FOREWORD

This publication contains the annual update of statistical tables originally provided in the Commission's report on The Multifiber Arrangement, 1973 to 1980, USITC Publication 1131, published in March 1981.

As of May 1, 1987, the United States had negotiated bilateral agreements with 39 countries to control imports of textiles and apparel (see table 1). In addition, special "quota exemption" agreements were in effect with two U.S. possessions (Guam and the Northern Mariana Islands). This report provides data on U.S. imports from these and other selected countries for 1983-86, arrayed by country, in terms of the cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber categories used in administering the U.S. textile and apparel trade agreements program under the Multifiber Arrangement (MFA). Data for imports of the newly controlled MFA products (i.e., those of silk blends, ramie, and linen) will be included in the 1987 annual report.

The MFA is an international agreement established under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT). It provides the framework for the negotiation of bilateral agreements between importing and exporting countries, or for unilateral action by importing countries in the absence of an agreement, to control textile and apparel trade among its signatories and prevent market disruption. Detailed information on the history and administration of the MFA, in effect since 1974, may be found in The Multifiber Arrangement, 1980-84, USITC Publication 1693, May 1985.

On July 31, 1986, negotiators from most major textile-importing and -exporting countries agreed to a Protocol extending the MFA, for a third time, through July 31, 1991. This Protocol of extension expands the fiber coverage of the MFA to include textiles and apparel not only of cotton, wool, and manmade fibers but also of previously uncontrolled silk blends and vegetable fibers. However, it excludes from quotas historically traded textiles such as bags, sacks, luggage, carpetbacking, mats, and carpets of fibers such as jute, coir, sisal, abaca, maguey, and henequen. The Protocol also authorizes extension of unilaterally imposed quotas for a second year, provides for cutbacks in highly under-used quotas and their subsequent reinstatement if needed, and establishes a mechanism for charging illegally transshipped merchandise to quotas of the true country of origin.

HIGHLIGHTS

U.S. imports.--U.S. imports of cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles and apparel continued to reach higher record levels in 1986. After increasing annually by 32 percent in 1984 and 7 percent in 1985, imports rose by another 17 percent in 1986 to almost 12.7 billion square yard equivalents (SYE), valued at $18.8 billion.

U.S. imports by sources.--The major suppliers continued to be Taiwan, Hong Kong, Korea (the "Big Three"), and China, which together accounted for 45 percent of the quantity and 50 percent of the value of total imports of cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles and apparel in 1986. China emerged as the second largest supplier after Taiwan in 1986, when its shipments climbed 63 percent over those in 1985 to 1.6 billion SYE ($1.9 billion). Imports from the Big Three increased by a much smaller 7 percent to 4.1 billion SYE ($7.6 billion). Imports from all other countries in Asia (including Oceania) rose by 13 percent to 3.1 billion SYE. Imports from the Caribbean Basin continued to expand rapidly, rising by another 55 percent to 566 million SYE ($800 million). By contrast, imports from the European Community, which had been growing rapidly in recent years, rose by less than 1 percent to 1.6 billion SYE ($2.5 billion).

U.S. imports by products.--The growth in imports of cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles and apparel in 1986 occurred in all major product segments, with the greatest percentage gains occurring in yarn and fabric. Imports of yarn climbed 36 percent over those in 1985 to 1.8 billion SYE and imports of fabric advanced 24 percent to 3.1 billion SYE. Apparel remained the single largest import segment, with imports totaling 5.8 billion SYE, up 13 percent. Imports of other textiles, consisting of home furnishings, such as carpet, bedding, and towels, and other made-up and miscellaneous textiles, increased by 5 percent to 2.0 billion SYE.

U.S. imports by fibers.--Imports of cotton products showed the greatest growth in 1986, rising by 21 percent over the 1985 level to 5.1 billion SYE, valued at $7.4 billion. Imports of manmade-fiber products, the largest import category, increased by 15 percent to 7.3 billion SYE, valued at $9.0 billion. In contrast, imports of wool products continued to show little growth, rising by less than 1 percent to 264 million SYE, valued at $2.3 billion.

