.

(b) Aluminum alloys

Metallic substances in which aluminum predominates by weight over each of the other elements, provided that:

(a) the content by weight of at least one of the other elements or of iron plus silicon taken together shall be greater than the limit specified in the foregoing table; or

(b) the total content by weight of such other elements exceeds 1.0 percent.

Rolled, extruded, drawn or forged products, not in coils, which have a uniform solid cross-section along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons (including "flattened circles" and "modified rectangles", of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel). Products with a rectangular (including square), triangular or polygonal cross-section may have corners rounded along their whole length. The thickness of such products which have a rectangular (including "modified rectangular") cross-section exceeds one-tenth of the width. The expression also covers cast or sintered products, of the same forms and dimensions, which have been subsequently worked after production (otherwise than by simple trimming or de-scaling), provided that they have not thereby assumed the character of articles or products of other headings.

(b) Profiles

Rolled, extruded, drawn, forged or formed products, coiled or not, of a uniform cross-section along their whole length, which do not conform to any of the definitions of bars, rods, wire, plates sheets, strip, foil, tubes or pipes. The expression also covers cast or sintered products, of the same forms which have been subsequently worked after production (otherwise than by simple trimming or de-scaling), provided that they have not thereby assumed the character of articles or products of other headings.

(c) Wire

Rolled, extruded or drawn products, in coils, which have a uniform solid cross-section along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons (including "flattened circles" and "modified rectangles", of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel). Products with a rectangular (including square), triangular or polygonal cross-section may have corners rounded along their whole length. The thickness of such products which have a rectangular (including "modified rectangular") cross-section exceeds one-tenth of the width.

(d) Plates, sheets, strip and foil

Flat-surfaced products (other than the unwrought products of heading 7801), coiled or not, of solid rectangular (other than square) cross-section with or without rounded corners (including "modified rectangles" of which two opposite sides are convex arcs, the other two sides being straight, of equal length and parallel) of a uniform thickness, which are:

-- of rectangular (including square) shape with a thickness not exceeding one-tenth of the width,

-- of a shape other than rectangular or square, of any size provided that they do not assume the character of articles or products of other headings

Heading 7804 applies, inter alia, to plates, sheets, strip and foil with patterns (for example, grooves, ribs, chequers, tears, buttons, lozenges) and to such products which have been perforated, corrugated, polished or coated, provided that they do not thereby assume the character of articles or products of other headings.

(e) Pipes and tubes

Hollow products, coiled or not, which have a uniform cross-section with only one enclosed void along their whole length in the shape of circles, ovals, rectangles (including squares), equilateral triangles or regular convex polygons, and which have a uniform wall thickness. Products with a rectangular (including square), equilateral triangular or regular convex polygonal cross-section, which may have corners rounded along their whole length, are also to be considered as tubes and pipes provided the inner and outer cross-sections are concentric and have the same form and orientation. Tubes and pipes of the foregoing cross-sections may be polished, coated, bent, threaded, drilled, waisted, expanded, cone-shaped or fitted with flanges, collars or rings.

2. In this chapter the expression "refined lead" means:

Metal containing by weight at least 99.9 percent of lead, provided that the content by weight of any other element does not exceed the limit specified in the following table:

Ag	Silver	0.02
As	Arsenic	0.005
Bi	Bismuth	0.05

Statistical Note

1. Alloys of Lead: For the purposes of this chapter, alloys of lead are metals in which the lead content is, by weight, less than 99.0 percent, but not less than any other metallic element.

This notice announces the scheduling of a public hearing on these converted chapters and requests public comment on the draft conversion, including the proposed rates of duty.

WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS: Persons wishing to submit written comments with respect to one or more of the chapters should do so at the earliest possible date, but no later than the close of business (5:15 p.m.) November 26, 1982. The signed original and 19 copies of all written comments must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission at his office in Washington, D.C. and should conform with section 201.8 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.8). Any person desiring confidential treatment as to commercial or financial information must submit that information on separate sheets of paper, each clearly marked "Confidential Business Information" at the top. All submissions requesting confidential treatment must conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the Commission's Rules (19 CFR 201.6). All nonconfidential written submissions will be made available to interested persons.

HEARING: Public hearings on the draft converted chapters will begin on November 1, 1982, in the Hearing Room of the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 701 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. at 10 a.m. Requests for appearances at the hearing, including the name and address of any witness who will testify and the industry or organization, if any, which the witness represents, should be filed in writing with the Secretary of the Commission no later than the close of business on October 25, 1982. Requests should indicate the chapter or heading upon which the witness will express views and a brief indication of any position to be taken. Parties with a common interest in a chapter are encouraged to consolidate their oral presentations. For further information on hearing procedures and rules of general application consult the Commission's Rules, part 201 (19 CFR 201).

COPIES OF DOCUMENTS: Copies of the chapters which are the subject of this notice are available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary, 701 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20436. The Secretary will also send copies of chapters to interested parties upon request; telephone (202) 523-5178.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Eugene A. Rosengarden, Director, or Mr. Holm Kappler, Deputy Director, Office of Tariff Affairs, U.S. International Trade Commission, 701 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20436; telephone (202) 523-0370 or 0362.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In its public notices of February 8, 1980 (45 F.R. 9828 of February 13, 1980), March 21, 1980 (45 F.R. 19696 of March 26, 1980), August 15, 1980 (45 F.R. 55549 of August 20, 1980), June 24, 1981 (46 F.R. 34439 of July 1, 1981) and July 17, 1981 (46 F.R. 37824 of July 22, 1981) the Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In reponse to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29 and 30, 1982. The final set of converted chapters will be published for hearing and public comment in January of 1983.

Currently the Customs Cooperation Council is preparing draft explanatory notes to the chapters of the Harmonized System. On February 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 8108), April 14, 1982 (47 F.R. 17135) and June 30, 1982 (47 F.R. 29734) the Commission released draft explanatory notes for 64 of the chapters of the Harmonized System for public comment. As soon as more explanatory notes become available the Commission will release them for public comment. Explanatory notes for all chapters of the Harmonized System are scheduled to be released for comment before the Commission submits the converted tariff schedule to the President in June of 1983.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission will utilize the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

Secretary

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the draft general legal notes and general rules of interpretation, the chapter draft, and two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1; 2; 3(a), (d), (e) and (f); 4; 6, 9 and 10 (currently 7, 11 and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical in meaning to the corresponding numbered headnotes in the TSUS. Rules 3(b) and (c), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. Rule 5 has been amended by deleting electricity and vessels from the articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule. Telecommunications transmissions have been added to rule 5 to explicitly exclude them from entry requirements. The abbreviations enumerated in rule 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapters released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to the headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation have been adapted from the "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified by adding the substance of current TSUS rules 10(c) and 10(ij), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions and clarifying the classification of parts. Secondly, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rule 10(e), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment for use provisions. Finally, conforming changes have been made to each of the rules to emphasize that the rules are applicable to the interpretation of all article descriptions in the new schedule, including subheadings.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect proposed U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference. The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

GENERAL LEGAL NOTES

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles (including vessels and electricity) imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns numbered 1 and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Products of Insular Possessions.

(i) Except as provided in legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in legal note , articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column numbered 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(ii) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either—

(A) at the time such article is entered, or

(B) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (B) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (i) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(iii) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(c) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(d) Products of Canada.

(i) Products of Canada imported into the customs territory of the United States, whether imported directly or indirectly, are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column numbered 1 of the tariff schedule. The rates of duty for a Canadian article, as defined in subparagraph (ii) of this legal note, apply only as shown in the said column numbered 1.

(ii) The term "Canadian article", as used in the tariff schedule, means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was --

(A) with regard to any motor vehicle or automobile truck tractor entered on or before December 31, 1967, more than 60 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States; and

(B) with regard to any other article (including any motor vehicle or automobile truck tractor entered after December 31, 1967), more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(e) Products of Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas or pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, or to action taken by the President thereunder: 1/

Albania	Laos
Bulgaria	Latvia
Cuba 2/	Lithuania
Czechoslovakia	Mongolia
Estonia	North Korea
German Democratic Republic	Union of Soviet Socialist Republic
Kampuchea	Vietnam

(f) Products of All Other Countries. Products of all countries not previously mentioned in this legal note imported into the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column numbered 1 of the tariff schedule.

1/ In Proclamation 4697, dated October 23, 1979, the President, acting under authority of section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 (88 Stat. 1978) amended this general legal note by deleting "China (any part of which may be under Communist domination or control)" and "Tibet", effective February 1, 1980, the date on which written notices of acceptance were exchanged, following adoption on January 24, 1980 by the Congress of a concurrent resolution of approval extending nondiscriminatory treatment to the products of the People's Republic of China.

2/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the Appendix to the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers,

(b) currency (metal or paper) in current circulation in any country and imported for monetary purposes,

(c) executed securities and similar executed evidences of value, and

(d) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(b) Every segregation of articles made pursuant to this legal note shall be accomplished by the consignee or his agent at the risk and expense of the consignee within 30 days (unless the Secretary authorizes in writing a longer time) after the date of personal delivery or mailing, by such employee as the Secretary of the Treasury shall designate, of written notice to the consignee that the articles are commingled and that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers. Every such segregation shall be accomplished under customs supervision, and the compensation and expenses of the supervising customs officers shall be reimbursed to the Government by the consignee under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties,

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States;

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption;

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

GENERAL RULES OF INTERPRETATION

For the purposes of the tariff schedule --

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the article descriptions and any relative section or chapter legal notes and, provided such article descriptions or legal notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions.

2. (a) Any reference in an article description to an article includes a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as imported, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), imported unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in an article description to a material or substance includes a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance includes a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such materials or substances. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more article descriptions, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The article description which provides the most specific description shall prevail over article descriptions providing a more general description. In applying this rule of interpretation, the following considerations shall govern:

(i) a superior heading cannot be enlarged by inferior headings which follow under it but can be limited thereby;

(ii) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status, i.e., between the primary or main superior headings of the chapters or between coordinate inferior headings which are subordinate to the same superior heading;

(iii) a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not be considered to be more specific than a specific provision for such part or accessory.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets, which cannot be classified by reference to subparagraph 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable. Accessories imported with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or (b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs latest among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling within any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. Cases, boxes and similar containers imported with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets. Cases, boxes and similar containers which are not of a kind normally sold therewith as described above, or which are imported separately shall be classified under their appropriate headings.

6. Subject to rule 5, packings of articles shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such articles. Packings of articles which are not of a kind normally used for packing such articles shall be classified under their appropriate headings.

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the chief use, i.e., the use which exceeds all other uses (if any) combined;

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

GENERAL STATISTICAL NOTES

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable; the symbol "A" placed as a prefix to the statistical reporting number when claiming duty-free treatment for an article under the Generalized System of Preferences;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under heading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000 9005.80.60".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

(g) Searchlights and spotlights, of a kind used on motor vehicles, of heading 8512; cinematic sound recorders, reproducers and re-recorders, operating solely by a magnetic process (headings 8519 and 8520); magnetic sound-heads (heading 8522); radar apparatus, radio navigational aid apparatus and radio remote control apparatus (heading 8526);

(h) Searchlights and spotlights of heading 9405;

(ij) Articles of chapter 95;

(k) Capacity measures, which are to be classified according to the material of which they are made; or

(l) Spools, reels or similar supports (which are to be classified according to their constituent material, for example, in heading 3924 or section XV).

2. Subject to legal note 1 above parts and accessories for machines, apparatus, instruments or articles of this chapter are to be classified according to the following rules:

(a) Articles of a kind described in any of the headings of this chapter or of chapters 84, 85 and 92 (other than headings 8485, 8548 and 9033) are in all cases to be classified in their respective headings;

(b) Unless the context requires otherwise, other parts and accessories, if suitable for use solely or principally with a particular kind of machine, instrument or apparatus falling within the same heading (including a machine, instrument or apparatus falling within heading 8479, 8543, 9010, 9013 or 9031) are to be classified with the machines, instruments or apparatus of that kind;

(c) All other parts and accessories are to be classified in heading 9033.

3. Heading 9005 does not to apply to telescopic sights for fitting to weapons, periscopic telescopes for fitting to submarines or tanks, or to telescopes for machines, appliances, instruments or apparatus of this chapter or section XVI; such telescopic sights and telescopes are to be classified in heading 9013.

4. Measuring or checking optical instruments, appliances or machines which, but for this legal note, could be classified both in heading 9013 and in heading 9031 are to be classified in heading 9031.

Additional U.S. Legal Notes

1. For the purposes of headings 9001 and 9002, the term "optically worked" refers to glass the surface of which has been polished in order to produce the required optical properties.

2. Heading 9002 does not cover mounted optical elements which are themselves separate instruments or apparatus such as spectacles, medical or dental mirrors and hand magnifying glasses.

3. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "electrical" refers to instruments, appliances, apparatus and machines, the operation of which depends on an electrical phenomenon which varies according to the factor to be ascertained.

4. For the purposes of this chapter, the terms "optical appliances" and "optical instruments" refer only to those appliances and instruments which incorporate one or more optical elements, but do not include any appliances or instruments in which the incorporated optical element or elements are solely for viewing a scale or for some other subsidiary purpose.

Legal Notes

1. For the purposes of the chapter, the term "watch movements" means devices regulated by a balance wheel and hairspring, quartz crystal or any other system capable of determining intervals of time, with a display or a mechanical system to which a mechanical display can be incorporated. Such watch movements shall not exceed 12 mm in thickness and 50 mm in width, length or diameter.

2. Headings 9108, 9109 and 9110 do not apply to articles of heading 8412 constructed to work without an escapement.

3. This chapter does not cover parts of general use defined in legal note 2 to section XV, of base metal (section XV), nor similar goods of plastics (chapter 39) or of precious metal or metal clad with precious metal (generally heading 7115). The chapter also excludes weights, clock or watch glasses, watch chains, ball bearings or bearing balls. Clock or watch springs are to be classified as clock or watch parts (heading 9114).

4. Except as provided in legal notes 2 and 3, movements and other parts suitable for use both in clocks or watches and in other articles (for example, precision instruments) are to be classified in this chapter.

Additional U.S. Legal Notes

1. For the purposes of this chapter--

   (a) The term "watches" embraces timepieces (including timepieces having special features, such as chronographs, calendar watches, and watches designed for use in skindiving) of a kind for wearing or carrying on the person whether or not the movement contained therein conforms to the definition of "watch movements" in legal note 1, above.

   (b) The term "cases" embraces inner and outer cases, containers, and housings for movements, together with parts or pieces, such as, but not limited to, rings, feet, posts, bases, and outer frames, and any auxiliary or incidental features, which (with appropriate movements) serve to complete the watches, clocks, time switches, and other apparatus provided for in this chapter.

   (c) The term "jewels" includes substitutes for jewels.

   (d) The term "clock movements" means devices regulated by a balance wheel and hairspring, quartz crystal or any other system capable of determining intervals of time, with a display or a system to which a mechanical display can be incorporated. Such clock movements shall either exceed 12 mm in thickness or 50 mm in width, length or diameter, or both.

   (e) The term "complete watch or clock movements, unassembled or partly assembled (movement sets)" refers to sets which consist of all parts necessary to assemble a watch or clock movement, except that for movements having mechanical displays the set may or may not include the dial and hands.

   (f) The term "incomplete watch or clock movements, assembled" refers to--

      (i) mechanical movements which are mounted but lack certain parts other than the dial, hands or winding spindle (e.g., the escapement or the barrel bridge),

      (ii) non-mechanical movements with mechanical displays which are mounted but lack certain parts other than the dial, hands, setting spindle or battery (e.g., the motor), or

      (iii) non-mechanical movements with optoelectronic displays which are mounted but lack certain parts other than the battery (e.g., the display).

   (g) The term "rough watch or clock movements" refers to sets of unassembled parts for the assembly of watch or clock movements of a kind constructed to work with an escapement. These sets do not include escapement, balance wheel and hairspring or other regulating device, mainspring, dial or hands; they therefore consist mainly of the base plate (or any additional plates), bridges, train, motion work, winding and setting mechanism and regulator. These sets may be entered with or without a barrel. Each element, intended for use as it is, may itself consist of one simple piece or of several parts fitted inseparably together, but such elements may not themselves be assembled to each other.

2. Watch straps, watch bands and watch bracelets entered with wrist watches, whether or not attached, are classified with the watch in headings 9101 and 9102. When entered separately, watch straps, watch bands and watch bracelets are classified in heading 9113.

3. Batteries or accumulators entered with battery or accumulator powered watches or clocks, or with the complete, assembled movements therefor, and intended for use therewith, are classifiable under the provision for the watch, clock or movement. Similarly, batteries or accumulators entered with a complete watch or clock movement, unassembled or partly assembled (movement set) or with an incomplete watch or clock movement, assembled, and intended for use therewith, are classifiable under the provision for such movement. Batteries or accumulators are otherwise classifiable in heading 8506 or 8507, whether or not suitable for use with watches or clocks.

4. The additional duty for adjustments to watch movements applies to each adjustment of whatever kind (treating adjustment to temperature as two adjustments), in accordance with the marking as hereinafter provided for.

