1798(a)	Professional books, implements, instruments, and tools of trade, occupation, or employment, when imported by or for the account of any person arriving in the United States by whom or for whose account they were taken abroad
(b)	In the case on any person arriving in the United States who is not a returning resident thereof--
	(1) wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles, and similar personal effects; all the foregoing, if actually owned by and in the possession of such person abroad at the time of or prior to his departure for the United States, and if appropriate for his own personal use and intended only for such use and not for any other person nor for sale;
	(2) not exceeding $100 in value of articles (including not more than one wine gallon of alcoholic beverages and not more than one hundred cigars) accompanying such person to be disposed of by him as bona fide gifts, if such person has not claimed an exemption under this subdivision (2) within the six months immediately preceding his arrival and he intends to remain in the United States for not less than seventy-two hours;
	(3) automobiles, trailers, aircraft, motorcycles, bicycles, baby carriages, boats, horse-drawn conveyances, horses, and similar means of transportation, and the usual equipment accompanying the foregoing; any of the foregoing imported in connection with the arrival of such person and to be used in the United States only for the transportation of such person, his family and guests, and such incidental carriage of articles as may be appropriate to his personal use of the conveyance; and
	(4) not exceeding $200 in value of articles accompanying such a person who is in transit to a place outside United States customs territory and who will take the articles with him to such place.
(c)	In the case of any person arriving in the United States who is a returning resident thereof--
	(1) all personal and household effects taken abroad by him or for his account; and
	(2) articles (including not more than one wine gallon of alcoholic beverages and not more than one hundred cigars) acquired abroad as an incident of the journey from which he is returning, for his personal or household use, but not imported for the account of any other person nor intended for sale, if declared in accordance with regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, up to but not exceeding in aggregate value--
	(A) $100 (or $200 in the case of persons arriving directly or indirectly from the Virgin Islands of the United States, not more than $100 of which shall have been acquired elsewhere than in the Virgin Islands of the United States) if such person arrives before July 1, 1963 (or $200 if such person arrives on or after July 1, 1963), and he either arrives from a contiguous country which maintains a free zone or free port (see subparagraph (d)), or arrives from any other country after having remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for a period of not less than forty-eight hours, <sup>1/</sup> and in either case has not claimed an exemption under this subdivision (A) within the thirty days immediately preceding his arrival; and
	(B) $300 in addition, if such person arrives on or after July 1, 1963, and he has remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for a period of not less than twelve days and has not claimed an exemption under this subdivision (B) within the six months immediately preceding his arrival.

<sup>1/</sup> The 48-hour requirement is waived as to articles acquired in the Virgin Islands of the United States by a person who arrives in the United States before June 30, 1963. See Public Law 87-132, 75 Stat. 335.

Par. No.	Description
1798(d)	In the case of persons arriving from a contiguous country which maintains a free zone or free port, if the Secretary of the Treasury deems it necessary in the public interest and to facilitate enforcement of the requirement that the exemption shall apply only to articles acquired as an incident of the foreign journey, he shall prescribe by regulation or instruction, the application of which may be restricted to one or more ports of entry, that the exemption authorized by subdivision (2)(A) of subparagraph (c) shall be allowed only to residents who have remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for not less than a specified period, not to exceed twenty-four hours, and after the expiration of ninety days after the date of such regulation or instruction allowance of the said exemption shall be subject to the limitations so prescribed. 1/
(e)	Any article imported to replace a like article of comparable value previously exempted from duty under subdivision (c) of this paragraph shall be allowed free entry if the article previously exempted shall have been exported, under such supervision as the Secretary may prescribe, within sixty days after its importation because it was found by the importer to be unsatisfactory.
(f)	All articles exempted by this paragraph from the payment of duty shall be exempt also from the payment of any internal-revenue tax imposed upon or by reason of importation.
(g)	If any jewelry or similar articles of personal adornment having a value of $300 or more which have been exempted from duty under subdivision (1) of subparagraph (b) or any article which has been exempted from duty under subdivision (2)(B) of subparagraph (c) is sold within three years after the date of importation, or if any article which has been exempted from duty under subdivision (3) of subparagraph (b) is sold within one year after the date of importation, without prior payment to the United States of the duty which would have been payable at the time of entry if the article had been entered without the benefit of this paragraph, such article, or its value (to be recovered from the importer), shall be subject to forfeiture. A sale pursuant to a judicial order or in liquidation of the estate of a decedent shall not be subject to the provisions of this subparagraph.
(h)	Automobiles rented by any resident of the United States while abroad may be imported into the United States by or on behalf of such resident for the transportation of such resident, his family and guests, and such incidental carriage of articles as may be appropriate to his personal use of the automobile without payment of duty, for such temporary periods as the Secretary of the Treasury by regulation may prescribe. Any automobile exempted from duty under this subparagraph which is used otherwise than for a purpose herein expressed or is not returned abroad within the time and manner as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation, or the value of such automobile (to be recovered from the importer), shall be subject to forfeiture to the United States.
(i)	The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe methods and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this paragraph. No exemption provided for in this paragraph shall be applied to any article which is not declared in accordance with such regulations.