Quota coverage.--Approximately 62 percent of U.S. imports of cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles and apparel in 1986 were covered by restraints, down slightly from 63 percent in 1985 and 64 percent in 1984. As of May 1, 1987, the United States had negotiated bilateral import-restraint agreements with 39 countries. Textiles and apparel of silk blends and other vegetable fibers, principally linen and ramie, were added to the product coverage of the MFA when it was renewed effective August 1, 1986. Imports of these newly controlled products will be included in the annual report for 1987 when full-year data become available on a MFA category basis.

Apparent U.S. consumption.--Apparent U.S. consumption of cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles and apparel increased by 10 percent over that in 1985 to 15.1 billion pounds. Imports' share of the U.S. market, in terms of pounds, reached a new high, estimated at 25.0 percent, up from a 23.4 percent market penetration in 1985.

COUNTRY TABLE LOCATOR

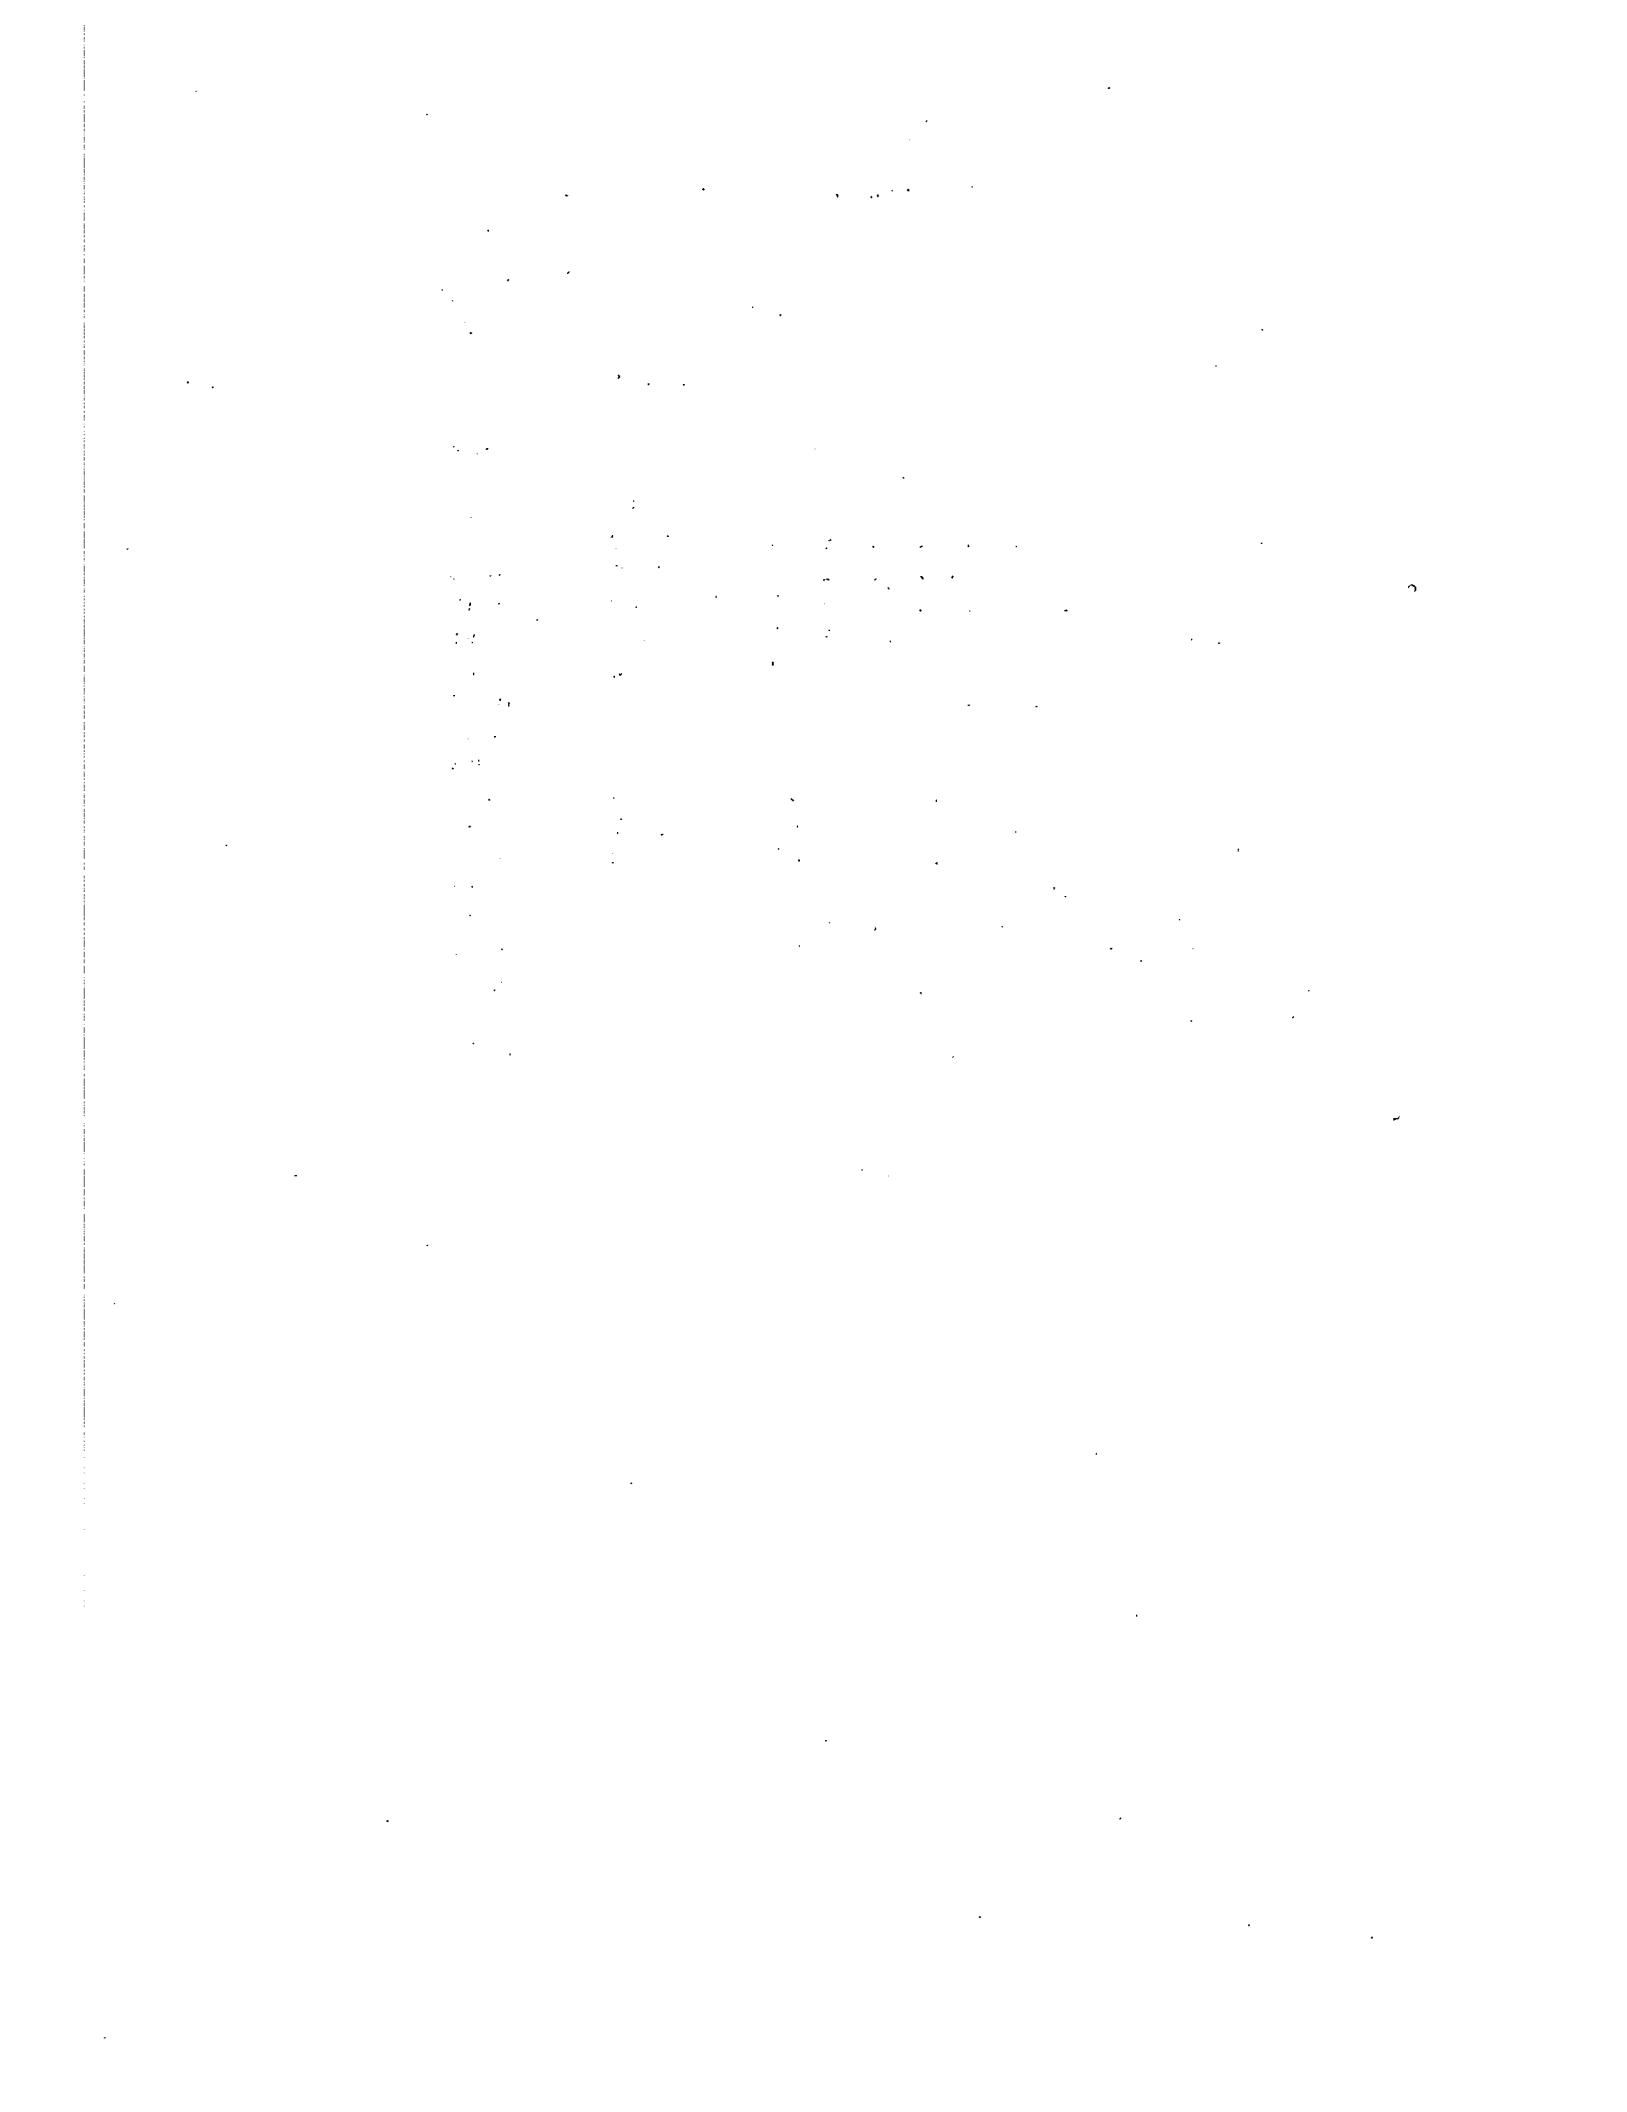

Sections B-D of this report contain tables showing U.S. general imports of cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles from each of the following countries or country groups, by MFA categories, for 1983-86. The tables for cotton textiles are grouped in section B; wool textiles, in section C; and manmade-fiber textiles, in section D. The pages in these sections are numbered with the alphabetical designation of the section, as shown below. Thus, tables for cotton textiles (section B) are on pages numbered B-1, B-2, etc.; wool textiles, C-1, C-2, etc.; and manmade-fiber textiles, D-1, D-2, etc.