5. Special Marking Requirements: Any movement, case, or dial provided for in this chapter, whether imported separately or attached to an article provided for in this chapter, shall not be permitted to be entered unless conspicuously and indelibly marked by cutting, die-sinking, engraving, or stamping, as specified below:

   (a) Watch movements shall be marked on one or more of the bridges or top plates (or on the substrate or main circuit board or its equivalent of a watch movement that does not possess bridges or top plates) to show--

      (i) the name of the country of manufacture,

      (ii) the name of the manufacturer or purchaser;

      (iii) in words, the number of jewels, if any, serving a mechanical purpose as frictional bearings; and

      (iv) in words, the number and classes of adjustments, or, if unadjusted, the word "unadjusted."

   (b) Clock movements shall be marked on the most visible part of the front or back plate (or on the substrate or main circuit board or its equivalent of a clock movement that does not possess bridges or top plates) to show--

      (i) the name of the country of manufacture,

      (ii) the name of the manufacturer or purchaser, and

      (iii) the number of jewels, if any.

   (c) Watch cases shall be marked on the inside or outside of the back cover to show--

      (i) the name of the country of manufacture, and

      (ii) the name of the manufacturer or purchaser.

   (d) Clock cases and other cases provided for in this chapter shall be marked on the most visible part of the outside of the back to show the name of the country of manufacture, and

   (e) Watch and clock dials and faceplates for watches or clocks with opto-electronic displays shall be marked to show the name of the country of manufacture.

6. Products of Insular Possessions.--

   (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this legal note, any article provided for in this chapter which is the product of an insular possession of the United States outside the customs territory of the United States and which contains any foreign component shall be subject to duty--

      (i) at the rates set forth in column numbered 1, if the countries of origin of more than 50 percent in value of the foreign components are countries to products of which column numbered 1 rates apply, and

      (ii) at the rates set forth in column numbered 2, if the countries of origin of 50 percent or more in value of the foreign components are countries to products of which column numbered 2 rates apply.

   (b) If the requirements for free entry set forth in general legal note 3(a) are complied with, watches (provided for in headings 9101 and 9102) and watch movements (provided for in heading 9108) which are the product of the Virgin Islands, Guam, or American Samoa and which contain any foreign component may be admitted free of duty, but the total quantity of such articles entered free of duty during each calendar year shall not exceed a number equal to 1/9 of the apparent United States consumption of watch movements during the preceding calendar year (as determined by the United States International Trade Commission (USITC)), of which total quantity--

      (i) not to exceed 87.5 percent shall be the product of the Virgin Islands,

      (ii) not to exceed 8.33 percent shall be the product of Guam, and

      (iii) not to exceed 4.17 percent shall be the product of American Samoa.

   (c) On or before April 1 of each calendar year, the USITC shall determine the apparent United States consumption of watch movements during the preceding calendar year, shall report such determination to the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Interior, and Secretary of Commerce, and shall publish such determination in the Federal Register, together with the number of watches and watch movements which are the product of the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa which may be entered free of duty under paragraph (b) during the calendar year.

   (d) The Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce, acting jointly, shall allocate on a fair and equitable basis among producers of watches and watch movements located in the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa the quotas for each calendar year provided by paragraph (b) for articles which are the product of the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa, respectively. Allocations made by the Secretaries shall be final. The Secretaries are authorized to issue such regulations as they determine necessary to carry out their duties under this paragraph.

Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In response to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29, and 30, 1982. The second set of coverted chapters was published for hearing and public comment on August 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 37317 of August 25, 1982). A hearing was held on those chapters on November 1, 1982.

This final set of chapters includes changes in two important areas. First, the "Rates of Duty 1" column has been divided into columns containing rates of duty 1 "General" and rates of duty 1 "Preferential". The "General" column contains the most-favored-nation rates now set forth in column 1 of the existing TSUS, while the "Prefential" column sets forth the preferential rates of duty provided for certain articles and countries under several trade agreement programs. An explanation of the rates of duty columns is provided in general legal note 3.

Second, revised texts of the general legal notes and general interpretive rules are included in each of the above-listed volumes. It should be noted that portions of general interpretive rule 6 regarding containers are published in square brackets; the wording of these provisions has not yet been finally determined by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature committees. Comments concerning the legal notes and rules are particularly sought, including specific views on general interpretive rule 6.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission is utilizing the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the general legal notes, the general rules of interpretation, the chapters and the two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10 (currently 1, 2, 4, 7, 11, and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical to the corresponding listed headnotes in the TSUS. The remaining legal notes differ in substance from current general headnotes.

General legal note 3, explaining the rates of duty as they appear in the tariff schedule, differs in two respects from current general headnote 3. First, the note commences by defining in paragraph (a) the rates of duty in column 1, whereas existing headnote 3 sets forth provisions as to the application of special tariff preferences and of column 2 rates of duty and applies column 1 rates to all other articles. Second, note 3 explains the "Preferential" column now being added as a part of column 1, in order to indicate the application of preferential tariff rates under four programs. Eligibility for these programs is covered in paragraph (c). Notes 3(c)(ii) and (iii), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and the Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. The current GSP column in the TSUS has also not been included since indication of GSP eligibility would be included in the "Preferential" column, at a later date. Notes 3(c)(iv) and (v) cover articles eligible for preferential treatment under the Automotive Products Agreement with Canada and the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft, respectively. Note 3(c)(iv) also includes definitions from headnote 2, part 6B of schedule 6.

Note 5 has been amended by deleting electricity, currency, securities, and vessels from, and by adding telecommunications transmissions to, the enumeration of articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule and consequently excluded from entry requirements. It is noted that new U.S. Legal Notes will be added to chapters 49 and 71 which would exempt currency in current circulation and securities and similar evidence of value from formal entry requirements.

The abbreviations enumerated in note 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward, although five current definitions are included in general legal note 8. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapter released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation. Definition (f) makes it clear that "heading" is to be read as encompassing subheadings thereunder.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation are the provisionally adopted "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", as revised by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature Committees, with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified to include the substance of current TSUS rule 10(c), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions, and to clarify the classification of mixtures and composite articles. Second, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rules 10(e) and 10(ij), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment of use provisions and of parts. It should be noted that rule 6 as it applies to containers includes matter in square brackets, representing wording which has not been finally adopted by the above Committees.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference.

The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

GENERAL LEGAL NOTES

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns designated 1 ("General" and "Preferential"), and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Rate of Duty Column 1

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this legal note, the rates of duty in column numbered 1 are Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) rates which are applicable to products of countries other than those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this legal note. Column 1 is divided into 2 parts, "General" and "Preferential", which are applicable as provided below.

(ii) The "General" column sets forth the general MFN rates which are applicable to products of those countries described in (i) above which are not entitled to preferential tariff treatment as set forth below.

(iii) The "Preferential" column reflects rates of duty under one or more preferential tariff treatment programs described in paragraph (c) of this legal note and identified in parentheses immediately following the duty rate specified in such column. These rates apply to those products which are properly classified under a heading for which a preferential rate is indicated and for which all of the legal requirements for eligibility for such program or programs have been met. Where a product is eligible for preferential treatment under more than one program, the lowest rate of duty provided for any applicable program shall be imposed. Where no preferential rate of duty is provided for a heading, or where the country from which a product eligible for preferential treatment was imported is not designated as a beneficiary country under a program appearing with the appropriate heading, the rates of duty in the "General" column of column 1 shall be applied.

(iv) Products of Insular Possessions.

(A) Except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 3 of chapter 96, articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column designated 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(B) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either-

(1) at the time such article is entered, or

(2) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (2) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (A) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(C) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Certain Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, to section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or to any other applicable section of law, or to action taken by the President thereunder:

Albania
Bulgaria
Cuba 1/
Czechoslovakia
Estonia
German Democratic Republic
Kampuchea
Laos
Latvia
Lithuania
Mongolia
North Korea
Poland
Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
Vietnam

(c) Products Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment.

(i) Programs under which preferential tariff treatment may be provided, and the corresponding symbols for such programs as they are indicated in the "Preferential" column, are as follows:

Generalized System of Preferences	GSP
Least Developed Developing Countries	LDDC
Automotive Products Trade Act	AP
Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft	CA

1/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

(ii) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iii) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iv) Automotive Products and Motor Vehicles Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment. Articles entered under headings for which duty-free entry has been proclaimed by the President under the Automotive Products Trade Act (AP) are subject to the following provisions:

(A) Motor vehicles and original equipment therefor of Canadian origin provided for in headings for which the rate of duty "Free (AP)" appears in the "Preferential" column may be entered free of duty. As used in the tariff schedule--

(1) The term "Canadian article" means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(2) The term "original motor-vehicle equipment", as used in the schedule with reference to a Canadian article (as defined above), means such a Canadian article which has been obtained from a supplier in Canada under or pursuant to a written order, contract, or letter of intent of a bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer in the United States, and which is a fabricated component intended for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of a motor vehicle, but the term does not include trailers or articles to be used in their manufacture.

(3) The term "motor vehicle", as used in this legal note, means a motor vehicle of a kind described in headings 8702, 8703, and 8704 of chapter 87 (excluding an electric trolley bus and a three-wheeled vehicle) or an automobile truck tractor principally designed for the transport of persons or articles.

(4) The term "bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer", as used in this legal note, means a person who, upon application to the Secretary of Commerce, is determined by the Secretary to have produced no fewer than 15 complete motor vehicles in the United States during the previous 12 months, and to have installed capacity in the United States to produce 10 or more complete motor vehicles per 40-hour week. The Secretary of Commerce shall maintain, and publish from time to time in the Federal Register, a list of the names and addresses of bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturers.

(B) If any Canadian article accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment is not so used in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, such Canadian article or its value (to be recovered from the importer or other person who diverted the article from its intended use as original motor-vehicle equipment) shall be subject to forfeiture, unless at the time of the diversion of the Canadian article the United States Customs Service is notified in writing, and, pursuant to arrangements made with the Service --

(1) the Canadian article is, under customs supervision, destroyed or exported, or

(2) duty is paid to the United States Government in an amount equal to the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the Canadian article had not been entered as original motor-vehicle equipment.

(v) Articles Eligible for Duty-Free Entry Pursuant to the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. Whenever a product is entered under a heading for which the rate of duty "Free (CA)" appears in the "Preferential" column, the importer shall, in order to obtain duty-free entry of such product, file a written statement, accompanied by such supporting documentation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, with the appropriate customs officer stating that the imported article has been imported for use in civil aircraft, that it will be so used, and that the article has been approved for such use by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Authority (F.A.A.) or by the airworthiness authority in the country of exportation, if such approval is recognized by the F.A.A. as an acceptable substitute for F.A.A. certification, or that an application for approval for such use has been submitted to, and accepted by, the Administrator of the F.A.A. For purposes of the tariff schedule, the term "civil aircraft" means all aircraft other than aircraft purchased for use by the Department of Defense or the United States Coast Guard.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the chapter 99 of the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of general legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers, and

(b) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States,

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption,

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) the term "rate of duty" includes a free rate of duty; rates of duty proclaimed by the President shall be referred to as "proclaimed" rates of duty; rates of duty enacted by the Congress shall be referred to as "statutory" rates of duty.

(e) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

(f) a reference to "headings" encompasses subheadings indented thereunder.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

Classification of articles in the tariff schedule shall be governed by the following principles:

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the headings and any relative legal notes and, provided such headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions:

2. (a) Any reference in a heading to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as entered, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), entered unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in a heading to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance and articles put up in sets for retail sale shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description. However, when two or more headings each refer to one or more of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite articles or to one or more of the items in a set put up for retail sale, those headings are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those articles, even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the articles.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or 3(b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last in numerical order among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling in any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. For legal purposes, the classification of articles in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of the subheadings and any related legal notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that --

(a) The scope of a heading or subheading cannot be enlarged by subheadings which follow under it;

(b) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status; i.e., after the applicable heading has been determined, then the applicable subheading at the first level of indentation must be determined; and then, where appropriate, the applicable subheading at the next level of indentation must be determined and so on.

For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter, and subchapter legal notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Accessories entered with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article, provided they are of a kind and in a number normally sold therewith.

(b) [Cases, boxes and similar containers] entered with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets.

(c) [Subject to rule (b) above, packing materials and packing containers entered with the articles therein shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods. For the application of this rule, containers suitable for repetitive or independent commercial use are not regarded as packing containers and shall be classified separately from the articles they contain.]

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the principal use.

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

(c) a provision for parts of an article covers products solely or principally used as a part of such articles but a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not prevail over a specific provision for such part.

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's-length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under subheading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever preferential tariff treatment is claimed under a heading where such treatment is provided pursuant to general legal note 3, the statistical reporting number for the article being so entered is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision under paragraph (a) of this note followed by the symbol representing the program under which such treatment is afforded. Thus, the statistical reporting number for an automatic pilot imported to be used in civil aircraft is "9014.20.4000CA".

(c) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the 8-digit heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

CHAPTER 9

COFFEE, TEA, MATÉ, AND SPICES

1. Mixtures of the products of headings 0904 to 0910 are to be classified as follows:

   (a) Mixtures of two or more of the products falling within the same heading are to be classified in that heading;

   (b) Mixtures of two or more of the products falling within different headings are to be classified under heading 0910.

   The addition of other substances to the products of headings 0904 to 0910 (or to the mixtures referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) above) shall not affect their classification provided that the resulting mixtures retain the essential character of the goods falling in those headings. Otherwise such mixtures are not classified in this chapter; those constituting mixed condiments or mixed seasonings are classified in heading 2103.

2. This chapter does not cover Cubeb pepper (Piper cubeba) and other products of heading 1211.

Legal Notes

1. (a) The products specified in the headings of this chapter are to be classified in those headings only if grains are present, whether or not in the ear or on the stalk.

   (b) This chapter does not cover grains which have been hulled or otherwise worked. However, rice, husked, milled, polished, glazed, parboiled, converted, or broken remains classified in heading 1006.

2. Heading 1005 does not cover sweet corn (chapter 07).

3. The term "durum wheat" means wheat of the Triticum durum species and the hybrids derived from the interspecific crossing of Triticum durum which have the same number (28) of chromosomes as that species.

Additional U.S. Legal Note

1. In subheading 1005.10, the expression "seed" covers only seed corn or maize which is certified by a responsible officer or agency of a foreign government in accordance with the rules and regulations of that government to have been grown and approved especially for use as seed, in containers marked with the foreign government's official certified seed corn tags.

CHAPTER 12

OIL SEEDS AND OLEAGINOUS FRUITS; MISCELLANEOUS GRAINS, SEEDS, AND FRUIT; INDUSTRIAL OR MEDICAL PLANTS; STRAW AND FODDER

Legal Notes

1. Heading 1207 applies, inter alia, to palm nuts and kernels, cotton seeds, castor oil seeds, sesame seeds, mustard seeds, safflower seeds, poppy seeds and shea nuts (karite nuts). It does not apply to products of heading 0801 or 0802 or to olives (chapter 07 or chapter 20).

2. Heading 1208 applies not only to non-defatted flours and meals but also to flours and meals which have been partially defatted or defatted and wholly or partially refatted with their original oils. It does not, however, apply to residues of headings 2304 to 2306.

3. For the purposes of heading 1209, beet seeds, grass and other herbage seeds, seeds of ornamental flowers, vegetable seeds, seeds of forest trees, seeds of fruit trees, seeds of vetches (other than those of the species Vicia faba) or of lupines are to be regarded as "seeds of a kind used for sowing."

   Heading 1209 does not, however, apply to the following even if for sowing--

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In its public notices of February 8, 1980 (45 F.R. 9828 of February 13, 1980), March 21, 1980 (45 F.R. 19696 of March 26, 1980), August 15, 1980 (45 F.R. 55549 of August 20, 1980), June 24, 1981 (46 F.R. 34439 of July 1, 1981) and July 17, 1981 (46 F.R. 37824 of July 22, 1981) the

Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In response to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29, and 30, 1982. The second set of coverted chapters was published for hearing and public comment on August 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 37317 of August 25, 1982). A hearing was held on those chapters on November 1, 1982.

This final set of chapters includes changes in two important areas. First, the "Rates of Duty 1" column has been divided into columns containing rates of duty 1 "General" and rates of duty 1 "Preferential". The "General" column contains the most-favored-nation rates now set forth in column 1 of the existing TSUS, while the "Prefential" column sets forth the preferential rates of duty provided for certain articles and countries under several trade agreement programs. An explanation of the rates of duty columns is provided in general legal note 3.

Second, revised texts of the general legal notes and general interpretive rules are included in each of the above-listed volumes. It should be noted that portions of general interpretive rule 6 regarding containers are published in square brackets; the wording of these provisions has not yet been finally determined by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature committees. Comments concerning the legal notes and rules are particularly sought, including specific views on general interpretive rule 6.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission is utilizing the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the general legal notes, the general rules of interpretation, the chapters and the two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10 (currently 1, 2, 4, 7, 11, and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical to the corresponding listed headnotes in the TSUS. The remaining legal notes differ in substance from current general headnotes.

General legal note 3, explaining the rates of duty as they appear in the tariff schedule, differs in two respects from current general headnote 3. First, the note commences by defining in paragraph (a) the rates of duty in column 1, whereas existing headnote 3 sets forth provisions as to the application of special tariff preferences and of column 2 rates of duty and applies column 1 rates to all other articles. Second, note 3 explains the "Preferential" column now being added as a part of column 1, in order to indicate the application of preferential tariff rates under four programs. Eligibility for these programs is covered in paragraph (c). Notes 3(c)(ii) and (iii), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and the Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. The current GSP column in the TSUS has also not been included since indication of GSP eligibility would be included in the "Preferential" column, at a later date. Notes 3(c)(iv) and (v) cover articles eligible for preferential treatment under the Automotive Products Agreement with Canada and the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft, respectively. Note 3(c)(iv) also includes definitions from headnote 2, part 6B of schedule 6.

Note 5 has been amended by deleting electricity, currency, securities, and vessels from, and by adding telecommunications transmissions to, the enumeration of articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule and consequently excluded from entry requirements. It is noted that new U.S. Legal Notes will be added to chapters 49 and 71 which would exempt currency in current circulation and securities and similar evidence of value from formal entry requirements.

The abbreviations enumerated in note 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward, although five current definitions are included in general legal note 8. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapter released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation. Definition (f) makes it clear that "heading" is to be read as encompassing subheadings thereunder.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation are the provisionally adopted "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", as revised by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature Committees, with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified to include the substance of current TSUS rule 10(c), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions, and to clarify the classification of mixtures and composite articles. Second, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rules 10(e) and 10(ij), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment of use provisions and of parts. It should be noted that rule 6 as it applies to containers includes matter in square brackets, representing wording which has not been finally adopted by the above Committees.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference.

The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns designated 1 ("General" and "Preferential"), and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Rate of Duty Column 1

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this legal note, the rates of duty in column numbered 1 are Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) rates which are applicable to products of countries other than those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this legal note. Column 1 is divided into 2 parts, "General" and "Preferential", which are applicable as provided below.

(ii) The "General" column sets forth the general MFN rates which are applicable to products of those countries described in (i) above which are not entitled to preferential tariff treatment as set forth below.

(iii) The "Preferential" column reflects rates of duty under one or more preferential tariff treatment programs described in paragraph (c) of this legal note and identified in parentheses immediately following the duty rate specified in such column. These rates apply to those products which are properly classified under a heading for which a preferential rate is indicated and for which all of the legal requirements for eligibility for such program or programs have been met. Where a product is eligible for preferential treatment under more than one program, the lowest rate of duty provided for any applicable program shall be imposed. Where no preferential rate of duty is provided for a heading, or where the country from which a product eligible for preferential treatment was imported is not designated as a beneficiary country under a program appearing with the appropriate heading, the rates of duty in the "General" column of column 1 shall be applied.

(iv) Products of Insular Possessions.

(A) Except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 3 of chapter 96, articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column designated 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(B) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either-

(1) at the time such article is entered, or

(2) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (2) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (A) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(C) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Certain Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, to section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or to any other applicable section of law, or to action taken by the President thereunder:

Albania
Bulgaria
Cuba 1/
Czechoslovakia
Estonia
German Democratic Republic
Kampuchea
Laos
Latvia
Lithuania
Mongolia
North Korea
Poland
Vietnam

(c) Products Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment.

(i) Programs under which preferential tariff treatment may be provided, and the corresponding symbols for such programs as they are indicated in the "Preferential" column, are as follows:

Generalized System of Preferences..........................GSP
Least Developed Developing Countries.......................LDDC
Automotive Products Trade Act..............................AP
Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft.......................CA

1/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

(ii) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iii) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iv) Automotive Products and Motor Vehicles Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment. Articles entered under headings for which duty-free entry has been proclaimed by the President under the Automotive Products Trade Act (AP) are subject to the following provisions:

(A) Motor vehicles and original equipment therefor of Canadian origin provided for in headings for which the rate of duty "Free (AP)" appears in the "Preferential" column may be entered free of duty. As used in the tariff schedule--

(1) The term "Canadian article" means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(2) The term "original motor-vehicle equipment", as used in the schedule with reference to a Canadian article (as defined above), means such a Canadian article which has been obtained from a supplier in Canada under or pursuant to a written order, contract, or letter of intent of a bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer in the United States, and which is a fabricated component intended for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of a motor vehicle, but the term does not include trailers or articles to be used in their manufacture.

(3) The term "motor vehicle", as used in this legal note, means a motor vehicle of a kind described in headings 8702, 8703, and 8704 of chapter 87 (excluding an electric trolley bus and a three-wheeled vehicle) or an automobile truck tractor principally designed for the transport of persons or articles.

(4) The term "bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer", as used in this legal note, means a person who, upon application to the Secretary of Commerce, is determined by the Secretary to have produced no fewer than 15 complete motor vehicles in the United States during the previous 12 months, and to have installed capacity in the United States to produce 10 or more complete motor vehicles per 40-hour week. The Secretary of Commerce shall maintain, and publish from time to time in the Federal Register, a list of the names and addresses of bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturers.

(B) If any Canadian article accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment is not so used in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, such Canadian article or its value (to be recovered from the importer or other person who diverted the article from its intended use as original motor-vehicle equipment) shall be subject to forfeiture, unless at the time of the diversion of the Canadian article the United States Customs Service is notified in writing, and, pursuant to arrangements made with the Service --

(1) the Canadian article is, under customs supervision, destroyed or exported, or

(2) duty is paid to the United States Government in an amount equal to the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the Canadian article had not been entered as original motor-vehicle equipment.

(v) Articles Eligible for Duty-Free Entry Pursuant to the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. Whenever a product is entered under a heading for which the rate of duty "Free (CA)" appears in the "Preferential" column, the importer shall, in order to obtain duty-free entry of such product, file a written statement, accompanied by such supporting documentation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, with the appropriate customs officer stating that the imported article has been imported for use in civil aircraft, that it will be so used, and that the article has been approved for such use by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Authority (F.A.A.) or by the airworthiness authority in the country of exportation, if such approval is recognized by the F.A.A. as an acceptable substitute for F.A.A. certification, or that an application for approval for such use has been submitted to, and accepted by, the Administrator of the F.A.A. For purposes of the tariff schedule, the term "civil aircraft" means all aircraft other than aircraft purchased for use by the Department of Defense or the United States Coast Guard.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the chapter 99 of the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of general legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers, and

(b) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States,

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption,

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) the term "rate of duty" includes a free rate of duty; rates of duty proclaimed by the President shall be referred to as "proclaimed" rates of duty; rates of duty enacted by the Congress shall be referred to as "statutory" rates of duty.

(e) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

(f) a reference to "headings" encompasses subheadings indented thereunder.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

Classification of articles in the tariff schedule shall be governed by the following principles:

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the headings and any relative legal notes and, provided such headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions:

2. (a) Any reference in a heading to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as entered, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), entered unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in a heading to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance and articles put up in sets for retail sale shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description. However, when two or more headings each refer to one or more of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite articles or to one or more of the items in a set put up for retail sale, those headings are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those articles, even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the articles.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or 3(b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last in numerical order among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling in any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. For legal purposes, the classification of articles in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of the subheadings and any related legal notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that --

(a) The scope of a heading or subheading cannot be enlarged by subheadings which follow under it;

(b) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status; i.e., after the applicable heading has been determined, then the applicable subheading at the first level of indentation must be determined; and then, where appropriate, the applicable subheading at the next level of indentation must be determined and so on.

For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter, and subchapter legal notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Accessories entered with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article, provided they are of a kind and in a number normally sold therewith.

(b) [Cases, boxes and similar containers] entered with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets.

(c) [Subject to rule (b) above, packing materials and packing containers entered with the articles therein shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods. For the application of this rule, containers suitable for repetitive or independent commercial use are not regarded as packing containers and shall be classified separately from the articles they contain.]

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the principal use.

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

(c) a provision for parts of an article covers products solely or principally used as a part of such articles but a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not prevail over a specific provision for such part.

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's-length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under subheading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever preferential tariff treatment is claimed under a heading where such treatment is provided pursuant to general legal note 3, the statistical reporting number for the article being so entered is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision under paragraph (a) of this note followed by the symbol representing the program under which such treatment is afforded. Thus, the statistical reporting number for an automatic pilot imported to be used in civil aircraft is "9014.20.4000CA".

(c) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the 8-digit heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

Legal Notes

1. This chapter does not cover--

   (a) Sugar confectionery containing cocoa (heading 1806);

   (b) Chemically pure sugars (other than sucrose, lactose, maltose, glucose and fructose) and other products of heading 2940; or

   (c) Medicaments and other products of chapter 30.

2. For the purposes of subheadings 1701.11 and 1701.12, "raw sugar" means sugar whose content of sucrose by weight, in the dry state, corresponds to a polarimetric reading of less than 99.5 degrees.

Additional U.S. Legal Notes

1. The term "degree" as used in the "Rates of Duty" columns of this chapter means sugar degree as determined by polarimetric test.

2. The rates in column numbered 1 in subheadings 1701.11.00, 1701.12.00, 1701.91.20, 1701.99.40, 1702.90.20, 1702.90.30, 1703.10.40, and 1703.20.40 on January 1, 1968, shall be effective only during such time as title II of the Sugar Act of 1948 or substantially equivalent legislation is in effect in the United States, whether or not the quotas, or any of them, authorized by such legislation, are being applied or are suspended: Provided,

   (i) That, if the President finds that a particular rate not lower than such January 1, 1968, rate, limited by a particular quota, may be established for any articles provided for in the above mentioned subheadings, which will give due consideration to the interests in the United States sugar market of domestic producers and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, he shall proclaim such particular rate and such quota limitation, to be effective not later than the 90th day following the termination of the effectiveness of such legislation;

   (ii) That any rate and quota limitation so established shall be modified if the President finds and proclaims that such modification is required or appropriate to give effect to the above considerations; and

   (iii) That the January 1, 1968, rates shall resume full effectiveness, subject to the provisions of this headnote, if legislation substantially equivalent to title II of the Sugar Act of 1948 should subsequently become effective.

3. (a) The total amount of sugars, sirups, and molasses described in the subheadings enumerated in Additional U.S. Legal Note 2 above, the products of all foreign countries, entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, between May 11, 1982 and June 10, 1982, inclusive, shall not exceed, in the aggregate 199,540 tons, raw value.

   (b) Beginning with the third calendar quarter of 1982, the Secretary of Agriculture (hereinafter the Secretary) shall establish for each calendar quarter the total amount (expressed in terms of raw value) of sugars, sirups, and molasses described in the above mentioned subheadings, the products of all foreign countries, which may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, during such calendar quarter. The Secretary shall determine such amount, inform the Secretary of the Treasury of his determination, and file notice thereof with the Federal Register no later than the calendar quarter during which such determination shall be in effect. In determining such amounts the Secretary shall give due consideration to the interests in the United States sugar market of domestic products and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

   (c) The total amounts of sugars, sirups, and molasses permitted to be imported under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this headnote shall be allocated to the following supplying countries or areas in the following percentages:

Country	Percentage	Country	Percentage
1. Canada	1.1	14. Peru	4.1
2. Guatemala	4.8	15. Brazil	14.5
3. Belize	1.1	16. Argentina	4.3
4. El Salvador	2.6	17. Thailand	1.4
5. Honduras	1.0	18. Philippines	13.5
6. Nicaragua	2.1	19. Taiwan	1.2
7. Costa Rica	1.5	20. Australia	8.3
8. Panama	2.9	21. Mauritius	1.1
9. Jamaica	1.1	22. Mozambique	1.3
10. Dominican Republic	17.6	23. Rep. S. Africa	2.3
11. Colombia	2.4	24. Swaziland	1.6
12. Guyana	1.2	25. Other specified countries and areas	5.9
13. Ecuador	1.1		100.0

The category "Other specified countries and areas" shall consist of the following: Mexico, Haiti, Barbados, Trinidad-Tobago, Bolivia, Paraguay, France, India, Anguilla, Antigua, Dominica, Grenada, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Montserrat, Saint Christopher-Nevis, British Virgin Islands, Fiji, Tonga, Nauru, Malagasy Republic, Zimbabwe and Malawi.

Notwithstanding the allocation provisions set forth above, the Secretary may, after consultation with the U.S. Trade Representative, the Department of State and the Department of the Treasury, issue regulations modifying the allocation provisions governing "Other specified countries and areas" if the Secretary determines that such modifications are appropriate to provide such countries and areas reasonable access to the United States sugar market. Such regulations may, among other things, provide for the establishment of minimum quota amounts, the establishment of quota periods other than quarterly periods, and the carrying forward of unused quota amounts into subsequent quota periods.

(d) The Secretary, after consultation with the U.S. Trade Representative and the Department of State, may suspend the allocation provisions of paragraph (c), or may establish quantitative limitation for periods of time other than calendar quarters as provided in paragraph (b), if the Secretary determines that such action or actions are appropriate to give due consideration to the interests in the United States sugar market of domestic producers and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. The Secretary may reinstate the allocation provisions of paragraph (c), or may amend any quantitative limitations (including the time period for which such limitations are applicable) which have previously been established under this paragraph or paragraph (b), if the Secretary determines that the considerations set forth in the previous sentence so warrant. The Secretary shall inform the Secretary of the Treasury of any determination made under this paragraph. Notice of such determinations shall be filed with the Federal Register, and such determinations shall not become effective until the day following the date of filing of such notice or such later date as may be specified by the Secretary.

(e) The U.S. Trade Representative or his designee, after consultation with the Department of Agriculture and the Department of State, may modify the allocation provisions of paragraph (c) (including the deletion or addition of any country or area), and may prescribe further rules, limitations or prohibitions on the entry of sugar if he finds that such actions are appropriate to carry out the obligations of the United States under the International Sugar Agreement, 1977, or any successor agreement thereto, and that such actions give due consideration to the interests in the United States sugar market of domestic producers and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. If the U.S. Trade Representative takes any such action, he shall so inform the Secretary of Agriculture and shall publish notice thereof in the Federal Register. Such action shall not become effective until the day following the date of filing of such ntoice or such later date as may be specified by the U.S. Trade Representative.

(f) The Secretary shall, in consultation with the U.S. Trade Representative, the Department of State, and other concerned agencies, review the operation of this headnote prior to September 1 of each year. In making such review, the Secretary shall determine whether the continued operation of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this headnote gives due consideration to the interests in the United States sugar market of domestic producers and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, and whether the operation of paragraph (g) of this headnote would give due consideration to such interests. The Secretary shall file a notice of such determinations in the Federal Register no later than September 1 of each year. If the Secretary determines that the continued operation of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this headnote would not give due consideration to the interests in the United States sugar market of domestic producers and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreements on Tariffs and Trade, and that the provisions of paragraph (g) of this headnote would give due considerations to such interests, paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this headnote shall terminate as of the first day of October following such determination.

(g) If paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this headnote are terminated under the provisions of paragraph (f) of this headnote, the total amount of sugars, sirups, and molasses described in the above mentioned subheadings, the products of all foreign countries, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in any fiscal (October 1-September 30) year shall not exceed, in the aggregate, 6,258,000 tons, raw value. The U.S. Trade Representative or his designee may allocate this quantity among supplying countries or areas, and may prescribe further rules, regulations, limitations or prohibitions on the entry of sugar in accordance with the International Sugar Agreement, 1977, and Public Law 96-236. The U.S. Trade Representative or his designee shall inform the Commissioner of Customs of any such action regarding the importation of sugar, and shall publish notice thereof in the Federal Register.

(h) For the purposes of this headnote, the term "raw value" means the equivalent of such articles in terms of ordinary commercial raw sugar testing 96 degrees by the polariscope as determined in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury. Such regulations may, among other things, provide: (1) for the entry of such articles pending a final determinaton of polarity; and (2) that postive or negative adjustments for differences in preliminary and final raw values be made in the same or succeeding quota periods. The principal grades and types of sugar shall be translated into terms of raw value in the following manner:

(i) For articles described in subheadings 1701.11.00, 1701.12.00, 1701.91.20, 1701.99.40, 1702.90.20, 1703.10.40, and 1703.20.40, by multiplying the number of kilograms thereof by the greater of 0.93, or 1.07 less 0.0175 for each degree of polarization under 100 degrees (and fractions of a degree in proportion).

(ii) For articles described in subheading 1702.90.30, by multiplying the number of kilograms of the total sugars thereof (the sum of the sucrose and reducing or invert sugars) by 1.07.

(iii) The Secretary of the Treasury shall establish methods for translating sugar into terms of raw value for any special grade or type of sugar for which he determines that the raw value cannot be measured adequately under the above provisions.