*Signatory to the MFA Protocol that went into effect on 08/01/86.

Signatory to the MFA Protocol that expired on 7/31/86, but has not signed the new MFA Protocol, as of 05/18/87.

1/ On 02/11/87, the U.S. Department of Commerce announced that consultations were requested with Burma for the purpose of establishing a quota on men's and boys' woven shirts of cotton and manmade fibers. If no quota is mutually agreed upon, a limit of 93,876 dozen will be established for the period 01/30/87 - 01/29/88. As of 05/01/87, no restraint was in effect on imports of the shirts or any other textile product from Burma.

2/ There are two agreements with Indonesia for this period; one covers cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles and the other covers ramie textiles.

3/ The agreement with Mexico, originally covering the period 05/01/78 - 12/31/81, was extended for 4 years through 12/31/85 and for another 2 years through 12/31/87, superseding an interim 6-month extension through 06/30/86.

4/ A new agreement has been negotiated with Pakistan to replace the 5-year agreement that expired on 12/31/86; however, as of 05/01/87, it has not been signed. The only item from Pakistan currently under quota is certain noncellulosic manmade-fiber/cotton spun yarn fabric. The quota, originally established for the 12-month period beginning on 04/27/86, was extended for an additional year, effective 04/27/87.

5/ A tentative agreement was reached with Panama on 04/14/87.

6/ The agreement with Romania for this period covers cotton textiles.

7/ The agreement for this period covers wool and manmade-fiber textiles.

8/ On 04/23/87, the Office of the United States Trade Representative announced that the agreement with Taiwan, originally scheduled to expire on 12/31/88, was extended for 1 more year.

9/ The agreement with Thailand for this period covers cotton, wool, and manmade-fiber textiles.

10/ There are two agreements with Thailand for this period; one covers apparel of silk blends and one covers apparel of vegetable fibers other than cotton.

11/ The agreement, covering only manmade-fiber brassieres, expired on 03/28/86.

12/ The expired agreement with Colombia covered the period 07/01/82 - 12/31/86. Although there are no quotas currently in effect on imports from Colombia, the United States on 03/31/87 requested consultations with Colombia under Article 3 of the MFA for the purpose of establishing a quota on cotton sateen fabric. If no quota level is mutually agreed upon, the United States announced that it may unilaterally impose a quota of 3,030,077 square yards on imports of the fabric from Colombia for the 12-month period that began on 03/31/87.

13/ The quota with Israel, a 7-month limit on cotton sheets that superseded the unilateral quota imposed under Article 3 of the MFA, expired on 03/31/86.

14/ The quotas with Portugal, covering certain cotton fabrics, bedding, wool pants, and acrylic spun yarn, were unilaterally imposed under Article 3 of the MFA for 1 year and expired during June and October 1986.

15/ The agreement with South Africa, scheduled to be in effect for the period 09/01/85 - 08/31/88, was made inoperative by the Anti-Apartheid Act of 1986, which prohibits imports of textiles and certain other products from there.

16/ The quota with Spain, covering certain spun yarn, was unilaterally imposed under Article 3 of the MFA for 1 year and expired on 02/28/86.

17/ The agreements with these U.S. possessions provide for "quota exemptions" for sweaters classified as products of foreign countries, but assembled in the possessions (i.e., with foreign-made parts). For the period 11/01/86 - 10/31/87, quota-free entry will be allowed for 163,216 dozen from Guam and 100,000 dozen from the Northern Mariana Islands. Imports in excess of these amounts will be charged to quotas established for the country of origin, usually the country where the sweater parts were knitted.