(ij) The Secretary may exempt the entry of articles described in subheadings 1701.11.00, 1701.12.00, 1701.91.20, 1701.99.40, 1702.90.20, 1702.90.30, 1703,10.40, and 1703.20.40 from the requirements or limitations established pursuant to this Legal Note on the condition that such articles: (a) be used only for the production (other than by distillation) of polyhydric alcohols, except polyhydric alcohols for use as a substitute for sugar in human food consumption; or (2) be re-exported in refined form or in sugar containing products. Such articles shall be entered under licenses issued pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Secretary. In promulgating such regulations, the Secretary shall give due consideration to the interests in the U.S. sugar market of domestic producers and materially affected contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. Such regulations may contain any terms, conditions, bonds, or other limitations as the Secretary determines are appropriate to ensure that articles imported under license are used only for the purposes specified in this paragraph. This paragraph shall terminate whenever paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this Legal Note are terminated under paragraph (f) of this Legal Note.

   (a) Vegetables, fruit, or nuts, prepared or preserved by the processes specified in chapter 7 or 8; or

   (b) Food preparations containing more than 20 percent by weight of sausage, meat, meat offal, blood, fish or crustaceans, molluscs, or other aquatic invertebrates, or any combination thereof (chapter 16).

2. Headings 2007 and 2008 do not apply to fruit jellies, fruit pastes, sugar-coated almonds, or the like, in the form of sugar confectionery (heading 1704) or chocolate confectionery (heading 1806).

3. The vegetables of headings 2001 to 2005 are those which fall in headings 0701 to 0713 when entered in the states provided for in those headings.

4. Tomato juice the dry weight content of which is 7 percent or more is to be classified in heading 2002.

5. For the purposes of heading 2007, the expression "homogenized fruit" means preparations of a kind used as infant food or for dietetic purposes, consisting of finely homogenized fruit. For the application of this definition no account is to be taken of small quantities of any ingredients which may have been added to the preparation for seasoning, preservation, or other purposes. These preparations may contain a small quantity of visible pieces of fruit.

6. For the purposes of heading 2009 the expression "juices, unfermented and not containing added spirit" means juices of an alcoholic strength by volume (see note 2 to chapter 22) not exceeding 0.5 percent.

7. For the purposes of subheading 2005.10, the expression "homogenized vegetables" means preparations of a kind used as infant food or for dietetic purposes, consisting of finely homogenized vegetables. For the application of this definition no account is to be taken of small quantities of any ingredients which may have been added to the preparation for seasoning, preservation, or other purposes. These preparations may contain a small quantity of visible pieces of vegetables. This subheading takes precedence over all other subheadings of heading 2005.

Additional U.S. Legal Notes

1. Any product in this chapter containing 0.5 percent or more ethyl alcohol by volume is subject to an additional duty of 66$ per proof liter on such alcohol content. For the purposes of this legal note, dutiable quantities of alcohol shall be calculated in accordance with Additional U.S. Legal Notes 3 and 4 in chapter 22.

2. For the purposes of heading 2009--

   (a) the symbol "l" in the "Rates of Duty" column of the provisions applicable to fruit juices means liter of natural unconcentrated fruit juice or liter of reconstituted fruit juice;

   (b) the term "reconstituted fruit juice" means the product which can be obtained by mixing the imported concentrate with water in such proportion that the product will have a Brix value equal to that found by the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time to be the average Brix value of like natural unconcentrated juice in the trade and commerce of the United States; and

   (c) the term "Brix value" means the refractometric sucrose value of the juice, adjusted to compensate for the effect of any added sweetening materials, and thereafter corrected for acid.

3. In determining the number of liters of reconstituted fruit juice which can be obtained from a concentrate, the degree of concentration shall be calculated on a volume basis to the nearest 0.5 degree, as determined by the ratio of the Brix value of the imported concentrated juice to that of the reconstituted juice, corrected for differences of specific gravity of the juices. Any juice having a degree of concentation of less than 1.5 (as determined before correction to the nearest 0.5 degree) shall be regarded as a natural unconcentrated juice.

4. In determining the degree of concentration of mixed fruit juices, the mixture shall be considered as being wholly of the component juice having the lowest Brix value.

Statistical Note

1. For the purposes of statistical reporting in heading 2009, the symbol "l" in the "Units of Quantity" column of the provisions applicable to fruit juices means liter of natural unconcentrated juice or liter of reconstituted juice (as defined in Additional U.S. Legal Note 2(b) above).

Requests should indicate the chapter or heading upon which the witness will express views and a brief indication of any position to be taken. Parties with a common interest in a chapter are encouraged to consolidate their oral presentations. The original and 19 copies of prepared testimony must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission at his office in Washington, D.C. not later than the close of business (5:15 p.m.) March 23, 1982. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In its public notices of February 8, 1980 (45 F.R. 9828 of February 13, 1980), March 21, 1980 (45 F.R. 19696 of March 26, 1980), August 15, 1980 (45 F.R. 55549 of August 20, 1980), June 24, 1981 (46 F.R. 34439 of July 1, 1981) and July 17, 1981 (46 F.R. 37824 of July 22, 1981) the

Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In response to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29, and 30, 1982. The second set of coverted chapters was published for hearing and public comment on August 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 37317 of August 25, 1982). A hearing was held on those chapters on November 1, 1982.

This final set of chapters includes changes in two important areas. First, the "Rates of Duty 1" column has been divided into columns containing rates of duty 1 "General" and rates of duty 1 "Preferential". The "General" column contains the most-favored-nation rates now set forth in column 1 of the existing TSUS, while the "Prefential" column sets forth the preferential rates of duty provided for certain articles and countries under several trade agreement programs. An explanation of the rates of duty columns is provided in general legal note 3.

Second, revised texts of the general legal notes and general interpretive rules are included in each of the above-listed volumes. It should be noted that portions of general interpretive rule 6 regarding containers are published in square brackets; the wording of these provisions has not yet been finally determined by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature committees. Comments concerning the legal notes and rules are particularly sought, including specific views on general interpretive rule 6.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission is utilizing the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the general legal notes, the general rules of interpretation, the chapters and the two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10 (currently 1, 2, 4, 7, 11, and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical to the corresponding listed headnotes in the TSUS. The remaining legal notes differ in substance from current general headnotes.

General legal note 3, explaining the rates of duty as they appear in the tariff schedule, differs in two respects from current general headnote 3. First, the note commences by defining in paragraph (a) the rates of duty in column 1, whereas existing headnote 3 sets forth provisions as to the application of special tariff preferences and of column 2 rates of duty and applies column 1 rates to all other articles. Second, note 3 explains the "Preferential" column now being added as a part of column 1, in order to indicate the application of preferential tariff rates under four programs. Eligibility for these programs is covered in paragraph (c). Notes 3(c)(ii) and (iii), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and the Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. The current GSP column in the TSUS has also not been included since indication of GSP eligibility would be included in the "Preferential" column, at a later date. Notes 3(c)(iv) and (v) cover articles eligible for preferential treatment under the Automotive Products Agreement with Canada and the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft, respectively. Note 3(c)(iv) also includes definitions from headnote 2, part 6B of schedule 6.

Note 5 has been amended by deleting electricity, currency, securities, and vessels from, and by adding telecommunications transmissions to, the enumeration of articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule and consequently excluded from entry requirements. It is noted that new U.S. Legal Notes will be added to chapters 49 and 71 which would exempt currency in current circulation and securities and similar evidence of value from formal entry requirements.

The abbreviations enumerated in note 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward, although five current definitions are included in general legal note 8. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapter released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation. Definition (f) makes it clear that "heading" is to be read as encompassing subheadings thereunder.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation are the provisionally adopted "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", as revised by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature Committees, with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified to include the substance of current TSUS rule 10(c), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions, and to clarify the classification of mixtures and composite articles. Second, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rules 10(e) and 10(ij), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment of use provisions and of parts. It should be noted that rule 6 as it applies to containers includes matter in square brackets, representing wording which has not been finally adopted by the above Committees.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference.

The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

GENERAL LEGAL NOTES

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns designated 1 ("General" and "Preferential"), and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Rate of Duty Column 1

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this legal note, the rates of duty in column numbered 1 are Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) rates which are applicable to products of countries other than those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this legal note. Column 1 is divided into 2 parts, "General" and "Preferential", which are applicable as provided below.

(ii) The "General" column sets forth the general MFN rates which are applicable to products of those countries described in (i) above which are not entitled to preferential tariff treatment as set forth below.

(iii) The "Preferential" column reflects rates of duty under one or more preferential tariff treatment programs described in paragraph (c) of this legal note and identified in parentheses immediately following the duty rate specified in such column. These rates apply to those products which are properly classified under a heading for which a preferential rate is indicated and for which all of the legal requirements for eligibility for such program or programs have been met. Where a product is eligible for preferential treatment under more than one program, the lowest rate of duty provided for any applicable program shall be imposed. Where no preferential rate of duty is provided for a heading, or where the country from which a product eligible for preferential treatment was imported is not designated as a beneficiary country under a program appearing with the appropriate heading, the rates of duty in the "General" column of column 1 shall be applied.

(iv) Products of Insular Possessions.

(A) Except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 3 of chapter 96, articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column designated 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(B) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either-

(1) at the time such article is entered, or

(2) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (2) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (A) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(C) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Certain Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, to section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or to any other applicable section of law, or to action taken by the President thereunder:

Albania
Bulgaria
Cuba 1/
Czechoslovakia
Estonia
German Democratic Republic
Kampuchea
Laos
Latvia
Lithuania
Mongolia
North Korea
Poland
Vietnam

(c) Products Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment.

(i) Programs under which preferential tariff treatment may be provided, and the corresponding symbols for such programs as they are indicated in the "Preferential" column, are as follows:

Generalized System of Preferences..........................GSP
Least Developed Developing Countries.......................LDDC
Automotive Products Trade Act..............................AP
Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft.......................CA

1/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

(ii) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iii) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iv) Automotive Products and Motor Vehicles Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment. Articles entered under headings for which duty-free entry has been proclaimed by the President under the Automotive Products Trade Act (AP) are subject to the following provisions:

(A) Motor vehicles and original equipment therefor of Canadian origin provided for in headings for which the rate of duty "Free (AP)" appears in the "Preferential" column may be entered free of duty. As used in the tariff schedule--

(1) The term "Canadian article" means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(2) The term "original motor-vehicle equipment", as used in the schedule with reference to a Canadian article (as defined above), means such a Canadian article which has been obtained from a supplier in Canada under or pursuant to a written order, contract, or letter of intent of a bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer in the United States, and which is a fabricated component intended for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of a motor vehicle, but the term does not include trailers or articles to be used in their manufacture.

(3) The term "motor vehicle", as used in this legal note, means a motor vehicle of a kind described in headings 8702, 8703, and 8704 of chapter 87 (excluding an electric trolley bus and a three-wheeled vehicle) or an automobile truck tractor principally designed for the transport of persons or articles.

(4) The term "bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer", as used in this legal note, means a person who, upon application to the Secretary of Commerce, is determined by the Secretary to have produced no fewer than 15 complete motor vehicles in the United States during the previous 12 months, and to have installed capacity in the United States to produce 10 or more complete motor vehicles per 40-hour week. The Secretary of Commerce shall maintain, and publish from time to time in the Federal Register, a list of the names and addresses of bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturers.

(B) If any Canadian article accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment is not so used in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, such Canadian article or its value (to be recovered from the importer or other person who diverted the article from its intended use as original motor-vehicle equipment) shall be subject to forfeiture, unless at the time of the diversion of the Canadian article the United States Customs Service is notified in writing, and, pursuant to arrangements made with the Service --

(1) the Canadian article is, under customs supervision, destroyed or exported, or

(2) duty is paid to the United States Government in an amount equal to the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the Canadian article had not been entered as original motor-vehicle equipment.

(v) Articles Eligible for Duty-Free Entry Pursuant to the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. Whenever a product is entered under a heading for which the rate of duty "Free (CA)" appears in the "Preferential" column, the importer shall, in order to obtain duty-free entry of such product, file a written statement, accompanied by such supporting documentation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, with the appropriate customs officer stating that the imported article has been imported for use in civil aircraft, that it will be so used, and that the article has been approved for such use by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Authority (F.A.A.) or by the airworthiness authority in the country of exportation, if such approval is recognized by the F.A.A. as an acceptable substitute for F.A.A. certification, or that an application for approval for such use has been submitted to, and accepted by, the Administrator of the F.A.A. For purposes of the tariff schedule, the term "civil aircraft" means all aircraft other than aircraft purchased for use by the Department of Defense or the United States Coast Guard.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the chapter 99 of the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of general legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers, and

(b) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States,

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption,

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) the term "rate of duty" includes a free rate of duty; rates of duty proclaimed by the President shall be referred to as "proclaimed" rates of duty; rates of duty enacted by the Congress shall be referred to as "statutory" rates of duty.

(e) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

(f) a reference to "headings" encompasses subheadings indented thereunder.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

Classification of articles in the tariff schedule shall be governed by the following principles:

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the headings and any relative legal notes and, provided such headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions:

2. (a) Any reference in a heading to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as entered, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), entered unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in a heading to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance and articles put up in sets for retail sale shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description. However, when two or more headings each refer to one or more of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite articles or to one or more of the items in a set put up for retail sale, those headings are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those articles, even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the articles.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or 3(b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last in numerical order among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling in any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. For legal purposes, the classification of articles in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of the subheadings and any related legal notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that --

(a) The scope of a heading or subheading cannot be enlarged by subheadings which follow under it;

(b) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status; i.e., after the applicable heading has been determined, then the applicable subheading at the first level of indentation must be determined; and then, where appropriate, the applicable subheading at the next level of indentation must be determined and so on.

For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter, and subchapter legal notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Accessories entered with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article, provided they are of a kind and in a number normally sold therewith.

(b) [Cases, boxes and similar containers] entered with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets.

(c) [Subject to rule (b) above, packing materials and packing containers entered with the articles therein shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods. For the application of this rule, containers suitable for repetitive or independent commercial use are not regarded as packing containers and shall be classified separately from the articles they contain.]

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the principal use.

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

(c) a provision for parts of an article covers products solely or principally used as a part of such articles but a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not prevail over a specific provision for such part.

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's-length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under subheading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever preferential tariff treatment is claimed under a heading where such treatment is provided pursuant to general legal note 3, the statistical reporting number for the article being so entered is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision under paragraph (a) of this note followed by the symbol representing the program under which such treatment is afforded. Thus, the statistical reporting number for an automatic pilot imported to be used in civil aircraft is "9014.20.4000CA".

(c) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the 8-digit heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

(b) Fertilizers consisting of any of the products described in (a) above, mixed together, but with no account being taken of the fluorine content limit.

(c) Fertilizers consisting of any of the products described in (a) or (b) above, but with no account being taken of the fluorine content limit, mixed with chalk, gypsum or other inorganic nonfertilizing substances.

4. Heading 3104 applies only to the following products, provided that they are not put up in the forms or packages described in heading 3105--

(a) Products which answer to one or other of the descriptions given below:

(i) Crude natural potassium salts (for example, carnallite, kainite, and sylvite);

(ii) Potassium chloride, whether or not pure, except as provided in legal note 1(c) above;

(iii) Potassium sulfate, whether or not pure;

(iv) Magnesium potassium sulfate, whether or not pure.

(b) Fertilizers consisting of any of the products described in (a) above mixed together.

5. Ammonium dihydrogenorthophosphate (monoammonium phosphate) and diammonium hydrogenorthophosphate (diammonium phosphate), whether or not pure, and intermixtures therof, are to be classified in heading 3105.

6. For the purposes of heading 3105, the term "other fertilizers" applies only to products of a kind when used as fertilizers and containing, as an essential constituent, at least one of the fertilizing elements nitrogen, phosphorus, or potassium.

CHAPTER 32

TANNING OR DYEING EXTRACTS;
TANNINS AND THEIR DERIVATIVES; DYES,
PIGMENTS AND OTHER COLORING MATTER;
PAINTS AND VARNISHES; PUTTY AND OTHER MASTICS; INKS

Legal Notes

1. This chapter does not cover--

   (a) Separate chemically defined elements and compounds (except those of heading 3203 or 3204, inorganic products of a kind used as luminophores (heading 3206), glass obtained from fused silica or fused quartz in the forms provided for in heading 3207, and also dyes and other coloring matter put up in forms or packings for retail sale of heading 3212);

   (b) Tannates and other tannin derivatives of products of heading 2936 to 2939, 2941, or 3501 to 3504; or

   (c) Mastics of asphalt and other bituminous mastics (heading 2715).

2. Heading 3204 includes mixtures of stabilized diazonium salts and couplers for the production of azo dyes.

3. Headings 3203, 3204, 3205, and 3206 apply also to preparations based on coloring matter (including, in the case of heading 3206, coloring pigments of heading 2530, or chapter 28, metal flakes and metal powders), of a kind used for coloring any material or used as ingredients in the manufacture of coloring preparations. The headings do not apply, however, to pigments dispersed in non-aqueous media, in liquid or paste form, of a kind used in the manufacture of paints, including enamels (heading 3212), or to other preparations of headings 3207, 3208, 3209, 3210, 3212, 3213, and 3215.

4. Heading 3208 includes solutions (other than collodions) consisting of any of the products specified in headings 3901 to 3913 in volatile organic solvents when the weight of the solvent exceeds 50 percent of the weight of the solutions.

5. The expression "coloring matter" in this chapter does not include products of a kind used as extenders in oil paints, whether or not they are also suitable for coloring distempers.

6. The expression "stamping foils" in heading 3212 applies only to thin sheets of a kind used for printing, for example, book covers or hat bands, and consisting of--

   (a) Metallic powder (including powder of precious metal) or pigment, agglomerated with glue, gelatin, or other binder; or

   (b) Metal (including precious metal) or pigment, deposited on a supporting sheet of any material.

ARTIFICIAL WAXES, PREPARED WAXES, POLISHING
OR SCOURING PREPARATIONS, CANDLES AND SIMILAR ARTICLES, MODELING PASTES, "DENTAL WAXES" AND DENTAL PREPARATIONS WITH A BASIS OF PLASTER

Legal Notes

1. This chapter does not cover--

   (a) Edible mixtures or preparations of animal or vegetable fats or oils of a kind used as mold release preparations (heading 1517);

   (b) Separate chemically defined compounds; or

   (c) Shampoos, dentifrices, shaving creams and foams, or bath preparations, containing soap or other organic surface-active agents (heading 3305, 3306, or 3307).

2. For the purposes of heading 3401, the expression "soap" applies only to soap soluble in water. Soap and the other products of heading 3401 may contain added substances (for example, disinfectants, abrasive powders, fillers, or medicaments). Products containing abrasive powders remain classified in heading 3401 only if in the form of bars, cakes, or molded pieces or shapes. In other forms they are to be classified in heading 3405 as "scouring powders and similar preparations".

3. For the purposes of heading 3402, "organic surface-active agents" are products which when mixed with water at a concentration of 0.5 percent at 20°C and left to stand for one hour at the same temperature--

   (a) give a transparent or translucent liquid or stable emulsion without separation of insoluble matter; and

   (b) reduce the surface tension of water to 4.5×10^{-2} N/m (45 dyne/cm) or less.

4. In heading 3403 the expression "petroleum oils and oils obtained from bituminous minerals" applies to the products defined in legal note 2 to chapter 27.

5. In heading 3404, subject to the exclusions provided below, the expression "artificial waxes and prepared waxes" applies only to--

   (a) Chemically produced organic products of a waxy character, whether or not water-soluble;

   (b) Products obtained by mixing different waxes, other than mixtures consisting solely of products of heading 2712;

   (c) Products of a waxy character with a basis of one or more waxes and containing fats, resins, mineral substances, or other materials.

   The heading does not apply to--

   (1) Products of heading 1516, 1519, or 3402, even if having a waxy character;

   (2) Unmixed animal waxes and unmixed vegetable waxes, whether or not colored, of heading 1521;

   (3) Mineral waxes and similar products of heading 2712, whether or not intermixed or merely colored; or

   (4) Waxes mixed with, dispersed, or dissolved in a liquid medium (headings 3405, 3809, etc.).

Additional U.S. Legal Note

1. For the purposes of this chapter, the expression "synthetic detergents" embraces formulated materials which are used chiefly for household, laundry, and industrial cleaning purposes, and which consist of one or more surface-active agents as the active ingredients in combination with colors, brighteners, perfumes, inert diluents, builders and extenders such as inorganic salts, polyphosphates, polysilicates or sodium carboxymethylcellulose.

Requests should indicate the chapter or heading upon which the witness will express views and a brief indication of any position to be taken. Parties with a common interest in a chapter are encouraged to consolidate their oral presentations. The original and 19 copies of prepared testimony must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission at his office in Washington, D.C. not later than the close of business (5:15 p.m.) March 23, 1982. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In its public notices of February 8, 1980 (45 F.R. 9828 of February 13, 1980), March 21, 1980 (45 F.R. 19696 of March 26, 1980), August 15, 1980 (45 F.R. 55549 of August 20, 1980), June 24, 1981 (46 F.R. 34439 of July 1, 1981) and July 17, 1981 (46 F.R. 37824 of July 22, 1981) the

Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In response to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29, and 30, 1982. The second set of coverted chapters was published for hearing and public comment on August 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 37317 of August 25, 1982). A hearing was held on those chapters on November 1, 1982.

This final set of chapters includes changes in two important areas. First, the "Rates of Duty 1" column has been divided into columns containing rates of duty 1 "General" and rates of duty 1 "Preferential". The "General" column contains the most-favored-nation rates now set forth in column 1 of the existing TSUS, while the "Prefential" column sets forth the preferential rates of duty provided for certain articles and countries under several trade agreement programs. An explanation of the rates of duty columns is provided in general legal note 3.

Second, revised texts of the general legal notes and general interpretive rules are included in each of the above-listed volumes. It should be noted that portions of general interpretive rule 6 regarding containers are published in square brackets; the wording of these provisions has not yet been finally determined by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature committees. Comments concerning the legal notes and rules are particularly sought, including specific views on general interpretive rule 6.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission is utilizing the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the general legal notes, the general rules of interpretation, the chapters and the two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10 (currently 1, 2, 4, 7, 11, and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical to the corresponding listed headnotes in the TSUS. The remaining legal notes differ in substance from current general headnotes.

General legal note 3, explaining the rates of duty as they appear in the tariff schedule, differs in two respects from current general headnote 3. First, the note commences by defining in paragraph (a) the rates of duty in column 1, whereas existing headnote 3 sets forth provisions as to the application of special tariff preferences and of column 2 rates of duty and applies column 1 rates to all other articles. Second, note 3 explains the "Preferential" column now being added as a part of column 1, in order to indicate the application of preferential tariff rates under four programs. Eligibility for these programs is covered in paragraph (c). Notes 3(c)(ii) and (iii), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and the Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. The current GSP column in the TSUS has also not been included since indication of GSP eligibility would be included in the "Preferential" column, at a later date. Notes 3(c)(iv) and (v) cover articles eligible for preferential treatment under the Automotive Products Agreement with Canada and the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft, respectively. Note 3(c)(iv) also includes definitions from headnote 2, part 6B of schedule 6.

Note 5 has been amended by deleting electricity, currency, securities, and vessels from, and by adding telecommunications transmissions to, the enumeration of articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule and consequently excluded from entry requirements. It is noted that new U.S. Legal Notes will be added to chapters 49 and 71 which would exempt currency in current circulation and securities and similar evidence of value from formal entry requirements.

The abbreviations enumerated in note 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward, although five current definitions are included in general legal note 8. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapter released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation. Definition (f) makes it clear that "heading" is to be read as encompassing subheadings thereunder.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation are the provisionally adopted "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", as revised by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature Committees, with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified to include the substance of current TSUS rule 10(c), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions, and to clarify the classification of mixtures and composite articles. Second, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rules 10(e) and 10(ij), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment of use provisions and of parts. It should be noted that rule 6 as it applies to containers includes matter in square brackets, representing wording which has not been finally adopted by the above Committees.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067
694.6500	5%	205

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference.

The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns designated 1 ("General" and "Preferential"), and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Rate of Duty Column 1

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this legal note, the rates of duty in column numbered 1 are Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) rates which are applicable to products of countries other than those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this legal note. Column 1 is divided into 2 parts, "General" and "Preferential", which are applicable as provided below.

(ii) The "General" column sets forth the general MFN rates which are applicable to products of those countries described in (i) above which are not entitled to preferential tariff treatment as set forth below.

(iii) The "Preferential" column reflects rates of duty under one or more preferential tariff treatment programs described in paragraph (c) of this legal note and identified in parentheses immediately following the duty rate specified in such column. These rates apply to those products which are properly classified under a heading for which a preferential rate is indicated and for which all of the legal requirements for eligibility for such program or programs have been met. Where a product is eligible for preferential treatment under more than one program, the lowest rate of duty provided for any applicable program shall be imposed. Where no preferential rate of duty is provided for a heading, or where the country from which a product eligible for preferential treatment was imported is not designated as a beneficiary country under a program appearing with the appropriate heading, the rates of duty in the "General" column of column 1 shall be applied.

(iv) Products of Insular Possessions.

(A) Except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 3 of chapter 96, articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column designated 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(B) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either-

(1) at the time such article is entered, or

(2) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (2) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (A) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(C) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Certain Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, to section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or to any other applicable section of law, or to action taken by the President thereunder:

Albania
Bulgaria
Cuba 1/
Czechoslovakia
Estonia
German Democratic Republic
Kampuchea
Laos
Latvia
Lithuania
Mongolia
North Korea
Poland
Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
Vietnam

(c) Products Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment.

(i) Programs under which preferential tariff treatment may be provided, and the corresponding symbols for such programs as they are indicated in the "Preferential" column, are as follows:

Generalized System of Preferences............................GSP
Least Developed Developing Countries........................LDDC
Automotive Products Trade Act...............................AP
Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft........................CA

1/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

(ii) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iii) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iv) Automotive Products and Motor Vehicles Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment. Articles entered under headings for which duty-free entry has been proclaimed by the President under the Automotive Products Trade Act (AP) are subject to the following provisions:

(A) Motor vehicles and original equipment therefor of Canadian origin provided for in headings for which the rate of duty "Free (AP)" appears in the "Preferential" column may be entered free of duty. As used in the tariff schedule--

(1) The term "Canadian article" means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(2) The term "original motor-vehicle equipment", as used in the schedule with reference to a Canadian article (as defined above), means such a Canadian article which has been obtained from a supplier in Canada under or pursuant to a written order, contract, or letter of intent of a bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer in the United States, and which is a fabricated component intended for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of a motor vehicle, but the term does not include trailers or articles to be used in their manufacture.

(3) The term "motor vehicle", as used in this legal note, means a motor vehicle of a kind described in headings 8702, 8703, and 8704 of chapter 87 (excluding an electric trolley bus and a three-wheeled vehicle) or an automobile truck tractor principally designed for the transport of persons or articles.

(4) The term "bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer", as used in this legal note, means a person who, upon application to the Secretary of Commerce, is determined by the Secretary to have produced no fewer than 15 complete motor vehicles in the United States during the previous 12 months, and to have installed capacity in the United States to produce 10 or more complete motor vehicles per 40-hour week. The Secretary of Commerce shall maintain, and publish from time to time in the Federal Register, a list of the names and addresses of bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturers.

(B) If any Canadian article accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment is not so used in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, such Canadian article or its value (to be recovered from the importer or other person who diverted the article from its intended use as original motor-vehicle equipment) shall be subject to forfeiture, unless at the time of the diversion of the Canadian article the United States Customs Service is notified in writing, and, pursuant to arrangements made with the Service --

(1) the Canadian article is, under customs supervision, destroyed or exported, or

(2) duty is paid to the United States Government in an amount equal to the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the Canadian article had not been entered as original motor-vehicle equipment.

(v) Articles Eligible for Duty-Free Entry Pursuant to the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. Whenever a product is entered under a heading for which the rate of duty "Free (CA)" appears in the "Preferential" column, the importer shall, in order to obtain duty-free entry of such product, file a written statement, accompanied by such supporting documentation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, with the appropriate customs officer stating that the imported article has been imported for use in civil aircraft, that it will be so used, and that the article has been approved for such use by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Authority (F.A.A.) or by the airworthiness authority in the country of exportation, if such approval is recognized by the F.A.A. as an acceptable substitute for F.A.A. certification, or that an application for approval for such use has been submitted to, and accepted by, the Administrator of the F.A.A. For purposes of the tariff schedule, the term "civil aircraft" means all aircraft other than aircraft purchased for use by the Department of Defense or the United States Coast Guard.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the chapter 99 of the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of general legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers, and

(b) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States,

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption,

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) the term "rate of duty" includes a free rate of duty; rates of duty proclaimed by the President shall be referred to as "proclaimed" rates of duty; rates of duty enacted by the Congress shall be referred to as "statutory" rates of duty.

(e) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

(f) a reference to "headings" encompasses subheadings indented thereunder.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

Classification of articles in the tariff schedule shall be governed by the following principles:

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the headings and any relative legal notes and, provided such headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions:

2. (a) Any reference in a heading to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as entered, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), entered unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in a heading to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance and articles put up in sets for retail sale shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description. However, when two or more headings each refer to one or more of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite articles or to one or more of the items in a set put up for retail sale, those headings are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those articles, even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the articles.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or 3(b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last in numerical order among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling in any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. For legal purposes, the classification of articles in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of the subheadings and any related legal notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that --

(a) The scope of a heading or subheading cannot be enlarged by subheadings which follow under it;

(b) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status; i.e., after the applicable heading has been determined, then the applicable subheading at the first level of indentation must be determined; and then, where appropriate, the applicable subheading at the next level of indentation must be determined and so on.

For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter, and subchapter legal notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Accessories entered with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article, provided they are of a kind and in a number normally sold therewith.

(b) [Cases, boxes and similar containers] entered with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets.

(c) [Subject to rule (b) above, packing materials and packing containers entered with the articles therein shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods. For the application of this rule, containers suitable for repetitive or independent commercial use are not regarded as packing containers and shall be classified separately from the articles they contain.]

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the principal use.

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

(c) a provision for parts of an article covers products solely or principally used as a part of such articles but a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not prevail over a specific provision for such part.

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's-length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under subheading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever preferential tariff treatment is claimed under a heading where such treatment is provided pursuant to general legal note 3, the statistical reporting number for the article being so entered is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision under paragraph (a) of this note followed by the symbol representing the program under which such treatment is afforded. Thus, the statistical reporting number for an automatic pilot imported to be used in civil aircraft is "9014.20.4000CA".

(c) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the 8-digit heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

SECTION VII

RUBBER AND ARTICLES THEREOF

Legal Note

1. Products put up in sets consisting of two or more separate constituents, some or all of which fall in this section and are intended to be mixed together to obtain a product of section VI or VII, are to be classified in the heading appropriate to that product, provided that the constituents are--

   (i) having regard to the manner in which they are put up, clearly identifiable as being intended to be used together without first being repacked;

   (ii) entered together; and

   (iii) identifiable, whether by their nature or by the relative proportions in which they are present, as being complementary one to another.

CHAPTER 39

PLASTICS AND ARTICLES THEREOF

Legal Notes

1. Throughout the tariff schedule the expression "plastics" means those materials of heading 3901 to 3914 which are or have been capable, either at the moment of polymerization or at some subsequent stage, of being formed under external influence (usually heat and pressure, if necessary with a solvent or plasticizer) by molding, casting, extruding, rolling, or other process into shapes which are retained on the removal of the external influence.

   Throughout the tariff schedule, any reference to "plastics" also includes vulcanized fiber. [The expression does not, however, apply to materials regarded as textile materials.]

2. This chapter does not cover--

   (a) Waxes of heading 2712 or 3404;

   (b) Separate chemically defined organic compounds (chapter 29);

   (c) Heparin (heading 3001);

   (d) Stamping foils of heading 3212;

   (e) Organic surface-active agents and preparations of heading 3402;

   (f) Run gums or ester gums (heading 3806);

   (g) Synthetic rubber, as defined for the purposes of chapter 40, or articles thereof;

   (h) Saddlery or harness (heading 4201) or trunks, suitcases, handbags, or other containers of heading 4202;

   (ij) Plaits, wickerwork, or other articles of chapter 46;

   (k) Wall coverings of heading 4814;

   (l) Products of section XI (textiles and textile articles);

   (m) Articles of section XII (for example, footwear, headgear, umbrellas, sun umbrellas, walking-sticks, whips, riding-crops, or parts thereof);

   (n) Imitation jewelry of heading 7117;

   (o) Articles of section XVI (machines and mechanical or electrical appliances);

   (p) Parts of aircraft or vehicles of section XVII;

   (q) Articles of chapter 90 (for example, optical elements, spectacle frames, drawing instruments);

   (r) Articles of chapter 91 (for example, clock or watch cases);

   (s) Articles of chapter 92 (for example, musical instruments or parts thereof);

   (t) Articles of chapter 94 (for example, furniture, lamps and lighting fittings, illuminated signs, prefabricated buildings);

(u) Articles of chapter 95 (for example, toys, games, sports equipment); or

(v) Miscellaneous manufactured articles of chapter 96 (for example, brushes, buttons, slide fasteners, combs, mouthpieces or stems for smoking pipes, cigarette-holders or the like, parts of vacuum flasks or the like, pens, propelling pencils).

3. Headings 3901 to 3911 apply only to products of a kind produced by chemical synthesis, falling in the following categories:

(a) Liquid synthetic polyolefins of which less than 60 percent by volume distils at 300° C, after conversion to 1,013 millibars when a reduced-pressure distillation method is used (headings 3901 and 3902);

(b) Resins, not highly polymerized, of the coumarone-indene type (heading 3911);

(c) Other synthetic polymers with an average of at least five monomer units;

(d) Silicones (heading 3910);

(e) Resols and other prepolymers.

4. For the purposes of this chapter, except where the context otherwise requires, copolymers (including co-polycondensates, co-polyaddition products, block copolymers, and graft copolymers) and polymer blends are to be classified in the heading covering polymers of that comonomer which predominates by weight over every other single comonomer, comonomers whose polymers fall in the same heading being regarded as constituting a single comonomer.

If no single comonomer predominates, copolymers or polymer blends, as the case may be, are to be classified in the heading which occurs latest among those which equally merit consideration.

The expression "copolymers" covers all polymers in which no single monomer contributes 95 percent or more by weight to the total polymer content.

5. Chemically modified polymers, that is, those in which only appendages to the main polymer chain have been changed by chemical reaction, are to be classified in the heading appropriate to the unmodified polymer. This provision does not apply to graft copolymers.

6. In headings 3901 to 3914, the expression "primary forms" applies only to the following forms:

(a) Liquids and pastes, including dispersions (emulsions and suspensions) and solutions;

(b) Blocks of irregular shape, lumps, powders (including molding powders), granules, flakes, and similar bulk forms.

7. Heading 3915 does not apply to waste, parings, and scrap of a single thermoplastic material, transformed into primary forms (headings 3901 to 3914).

8. For the purposes of heading 3917, the expression "tubes, pipes, and hoses" means hollow products, whether semi-manufactures or finished products, of a kind generally used for conveying or conducting gases or liquids (for example, ribbed garden hose, perforated tubes). This expression also includes sausage casings and other lay-flat tubing. However, except for the last-mentioned, those having an internal cross-section other than round, oval, rectangular (in which the length does not exceed 1.5 times the width), or in the shape of a regular polygon are not to be regarded as tubes, pipes, and hoses but as profile shapes.

9. For the purposes of heading 3918, the expression "wall or ceiling coverings of plastics" applies to products in rolls, of a width not less than 45 cm, suitable for wall or ceiling decoration, consisting of plastics fixed permanently on a backing of any material other than paper, the plastic layer (on the face side) being grained, embossed, colored, design-printed, or otherwise decorated.

10. In headings 3920 and 3921, the expression "plates, sheets, film, foil, and strip" applies only to plates, sheets, film, foil, and strip (other than those of chapter 54) and to blocks of regular geometric shape, whether or not printed or otherwise surface-worked, uncut or cut into rectangles (including squares) but not further worked (even if when so cut, they become articles ready for use).

11. Heading 3925 applies ony to the following articles, not being products covered by any of the earlier headings of subchapter II:

(a) Reservoirs, tanks (including septic tanks), vats and similar containers, of a capacity exceeding 300 l;

(b) Structural elements used, for example, in floors, walls or partitions, ceilings or roofs;

(c) Gutters and fittings therefor;

(d) Doors, windows and their frames, and thresholds for doors;

(e) Balconies, balustrades, fencing, gates, and similar barriers;

(f) Shutters, blinds (including Venetian blinds), and similar articles, and parts and fittings thereof;

(g) Large-scale shelving for assembly and permanent installation, for example, in shops, workshops, warehouses;

(h) Ornamental architectural features, for example, flutings, cupolas, dovecotes; and

(ij) Fittings and mountings intended for permanent installation in or on doors, windows, staircases, walls, or other parts of buildings, for example, knobs, handles, hooks, brackets, towel rails, switch-plates, and other protective plates.

12. Within any one heading of this chapter, copolymers (including co-polycondensates, co-polyaddition products, block copolymers, and graft copolymers) are to be classified in the same subheading as homopolymers of the predominant comonomer and chemically modified polymers of the kind specified in legal note 5 are to be classified in the same subheading as the unmodified polymer, provided that such copolymers or chemically modified polymers are not more specifically covered by any other subheading and that there is no residual subheading named "Other" in the series of subheadings concerned. [Blends of two or more polymers are to be classified in the same subheading as homopolymers or copolymers of the same monomers in the same proportions as in the polymer blend in question.]

Additional U.S. Legal Notes

1. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "elastomeric" means a plastics material which after cross-linking can be stretched at 20° C to at least three times its original length and that, after having been stretched to twice its original length and the stress removed, returns within five minutes to less than 150 percent of its original length. Elastomeric plastics may also contain fillers, extenders, pigments, or rubber-processing chemicals, whether or not such plastics material, after the addition of such fillers, extenders, pigments, or chemicals, can meet the tests specified in the first part of this note.

2. For the purposes of subheading 3911.90--

   (a) The term "thermoplastic" means polymers which in their final state as finished articles are capable of being repeatedly softened by increase of temperature and hardened by decrease of temperature.

   (b) The term "thermosetting" means polymers which in their final state as finished articles are substantially infusible. Thermosetting polymers are often liquids at some stage in their manufacture or processing and are cured by heat, catalysis, or other chemical means. After being fully cured, thermosets cannot be resoftened by heat.

Statistical Note

1. For the purposes of statistical reporting number 3907.60.0010, "bottle-grade" refers to uncompounded resins having an intrinsic viscosity of at least 0.68 but not more than 0.86 deciliters per gram, as determined by ASTM D2857-70.

CHAPTER 40

RUBBER AND ARTICLES THEREOF

Legal Notes

1. Except where the context otherwise requires, throughout the tariff schedule the expression "rubber" means the following products, whether or not vulcanized or hard: natural rubber, balata, gutta-percha, guayule, chicle and similar natural gums, synthetic rubber, factice derived from oils, and such substances reclaimed.

2. This chapter does not cover--

   (a) Products of section XI (textiles and textile articles);

   (b) Footwear or parts thereof of chapter 64;

   (c) Headgear or parts thereof (including bathing caps) of chapter 65;

   (d) Mechanical or electrical appliances or parts thereof of section XVI (including electrical articles of all kinds), of hard rubber;

   (e) Articles of chapter 90, 92, 94, or 96; or

   (f) Articles of chapter 95 (other than sports gloves and articles of headings 4011 to 4013).

3. In headings 4001 to 4003 and 4005 the expression "primary forms" applies only to the following forms:

   (a) Liquids and pastes (including latex, whether or not prevulcanized, and other dispersions and solutions);

   (b) Blocks of irregular shape, lumps, bales, powders, granules, crumbs, and similar bulk forms.

4. In legal note 1 to this chapter and in heading 4002, the expression "synthetic rubber" applies to--

   (a) Unsaturated synthetic substances which can be irreversibly transformed by vulcanization with sulfur into non-thermoplastic substances which, at a temperature between 18° and 29° C, will not break on being extended to three times their original length and will return, after being extended to twice their original length, within a period of five minutes, to a length not greater than one and a half times their original length. For the purposes of this test, substances necessary for the cross-linking, such as vulcanizing activators or accelerators, may be added; the presence of substances as provided for by legal note 5(b)(ii) and (iii) is also permitted. However, the presence of any substances not necessary for the cross-linking, such as extenders, plasticizers, and fillers, is not permitted;

   (b) Thioplasts (TM); and

   (c) Natural rubber modified by grafting or mixing with plastics, depolymerized natural rubber, mixtures of unsaturated synthetic substances with saturated synthetic high polymers provided that all the above-mentioned products comply with the requirements concerning vulcanization, elongation, and recovery in (a) above.

5. (a) Headings 4001 and 4002 do not apply to any rubber or mixture of rubbers which has been compounded, before or after coagulation, with--

      (i) vulcanizing agents, accelerators, retarders, or activators (other than those added for the preparation of pre-vulcanized rubber latex);

      (ii) pigments or other coloring matter other than those added solely for the purpose of identification;

      (iii) plasticizers or extenders (except mineral oil in the case of oil-extended rubber), fillers, reinforcing agents, organic solvents or any other substances, except those permitted under (b);

   (b) The presence of the following substances in any rubber or mixture of rubbers shall not affect its classification in heading 4001 or 4002 as the case may be, provided that such rubber or mixture of rubbers retains its essential character as a raw material:

      (i) emulsifiers or anti-tack agents;

      (ii) small amounts of breakdown products of emulsifiers;

      (iii) very small amounts of the following: heat-sensitive agents (generally for obtaining thermosensitive rubber latexes), cationic surface-active agents (generally for obtaining electro-positive rubber latexes), antioxidants, coagulants, crumbling agents, freeze-resisting agents, peptizers, preservatives, stabilizers, viscosity-control agents, or similar special-purpose additives.

6. For the purposes of heading 4004 the expression "waste, parings, and scrap" means rubber waste, parings, and scrap from the manufacture or working of rubber and rubber articles definitely not usable as such because of cutting-up, wear, or other reasons.

7. Thread wholly of vulcanized rubber, of which any cross-sectional dimension exceeds 5 mm, is to be classified as strip, rods, or profile shapes, of heading 4008.

8. Heading 4010 includes conveyor or transmission belts or belting of textile fabric impregnated, coated, covered, or laminated with rubber or made from textile yarn or cord impregnated, coated, covered, or sheathed with rubber.

9. In headings 4001, 4002, 4003, 4005, and 4008 the expressions "plates", "sheets" and "strip" apply only to plates, sheets, strip, and blocks of regular geometric shape, whether or not printed or otherwise surface-worked but not cut to shape or otherwise worked, and rectangular (including square) articles cut therefrom not further worked.

   In heading 4008 the expressions "rods" and "profile shapes" apply only to such products, whether or not cut to length or surface-worked but not otherwise worked.

All nonconfidential written submissions will be made available to interested persons.

HEARING: Public hearings on the draft converted chapters will begin on March 30, 1983, in the Hearing Room of the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 701 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. at 10 a.m. Requests for appearances at the hearing, including the name and address of any witness who will testify and the industry or organization, if any, which the witness represents, should be filed in writing with the Secretary of the Commission no later than the close of business on March 21, 1983. Requests should indicate the chapter or heading upon which the witness will express views and a brief indication of any position to be taken. Parties with a common interest in a chapter are encouraged to consolidate their oral presentations. The original and 19 copies of prepared testimony must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission at his office in Washington, D.C. not later than the close of business (5:15 p.m.) March 23, 1982. For further information on hearing procedures and rules of general application consult the Commission's Rules, part 201 (19 CFR 201).

COPIES OF DOCUMENTS: Copies of the chapters which are the subject of this notice are available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary, 701 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20436. The Secretary will also send copies of chapters to interested parties upon request; telephone (202) 523-5178.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In its public notices of February 8, 1980 (45 F.R. 9828 of February 13, 1980), March 21, 1980 (45 F.R. 19696 of March 26, 1980), August 15, 1980 (45 F.R. 55549 of August 20, 1980), June 24, 1981 (46 F.R. 34439 of July 1, 1981) and July 17, 1981 (46 F.R. 37824 of July 22, 1981) the

Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In response to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29, and 30, 1982. The second set of coverted chapters was published for hearing and public comment on August 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 37317 of August 25, 1982). A hearing was held on those chapters on November 1, 1982.

This final set of chapters includes changes in two important areas. First, the "Rates of Duty 1" column has been divided into columns containing rates of duty 1 "General" and rates of duty 1 "Preferential". The "General" column contains the most-favored-nation rates now set forth in column 1 of the existing TSUS, while the "Prefential" column sets forth the preferential rates of duty provided for certain articles and countries under several trade agreement programs. An explanation of the rates of duty columns is provided in general legal note 3.

Second, revised texts of the general legal notes and general interpretive rules are included in each of the above-listed volumes. It should be noted that portions of general interpretive rule 6 regarding containers are published in square brackets; the wording of these provisions has not yet been finally determined by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature committees. Comments concerning the legal notes and rules are particularly sought, including specific views on general interpretive rule 6.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission is utilizing the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the general legal notes, the general rules of interpretation, the chapters and the two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10 (currently 1, 2, 4, 7, 11, and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical to the corresponding listed headnotes in the TSUS. The remaining legal notes differ in substance from current general headnotes.

General legal note 3, explaining the rates of duty as they appear in the tariff schedule, differs in two respects from current general headnote 3. First, the note commences by defining in paragraph (a) the rates of duty in column 1, whereas existing headnote 3 sets forth provisions as to the application of special tariff preferences and of column 2 rates of duty and applies column 1 rates to all other articles. Second, note 3 explains the "Preferential" column now being added as a part of column 1, in order to indicate the application of preferential tariff rates under four programs. Eligibility for these programs is covered in paragraph (c). Notes 3(c)(ii) and (iii), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and the Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. The current GSP column in the TSUS has also not been included since indication of GSP eligibility would be included in the "Preferential" column, at a later date. Notes 3(c)(iv) and (v) cover articles eligible for preferential treatment under the Automotive Products Agreement with Canada and the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft, respectively. Note 3(c)(iv) also includes definitions from headnote 2, part 6B of schedule 6.

Note 5 has been amended by deleting electricity, currency, securities, and vessels from, and by adding telecommunications transmissions to, the enumeration of articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule and consequently excluded from entry requirements. It is noted that new U.S. Legal Notes will be added to chapters 49 and 71 which would exempt currency in current circulation and securities and similar evidence of value from formal entry requirements.

The abbreviations enumerated in note 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward, although five current definitions are included in general legal note 8. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapter released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation. Definition (f) makes it clear that "heading" is to be read as encompassing subheadings thereunder.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation are the provisionally adopted "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", as revised by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature Committees, with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified to include the substance of current TSUS rule 10(c), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions, and to clarify the classification of mixtures and composite articles. Second, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rules 10(e) and 10(ij), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment of use provisions and of parts. It should be noted that rule 6 as it applies to containers includes matter in square brackets, representing wording which has not been finally adopted by the above Committees.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067
694.6500	5%	205

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference.

The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns designated 1 ("General" and "Preferential"), and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Rate of Duty Column 1

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this legal note, the rates of duty in column numbered 1 are Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) rates which are applicable to products of countries other than those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this legal note. Column 1 is divided into 2 parts, "General" and "Preferential", which are applicable as provided below.

(ii) The "General" column sets forth the general MFN rates which are applicable to products of those countries described in (i) above which are not entitled to preferential tariff treatment as set forth below.

(iii) The "Preferential" column reflects rates of duty under one or more preferential tariff treatment programs described in paragraph (c) of this legal note and identified in parentheses immediately following the duty rate specified in such column. These rates apply to those products which are properly classified under a heading for which a preferential rate is indicated and for which all of the legal requirements for eligibility for such program or programs have been met. Where a product is eligible for preferential treatment under more than one program, the lowest rate of duty provided for any applicable program shall be imposed. Where no preferential rate of duty is provided for a heading, or where the country from which a product eligible for preferential treatment was imported is not designated as a beneficiary country under a program appearing with the appropriate heading, the rates of duty in the "General" column of column 1 shall be applied.

(iv) Products of Insular Possessions.

(A) Except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 3 of chapter 96, articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column designated 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(B) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either-

(1) at the time such article is entered, or

(2) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (2) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (A) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(C) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Certain Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, to section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or to any other applicable section of law, or to action taken by the President thereunder:

Albania
Bulgaria
Cuba 1/
Czechoslovakia
Estonia
German Democratic Republic
Kampuchea
Laos
Latvia
Lithuania
Mongolia
North Korea
Poland
Union of Soviet Socialist Republics

(c) Products Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment.

(i) Programs under which preferential tariff treatment may be provided, and the corresponding symbols for such programs as they are indicated in the "Preferential" column, are as follows:

Generalized System of Preferences..........................GSP
Least Developed Developing Countries.......................LDDC
Automotive Products Trade Act..............................AP
Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft.......................CA

1/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

(ii) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iii) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iv) Automotive Products and Motor Vehicles Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment. Articles entered under headings for which duty-free entry has been proclaimed by the President under the Automotive Products Trade Act (AP) are subject to the following provisions:

(A) Motor vehicles and original equipment therefor of Canadian origin provided for in headings for which the rate of duty "Free (AP)" appears in the "Preferential" column may be entered free of duty. As used in the tariff schedule--

(1) The term "Canadian article" means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(2) The term "original motor-vehicle equipment", as used in the schedule with reference to a Canadian article (as defined above), means such a Canadian article which has been obtained from a supplier in Canada under or pursuant to a written order, contract, or letter of intent of a bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer in the United States, and which is a fabricated component intended for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of a motor vehicle, but the term does not include trailers or articles to be used in their manufacture.

(3) The term "motor vehicle", as used in this legal note, means a motor vehicle of a kind described in headings 8702, 8703, and 8704 of chapter 87 (excluding an electric trolley bus and a three-wheeled vehicle) or an automobile truck tractor principally designed for the transport of persons or articles.

(4) The term "bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer", as used in this legal note, means a person who, upon application to the Secretary of Commerce, is determined by the Secretary to have produced no fewer than 15 complete motor vehicles in the United States during the previous 12 months, and to have installed capacity in the United States to produce 10 or more complete motor vehicles per 40-hour week. The Secretary of Commerce shall maintain, and publish from time to time in the Federal Register, a list of the names and addresses of bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturers.

(B) If any Canadian article accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment is not so used in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, such Canadian article or its value (to be recovered from the importer or other person who diverted the article from its intended use as original motor-vehicle equipment) shall be subject to forfeiture, unless at the time of the diversion of the Canadian article the United States Customs Service is notified in writing, and, pursuant to arrangements made with the Service --

(1) the Canadian article is, under customs supervision, destroyed or exported, or

(2) duty is paid to the United States Government in an amount equal to the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the Canadian article had not been entered as original motor-vehicle equipment.

(v) Articles Eligible for Duty-Free Entry Pursuant to the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. Whenever a product is entered under a heading for which the rate of duty "Free (CA)" appears in the "Preferential" column, the importer shall, in order to obtain duty-free entry of such product, file a written statement, accompanied by such supporting documentation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, with the appropriate customs officer stating that the imported article has been imported for use in civil aircraft, that it will be so used, and that the article has been approved for such use by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Authority (F.A.A.) or by the airworthiness authority in the country of exportation, if such approval is recognized by the F.A.A. as an acceptable substitute for F.A.A. certification, or that an application for approval for such use has been submitted to, and accepted by, the Administrator of the F.A.A. For purposes of the tariff schedule, the term "civil aircraft" means all aircraft other than aircraft purchased for use by the Department of Defense or the United States Coast Guard.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the chapter 99 of the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of general legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers, and

(b) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States,

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption,

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) the term "rate of duty" includes a free rate of duty; rates of duty proclaimed by the President shall be referred to as "proclaimed" rates of duty; rates of duty enacted by the Congress shall be referred to as "statutory" rates of duty.

(e) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

(f) a reference to "headings" encompasses subheadings indented thereunder.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

Classification of articles in the tariff schedule shall be governed by the following principles:

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the headings and any relative legal notes and, provided such headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions:

2. (a) Any reference in a heading to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as entered, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), entered unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in a heading to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance and articles put up in sets for retail sale shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description. However, when two or more headings each refer to one or more of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite articles or to one or more of the items in a set put up for retail sale, those headings are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those articles, even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the articles.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or 3(b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last in numerical order among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling in any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. For legal purposes, the classification of articles in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of the subheadings and any related legal notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that --

(a) The scope of a heading or subheading cannot be enlarged by subheadings which follow under it;

(b) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status; i.e., after the applicable heading has been determined, then the applicable subheading at the first level of indentation must be determined; and then, where appropriate, the applicable subheading at the next level of indentation must be determined and so on.

For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter, and subchapter legal notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Accessories entered with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article, provided they are of a kind and in a number normally sold therewith.

(b) [Cases, boxes and similar containers] entered with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets.

(c) [Subject to rule (b) above, packing materials and packing containers entered with the articles therein shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods. For the application of this rule, containers suitable for repetitive or independent commercial use are not regarded as packing containers and shall be classified separately from the articles they contain.]

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the principal use.

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

(c) a provision for parts of an article covers products solely or principally used as a part of such articles but a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not prevail over a specific provision for such part.

GENERAL STATISTICAL NOTES

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's-length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under subheading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever preferential tariff treatment is claimed under a heading where such treatment is provided pursuant to general legal note 3, the statistical reporting number for the article being so entered is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision under paragraph (a) of this note followed by the symbol representing the program under which such treatment is afforded. Thus, the statistical reporting number for an automatic pilot imported to be used in civil aircraft is "9014.20.4000CA".

(c) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the 8-digit heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In its public notices of February 8, 1980 (45 F.R. 9828 of February 13, 1980), March 21, 1980 (45 F.R. 19696 of March 26, 1980), August 15, 1980 (45 F.R. 55549 of August 20, 1980), June 24, 1981 (46 F.R. 34439 of July 1, 1981) and July 17, 1981 (46 F.R. 37824 of July 22, 1981) the

Commission identified the 96 chapters of the Harmonized System for which texts had been provisionally adopted by the Harmonized System and the Nomenclature committees of the Customs Cooperation Council. Views and comments of interested parties with respect to the 96 chapters were sought, and the structure and technical development of the Harmonized System were described.

In response to a request dated August 24, 1981, by the President of the United States, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332(g)) in order to prepare a basic draft converting the Tariff Schedules of the United States into the nomenclature structure of the Harmonized System. The President directed that the Commission's report, including the converted U.S. tariff schedule, be submitted no later than June 30, 1983. Guidelines for the conversion set by the President were set forth in the Commission's notice of the institution of investigation of September 16, 1981 (46 F.R. 47897 of September 30, 1981). The Commission published the first set of converted chapters for hearing and public comment on January 29, 1982 (47 F.R. 5369 of February 4, 1982). Hearings were held on those chapters on March 29, and 30, 1982. The second set of coverted chapters was published for hearing and public comment on August 16, 1982 (47 F.R. 37317 of August 25, 1982). A hearing was held on those chapters on November 1, 1982.

This final set of chapters includes changes in two important areas. First, the "Rates of Duty 1" column has been divided into columns containing rates of duty 1 "General" and rates of duty 1 "Preferential". The "General" column contains the most-favored-nation rates now set forth in column 1 of the existing TSUS, while the "Prefential" column sets forth the preferential rates of duty provided for certain articles and countries under several trade agreement programs. An explanation of the rates of duty columns is provided in general legal note 3.

Second, revised texts of the general legal notes and general interpretive rules are included in each of the above-listed volumes. It should be noted that portions of general interpretive rule 6 regarding containers are published in square brackets; the wording of these provisions has not yet been finally determined by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature committees. Comments concerning the legal notes and rules are particularly sought, including specific views on general interpretive rule 6.

In preparing the converted U.S. tariff schedules, the Commission is seeking and taking into consideration the views of any interested person, of any trade or industry organization and of interested government agencies. Submissions should be directed at evaluating the draft conversion in light of the President's guidelines, in particular whether the conversion--

(a) avoids, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplifies the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviates administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

The Commission is utilizing the post-MTN rates of duty on individual products when analyzing impacts of any proposed changes.

Submissions should also address the probable effect of U.S. adoption of the converted tariff schedules on U.S. industries, workers, and trade. Submissions aimed primarily at seeking increases or reductions in existing tariff rates are not relevant and will not be entertained by the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

INTRODUCTION

The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) is a commodity classification system being developed under the auspices of the Customs Cooperation Council. The system comprises a "core" product nomenclature, based upon the Customs Cooperation Council Nomenclature, which could serve as the basis for customs tariffs and the foreign-trade statistical systems of the United States and its trading partners. 1/

The Harmonized System comprises approximately 5,000 article descriptions arranged in headings and subheadings and organized into 96 chapters, which are themselves grouped in 20 sections. The legal text of the Harmonized System consists of --

(1) The Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System,

(2) The legal notes to the sections and chapters, and

(3) The headings and subheadings of the Harmonized System.

In addition, the nonlegal Explanatory Notes and Classification Opinions will complement the Harmonized System.

The headings and associated subheadings in the Harmonized System are identified by a six-digit number, of which the first two digits represent the chapter in which the heading appears, the second two indicate its position in that chapter, and the third two code any subdivisions of the heading.

This system is capable of being further subdivided for national tariff or statistical purposes. Two additional sets of two digits each have been added to the six-digit Harmonized System codes for these purposes, thereby resulting in a proposed tariff reporting number of ten digits.

1/ For a more detailed description of the Harmonized System, see Interim Report on the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System, USITC Publication 1106, dated November 1980.

EXPLANATION OF TARIFF CONVERSION

The draft tariff conversion package consists of four parts: the general legal notes, the general rules of interpretation, the chapters and the two cross-reference tables.

The draft general legal notes are derived from the general headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS). General legal notes 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10 (currently 1, 2, 4, 7, 11, and 12, respectively, in the TSUS) are virtually identical to the corresponding listed headnotes in the TSUS. The remaining legal notes differ in substance from current general headnotes.

General legal note 3, explaining the rates of duty as they appear in the tariff schedule, differs in two respects from current general headnote 3. First, the note commences by defining in paragraph (a) the rates of duty in column 1, whereas existing headnote 3 sets forth provisions as to the application of special tariff preferences and of column 2 rates of duty and applies column 1 rates to all other articles. Second, note 3 explains the "Preferential" column now being added as a part of column 1, in order to indicate the application of preferential tariff rates under four programs. Eligibility for these programs is covered in paragraph (c). Notes 3(c)(ii) and (iii), dealing with the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) and the Least Developed Developing Countries (LDDC), respectively, have not been included at this time. The current GSP column in the TSUS has also not been included since indication of GSP eligibility would be included in the "Preferential" column, at a later date. Notes 3(c)(iv) and (v) cover articles eligible for preferential treatment under the Automotive Products Agreement with Canada and the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft, respectively. Note 3(c)(iv) also includes definitions from headnote 2, part 6B of schedule 6.

Note 5 has been amended by deleting electricity, currency, securities, and vessels from, and by adding telecommunications transmissions to, the enumeration of articles (previously referred to as "intangibles") which are exempt from the provisions of the schedule and consequently excluded from entry requirements. It is noted that new U.S. Legal Notes will be added to chapters 49 and 71 which would exempt currency in current circulation and securities and similar evidence of value from formal entry requirements.

The abbreviations enumerated in note 7 have been modified to conform to the provisions of the new schedule. Finally, most of the definitions which were formerly included in general headnote 9 have not been carried forward, although five current definitions are included in general legal note 8. A number of the terms have not been employed in the draft chapter released for public comment. Interpretations involving the use of the term "of" used in connection with a named constituent material should be resolved by reference to headings and legal notes or by application of the General Rules of Interpretation. Definition (f) makes it clear that "heading" is to be read as encompassing subheadings thereunder.

The draft General Rules of Interpretation are the provisionally adopted "Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System", as revised by the Harmonized System and Nomenclature Committees, with certain important modifications. First, rule 3 has been modified to include the substance of current TSUS rule 10(c), providing guidance in determining the relative specificity of two or more tariff provisions, and to clarify the classification of mixtures and composite articles. Second, new rule 7, encompassing the substance of current TSUS rules 10(e) and 10(ij), has been added to reflect the U.S. treatment of use provisions and of parts. It should be noted that rule 6 as it applies to containers includes matter in square brackets, representing wording which has not been finally adopted by the above Committees.

The chapter draft contains: (1) the section and chapter legal notes, if any, for the Harmonized System plus any additional U.S. Legal Notes and Statistical Notes; (2) the Harmonized System codes, heading and subheading descriptions (represented by the first six digits of the draft); (3) additional numbering, product detail and structure to reflect U.S. tariff and statistical requirements; and (4) column 1 and 2 rates of duty plus the units of quantity to be reported.

In accordance with the President's request, the conversion is based on the post-MTN (1987) rates of duty. In addition, the Commission in preparing the draft conversion followed the President's guidelines to --

(a) avoid, to the extent practicable and consonant with sound nomenclature principles, changes in rates of duty on individual products;

(b) simplify the U.S. tariff structure to the extent possible without rate changes significant for U.S. industry, workers, or trade; and

(c) alleviate administrative burdens on the Customs Service.

Thus, in the large majority of cases the proposed tariff rates are identical to the rates scheduled to be effective January 1, 1987. In those cases where it was necessary to combine provisions with different rates of duty in the conversion, the duty rates were usually based on the preponderance of trade within the proposed new product grouping. If there was clearly no preponderance of trade within the new product grouping, a trade weighted average was calculated.

The following are typical examples of these two methods.

Preponderance of trade

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	Estimated Imports ($1,000)	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
694.6100	FREE	123,184	8803.90.0050	FREE
694.6700	FREE	6,067
694.6500	5%	205

Present TSUSA No.	Post MTN Rate	1980 Imports ($1,000)	$ Duty	Proposed TSUSA No.	Proposed Rate
662.2610	3.7%	12,387	664,372
662.2620	3.7%	5,569		8423.20
662.3010	5.5%	4,578	511,280	through	4.3%
662.3020	5.5%	4,718		8423.89
	Totals	27,252	1,175,652

The two cross-references provide a tabular presentation of the draft conversion process. The first table cross-references the present TSUSA number, along with its post-MTN rates of duty and 1981 import trade volume, to the proposed new TSUSA number(s). The table also identifies which of the proposed new TSUSA numbers have different proposed rates of duty and indicates the estimated amount of import trade volume subject to the duty rate difference.

The second table cross-references the proposed new TSUSA number to the present TSUSA number(s). It should be noted that when the contents of a current TSUSA number were not completely encompassed by a single new TSUSA number, an attempt was made to allocate the current product coverage, on a percentage basis, to the appropriate new TSUSA numbers. These percent allocations are general estimates by the staff of the U.S. International Trade Commission and are only included in this report to assist the users of these cross-references in approximating how present trade volume may be apportioned into the proposed categories.

1. Tariff Treatment of Imported Articles. All articles imported into the customs territory of the United States from outside thereof are subject to duty or exempt therefrom as prescribed in general legal notes 3 and 5.

2. Customs Territory of the United States. The term "customs territory of the United States", as used in the tariff schedule, includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

3. Rates of Duty. The rates of duty in the "Rates of Duty" columns designated 1 ("General" and "Preferential"), and 2 of the tariff schedule apply to articles imported into the customs territory of the United States as hereinafter provided in this legal note:

(a) Rate of Duty Column 1

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this legal note, the rates of duty in column numbered 1 are Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) rates which are applicable to products of countries other than those enumerated in paragraph (b) of this legal note. Column 1 is divided into 2 parts, "General" and "Preferential", which are applicable as provided below.

(ii) The "General" column sets forth the general MFN rates which are applicable to products of those countries described in (i) above which are not entitled to preferential tariff treatment as set forth below.

(iii) The "Preferential" column reflects rates of duty under one or more preferential tariff treatment programs described in paragraph (c) of this legal note and identified in parentheses immediately following the duty rate specified in such column. These rates apply to those products which are properly classified under a heading for which a preferential rate is indicated and for which all of the legal requirements for eligibility for such program or programs have been met. Where a product is eligible for preferential treatment under more than one program, the lowest rate of duty provided for any applicable program shall be imposed. Where no preferential rate of duty is provided for a heading, or where the country from which a product eligible for preferential treatment was imported is not designated as a beneficiary country under a program appearing with the appropriate heading, the rates of duty in the "General" column of column 1 shall be applied.

(iv) Products of Insular Possessions.

(A) Except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 6 of chapter 91 and except as provided in additional U.S. legal note 3 of chapter 96, articles imported from insular possessions of the United States which are outside the customs territory of the United States are subject to the rates of duty set forth in column designated 1 of the tariff schedule, except that all such articles the growth or product of any such possession, or manufactured or produced in any such possession from materials the growth, product, or manufacture of any such possession or of the customs territory of the United States, or of both, which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent of their total value (or more than 70 percent of their total value with respect to watches and watch movements), coming to the customs territory of the United States directly from any such possession, and all articles previously imported into the customs territory of the United States with payment of all applicable duties and taxes imposed upon or by reason of importation which were shipped from the United States, without remission, refund, or drawback of such duties or taxes, directly to the possession from which they are being returned by direct shipment, are exempt from duty.

(B) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 percent, no material shall be considered foreign which either-

(1) at the time such article is entered, or

(2) at the time such material is imported into the insular possession,

may be imported into the customs territory from a foreign country, and entered free of duty; except that no article containing material to which (2) of this subparagraph applies shall be exempt from duty under subparagraph (A) unless adequate documentation is supplied to show that the material has been incorporated into such article during the 18-month period after the date on which such material is imported into the insular possession.

(C) Subject to the limitations imposed under sections 503(b) and 504(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, articles designated eligible articles under section 503 of such Act which are imported from an insular possession of the United States shall receive duty treatment no less favorable than the treatment afforded such articles imported from a beneficiary developing country under title V of such Act.

(b) Products of Certain Communist Countries. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this legal note, the rates of duty shown in column numbered 2 shall apply to products, whether imported directly or indirectly, of the following countries and areas pursuant to section 401 of the Tariff Classification Act of 1962, to section 231 or 257(e)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, to section 404(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, or to any other applicable section of law, or to action taken by the President thereunder:

Albania
Bulgaria
Cuba 1/
Czechoslovakia
Estonia
German Democratic Republic
Kampuchea
Laos
Latvia
Lithuania
Mongolia
North Korea
Poland
Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
Vietnam

(c) Products Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment.

(i) Programs under which preferential tariff treatment may be provided, and the corresponding symbols for such programs as they are indicated in the "Preferential" column, are as follows:

Generalized System of Preferences..........................GSP
Least Developed Developing Countries.......................LDDC
Automotive Products Trade Act..............................AP
Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft.......................CA

1/ In Proclamation 3447, dated February 3, 1962, the President, acting under authority of section 620(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 445), as amended, prohibited the importation into the United States of all goods of Cuban origin and all goods imported from or through Cuba, subject to such exceptions as the Secretary of the Treasury determines to be consistent with the effective operation of the embargo.

(ii) Products of Countries Designated Beneficiary Developing Countries for Purposes of the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iii) Products of Least Developed Developing Countries. TO BE ADDED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION.

(iv) Automotive Products and Motor Vehicles Eligible for Preferential Tariff Treatment. Articles entered under headings for which duty-free entry has been proclaimed by the President under the Automotive Products Trade Act (AP) are subject to the following provisions:

(A) Motor vehicles and original equipment therefor of Canadian origin provided for in headings for which the rate of duty "Free (AP)" appears in the "Preferential" column may be entered free of duty. As used in the tariff schedule--

(1) The term "Canadian article" means an article which is the product of Canada, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into Canada which are products of any foreign country (except materials produced within the customs territory of the United States), if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Canadian port of entry (that is, the actual purchase price, or if not purchased, the export value, of such materials, plus, if not included therein, the cost of transporting such materials to Canada but exclusive of any landing cost and Canadian duty) was more than 50 percent of the appraised value of the article imported into the customs territory of the United States.

(2) The term "original motor-vehicle equipment", as used in the schedule with reference to a Canadian article (as defined above), means such a Canadian article which has been obtained from a supplier in Canada under or pursuant to a written order, contract, or letter of intent of a bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer in the United States, and which is a fabricated component intended for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of a motor vehicle, but the term does not include trailers or articles to be used in their manufacture.

(3) The term "motor vehicle", as used in this legal note, means a motor vehicle of a kind described in headings 8702, 8703, and 8704 of chapter 87 (excluding an electric trolley bus and a three-wheeled vehicle) or an automobile truck tractor principally designed for the transport of persons or articles.

(4) The term "bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturer", as used in this legal note, means a person who, upon application to the Secretary of Commerce, is determined by the Secretary to have produced no fewer than 15 complete motor vehicles in the United States during the previous 12 months, and to have installed capacity in the United States to produce 10 or more complete motor vehicles per 40-hour week. The Secretary of Commerce shall maintain, and publish from time to time in the Federal Register, a list of the names and addresses of bona fide motor-vehicle manufacturers.

(B) If any Canadian article accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment is not so used in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, such Canadian article or its value (to be recovered from the importer or other person who diverted the article from its intended use as original motor-vehicle equipment) shall be subject to forfeiture, unless at the time of the diversion of the Canadian article the United States Customs Service is notified in writing, and, pursuant to arrangements made with the Service --

(1) the Canadian article is, under customs supervision, destroyed or exported, or

(2) duty is paid to the United States Government in an amount equal to the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the Canadian article had not been entered as original motor-vehicle equipment.

(v) Articles Eligible for Duty-Free Entry Pursuant to the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. Whenever a product is entered under a heading for which the rate of duty "Free (CA)" appears in the "Preferential" column, the importer shall, in order to obtain duty-free entry of such product, file a written statement, accompanied by such supporting documentation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, with the appropriate customs officer stating that the imported article has been imported for use in civil aircraft, that it will be so used, and that the article has been approved for such use by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Authority (F.A.A.) or by the airworthiness authority in the country of exportation, if such approval is recognized by the F.A.A. as an acceptable substitute for F.A.A. certification, or that an application for approval for such use has been submitted to, and accepted by, the Administrator of the F.A.A. For purposes of the tariff schedule, the term "civil aircraft" means all aircraft other than aircraft purchased for use by the Department of Defense or the United States Coast Guard.

4. Modification or Amendment of Rates of Duty. Except as otherwise provided in the chapter 99 of the tariff schedule --

(a) a statutory rate of duty supersedes and terminates the existing rates of duty in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 unless otherwise specified in the amending statute;

(b) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to a concession granted in a trade agreement shall be reflected in column numbered 1 and, if higher than the then existing rate in column numbered 2, also in the latter column, and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rate (or rates) in such column (or columns);

(c) a rate of duty proclaimed pursuant to section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 shall be reflected in both column numbered 1 and column numbered 2 and shall supersede but not terminate the then existing rates in such columns; and

(d) whenever a proclaimed rate is terminated or suspended, the rate shall revert, unless otherwise provided, to the next intervening proclaimed rate previously superseded but not terminated or, if none, to the statutory rate.

5. Exempt Articles. For the purposes of general legal note 1 --

(a) corpses, together with their coffins and accompanying flowers, and

(b) telecommunications transmissions,

are not articles subject to the provisions of the tariff schedule.

6. Commingling of Articles. (a) Whenever articles subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of articles cannot be readily ascertained by customs officers (without physical segregation of the shipment or the contents of any entire package thereof), by one or more of the following means:

(i) sampling,

(ii) verification of packing lists or other documents filed at the time of entry, or

(iii) evidence showing performance of commercial settlement tests generally accepted in the trade and filed in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury,

the commingled articles shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the consignee or his agent segregates the articles pursuant to subparagraph (b) hereof.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any part of a shipment if the consignee or his agent furnishes, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that such part (A) is commercially negligible, (B) is not capable of segregation without excessive cost, and (C) will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise, and

(ii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any article with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes as a part of the article, subject to the next lower rate of duty, with which it is commingled.

(d) The foregoing provisions of this legal note do not apply with respect to any shipment if the consignee or his agent shall furnish, in such time and manner as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, satisfactory proof --

(i) that the value of the commingled articles is less than the aggregate value would be if the shipment were segregated;

(ii) that the shipment is not capable of segregation without excessive cost and will not be segregated prior to its use in a manufacturing process or otherwise; and

(iii) that the commingling was not intended to avoid the payment of lawful duties.

Any merchandise with respect to which such proof is furnished shall be considered for all customs purposes to be dutiable at the rate applicable to the material present in greater quantity than any other material.

(e) The provisions of this legal note shall apply only in cases where the tariff schedule does not expressly provide a particular tariff treatment for commingled articles.

8. For the purposes of the tariff schedule, unless the context otherwise requires--

(a) the term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States,

(b) the term "entered for consumption" does not include withdrawals from warehouse for consumption,

(c) the term "withdrawn from warehouse for consumption" means withdrawn from warehouse for consumption and does not include articles entered for consumption;

(d) the term "rate of duty" includes a free rate of duty; rates of duty proclaimed by the President shall be referred to as "proclaimed" rates of duty; rates of duty enacted by the Congress shall be referred to as "statutory" rates of duty.

(e) an article is in "chief value" of a material if such material exceeds in value each other single component material of the article.

(f) a reference to "headings" encompasses subheadings indented thereunder.

9. Issuance of Rules and Regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations governing the admission of articles under the provisions of the tariff schedule. The allowance of an importer's claim for classification, under any of the provisions of the tariff schedule which provides for total or partial relief from duty or other import restrictions on the basis of facts which are not determinable from an examination of the article itself in its condition as imported, is dependent upon his complying with any rules or regulations which may be issued pursuant to this legal note.

10. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe methods of analyzing, testing, sampling, weighing, gauging, measuring, or other methods of ascertainment whenever he finds that such methods are necessary to determine the physical, chemical, or other properties or characteristics of articles for purposes of any law administered by the Customs Service.

Classification of articles in the tariff schedule shall be governed by the following principles:

1. The titles of sections, chapters and sub-chapters and the footnotes therein are provided for ease of reference only; for legal purposes, classification shall be determined according to the terms of the headings and any relative legal notes and, provided such headings or notes do not otherwise require, according to the following provisions:

2. (a) Any reference in a heading to an article shall be taken to include a reference to that article incomplete or unfinished, provided that, as entered, the incomplete or unfinished article has the essential character of the complete or finished article. It shall also include a reference to that article complete or finished (or considered to be complete or finished by virtue of this rule), entered unassembled or disassembled.

(b) Any reference in a heading to a material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to mixtures or combinations of that material or substance with other materials or substances. Any reference to articles of a given material or substance shall be taken to include a reference to articles consisting wholly or partly of such material or substance. The classification of articles consisting of more than one material or substance and articles put up in sets for retail sale shall be according to the principles of rule 3 below.

3. When, for any reason, articles are, prima facie, classifiable under two or more headings, classification shall be effected as follows:

(a) The heading which provides the most specific description shall be preferred to headings providing a more general description. However, when two or more headings each refer to one or more of the materials or substances contained in mixed or composite articles or to one or more of the items in a set put up for retail sale, those headings are to be regarded as equally specific in relation to those articles, even if one of them gives a more complete or precise description of the articles.

(b) Mixtures, composite articles consisting of different materials or made up of different components, and articles put up in sets for retail sale, which cannot be classified by reference to 3(a), shall be classified as if they consisted of the material or component which gives them their essential character, insofar as this criterion is applicable.

(c) When articles cannot be classified by reference to 3(a) or 3(b), they shall be classified under the heading which occurs last in numerical order among those which equally merit consideration.

4. Articles not falling in any heading of the tariff schedule shall be classified under the heading appropriate to the articles to which they are most akin.

5. For legal purposes, the classification of articles in the subheadings of a heading shall be determined according to the terms of the subheadings and any related legal notes and, mutatis mutandis, to the above rules, on the understanding that --

(a) The scope of a heading or subheading cannot be enlarged by subheadings which follow under it;

(b) comparisons are to be made only between provisions of coordinate or equal status; i.e., after the applicable heading has been determined, then the applicable subheading at the first level of indentation must be determined; and then, where appropriate, the applicable subheading at the next level of indentation must be determined and so on.

For the purposes of this rule, the relative section, chapter, and subchapter legal notes also apply, unless the context otherwise requires.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Accessories entered with the principal article with which they normally belong shall be classified with that article, provided they are of a kind and in a number normally sold therewith.

(b) [Cases, boxes and similar containers] entered with the articles for which they are intended shall be classified with such articles if they are of a kind normally sold therewith. The rule does not, however, apply either to containers which give the whole its essential character, or to containers constituting a component of sets.

(c) [Subject to rule (b) above, packing materials and packing containers entered with the articles therein shall be classified with the articles if they are of a kind normally used for packing such goods. For the application of this rule, containers suitable for repetitive or independent commercial use are not regarded as packing containers and shall be classified separately from the articles they contain.]

7. In the absence of special language or context which otherwise requires --

(a) a tariff classification controlled by use (other than actual use) is to be determined in accordance with the use in the United States at, or immediately prior to, the date of importation, of articles of that class or kind to which the imported articles belong, and the controlling use is the principal use.

(b) a tariff classification controlled by the actual use to which an imported article is put in the United States is satisfied only if such use is intended at the time of importation, the article is so used, and proof thereof is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered.

(c) a provision for parts of an article covers products solely or principally used as a part of such articles but a provision for "parts" or "parts and accessories" shall not prevail over a specific provision for such part.

1. Statistical Requirements for Imported Articles.

(a) Persons making customs entry or withdrawal of articles imported into the customs territory of the United States shall complete the entry summary or withdrawal forms, as provided herein and in regulations issued pursuant to law, to provide for statistical purposes information as follows:

(i) the number of the Customs district and of the port where the articles are being entered for consumption or warehouse, as shown in Statistical Annex A of the tariff schedule;

(ii) the name and flag of the vessel or the name of the airline, or in the case of shipment by other than vessel or air, the means of transportation by which the articles first arrived in the United States;

(iii) the foreign port of lading;

(iv) the U.S. port of unlading for vessel and air shipments;

(v) the date of importation;

(vi) the country of origin of the articles expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(vii) the country of exportation expressed in terms of the designation therefor in Statistical Annex B of the tariff schedule;

(viii) the date of exportation;

(ix) a description of the articles in sufficient detail to permit the classification thereof under the proper statistical reporting number in the tariff schedule;

(x) the statistical reporting number under which the articles are classifiable;

(xi) gross weight in kilograms for the articles covered by each reporting number when imported in vessels or aircraft;

(xii) the net quantity in the units specified herein for the classification involved;

(xiii) the U.S. dollar value in accordance with the definition of section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for all merchandise including that free of duty or dutiable at specific rates;

(xiv) the purchase price (i.e., the actual transaction value), in U.S. dollars, of imported merchandise plus, when not included in such price, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation (or, in the case of merchandise not acquired by purchase, e.g., acquired on consignment, lease, or as gifts, the equivalent of such price, charges, costs, and expenses);

(xv) in addition to the value required under subparagraph (xiv), if the merchandise was acquired in a transaction between related parties, the equivalent of arm's-length value therefor, in U.S. dollars, plus, when not included in such value, all charges, costs, and expenses incurred in placing such merchandise alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation;

(xvi) the aggregate cost (not including U.S. import duty, if any), in U.S. dollars, of freight, insurance, and all other charges, costs, and expenses (each of which charges, costs, and expenses shall be separately itemized on or attached to the related invoice) incurred in bringing the merchandise from alongside the carrier at the port of exportation in the country of exportation and placing it alongside the carrier at the first U.S. port of entry (in the case of overland shipments originating in Canada or Mexico, such costs, if any, shall not be reported); and

(xvii) such other information with respect to the imported articles as is provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), the following provisions shall govern:

(i) the country of exportation shall be the country of origin except when the merchandise while located in a third country is the subject of a new purchase in which event the third country shall be regarded and reported as the country of exportation, and the date of exportation from the third country shall be regarded and reported as the date of exportation;

(ii) the value of imported merchandise contemplated by subparagraph (xv) of paragraph (a) shall be, to the extent practicable, a value derived from the value of such merchandise as generally determined under section 402 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, as the case may be;

(iii) a related-parties transaction shall be a transaction between persons who are related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(iv) an arm's-length value shall be a transaction value between a buyer and seller independent of each other, i.e., persons who are not related in any respect specified in section 402(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; and

(v) in the event that information for the purposes of subparagraphs (xiv), (xv), and (xvi) of paragraph (a) cannot be readily obtained, the person making the entry or withdrawal shall provide reasonable estimates of such information. The acceptance of an estimate for a particular transaction does not necessarily relieve the person making the entry or withdrawal from obtaining the necessary information for similar future transactions.

2. Statistical Annotations. (a) The statistical annotations to the Tariff Schedule of the United States consist of --

(i) the 2-digit statistical suffixes and any article descriptions applicable thereto,

(ii) the indicated units of quantity, and

(iii) the statistical notes and annexes.

(b) The legal text of the Tariff Schedule of the United States consists of the remaining text as more specifically identified in the general rules of interpretation.

(c) The statistical annotations are subordinate to the provisions of the legal text and cannot change their scope.

3. Statistical Reporting Number. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this note, and in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the statistical reporting number for an article consists of the 10-digit number formed by combining the 8-digit heading number with the appropriate 2-digit statistical suffix. Thus, the statistical reporting number for live monkeys dutiable under subheading 0106.00.50 is "0106.00.5010".

(b) Wherever preferential tariff treatment is claimed under a heading where such treatment is provided pursuant to general legal note 3, the statistical reporting number for the article being so entered is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision under paragraph (a) of this note followed by the symbol representing the program under which such treatment is afforded. Thus, the statistical reporting number for an automatic pilot imported to be used in civil aircraft is "9014.20.4000CA".

(c) Wherever in the tariff schedule an article is classifiable under a provision which derives its rate of duty from a different provision, the statistical reporting number is, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary elsewhere, the 10-digit number for the basic provision followed by the 8-digit heading number of the provision from which the rate is derived. Thus, the statistical reporting number of mountings for optical telescopes is "9005.90.0000-9005.80.40".

4. Abbreviations. (a) An "X" appearing in the column for units of quantity means that no quantity (other than gross weight) is to be reported.

(b) Whenever two separate units of quantity are shown for the same article, the "v" following one of such units means that the value of the article is to be reported with that quantity.

CHAPTER 56

Legal Notes

1. This chapter does not cover:

   (a) Wadding, felt and nonwovens, impregnated, coated or covered with perfumes or cosmetics, put up in packings for retail sale (heading 3307);

   (b) Wadding, felt and nonwovens, impregnated, coated or covered with soap or detergent (heading 3401);

   (f) Metal foil on a backing of felt or nonwovens (section XV).

2. The term "felt" includes needleloom felt and fabrics consisting of a web of textile fibers, the cohesion of which has been enhanced by a stitch-bonding process using fibers from the web itself.

3. Headings 5602 and 5603 include respectively felt and nonwovens, impregnated, coated, covered or laminated with plastics or rubber whatever the nature of these materials (compact or cellular).

   Heading 5603 also includes nonwovens in which plastics or rubber forms the bonding substance.

   Headings 5602 and 5603 do not, however, cover:

   (a) Felt impregnated, coated, covered or laminated with plastics or rubber, containing 50 percent or less by weight of textile material (chapter 39 or 40);

   (b) Felt and nonwovens, either completely embedded in plastics or rubber, or coated or covered on both sides with such materials, provided that such coating or covering can be seen with the naked eye with no account being taken of any resulting change of color (chapter 39 or 40); or

   (c) Plates, sheets or strips of cellular plastics or cellular rubber combined with felt or nonwovens, where the textile is present merely for reinforcing purposes.

4. Heading 5604 does not cover textile yarn, or strip and the like of heading 5404 or 5405, in which the impregnation, coating or covering cannot be seen with the naked eye (usually chapters 50 to 55); for the purpose of this provision, no account should be taken of any resulting change of color.

Additional U.S. Legal Note

1. The term "binder twine and baler twine" means single ply twine of sisal or of other vegetable fibers of the genus agave measuring over 45 but not over 225 meters per kilogram containing 8 percent or more by weight of added nonfibrous substances such as oil, grease, or repellents, or of polyethelene or polypropylene measuring under 4.75 millimeters in diameter, all the foregoing chiefly used with harvesting machines or baling machines for binding or tying of grains or for baling hay, straw, and other fodder or bedding materials.

Statistical Note

1. The term "salmon gill netting, of nylon" as used in subheading 5608.19.1010 means netting of nylon multifilament, twisted single plied, with greater than single knot construction; nylon monofilament, twisted multi-plied or multi-stranded, with greater than single knot construction.