IRC Sec.	Description	Full rate	Reduced rate
4501(b) 1/	In addition to any other tax or duty imposed by law, there is hereby imposed, under such regulations as the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe, a tax upon articles imported or brought into the United States as follows:
(1)	On all manufactured sugar testing by the polariscope 92 sugar degrees .. and for each additional sugar degree shown by the polariscopic test and fractions of a degree .....	0.465¢ per lb.
(2)	On all manufactured sugar testing by the polariscope less than 92 sugar degrees .....	0.00875¢ per lb. additional in proportion
(3)	On all articles composed in chief value of manufactured sugar .....	0.5144¢ per lb. of the total sugars therein
4502(3)	For the purposes of section 4501-- The term "manufactured sugar" means any sugar derived from sugar beets or sugarcane, which is not to be, and which shall not be, further refined or otherwise improved in quality; except sugar in liquid form which contains nonsugar solids (excluding any foreign substance that may have been added or developed in the product) equal to more than 6 per centum of the total soluble solids and except also sirup of cane juice produced from sugarcane grown in continental United States. The grades or types of sugar within the meaning of this definition shall include, but shall not be limited to, granulated sugar, lump sugar, cube sugar, powdered sugar, sugar in the form of blocks, cones, or molded shapes, confectioners' sugar, washed sugar, centrifugal sugar, clarified sugar, turbinado sugar, plantation white sugar, muscovado sugar, refiners' soft sugar, invert sugar mush, raw sugar, sirups, molasses, and sugar mixtures.	0.5144¢ per lb. of the total sugars therein

1/ Tax will not be imposed after June 30, 1967. See sec. 4501(c), IRC of 1954, as amended by sec. 19, 70 Stat. 221; sec. 2, 74 Stat. 330; and sec. 2, 75 Stat. 40. Sec. 6418(a), IRC of 1954, as amended by sec. 21, 70 Stat. 221, provides:

"(a) Use as livestock feed or for distillation of alcohol. - Upon the use of any manufactured sugar, or article manufactured therefrom, as livestock feed, or in the production of livestock feed, or for the distillation of alcohol, there shall be paid by the Secretary or his delegate to the person so using such manufactured sugar, or article manufactured therefrom, the amount of any tax paid under section 4501 with respect thereto."

IRC sec.	Description	Full rate	Reduced rate
4502(4)	The term "total sugars" means the total amount of the sucrose and of the reducing or invert sugars.
(5)	The term "United States" shall be deemed to include the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico
4511(a) 1/	There is hereby imposed upon the first domestic processing of coconut oil, palm oil, palm-kernel oil, fatty acids derived from any of the foregoing oils, salts of any of the foregoing (whether or not such oils, fatty acids, or salts have been refined, sulphonated, sulphated, hydrogenated, or otherwise processed), or any combination or mixture containing a substantial quantity of any one or more of such oils, fatty acids, or salts, a tax, to be paid by the processor, of .....	3¢ per lb. 2/
(b)	There is hereby imposed (in addition to the tax imposed by the preceding subsection) upon the first domestic processing of coconut oil or of any combination or mixture containing a substantial quantity of coconut oil with respect to which oil there has been no previous first domestic processing, a tax, to be paid by the processor, of .....
(c)	The tax imposed by subsection (b) shall not apply to any domestic processing after July 3, 1974.	2¢ per lb.
4512	The term "first domestic processing" means the first use in the United States, in the manufacture or production of an article intended for sale, of the article with respect to which the tax is imposed, but does not include the use of palm oil in the manufacture of iron or steel products, or tin plate or terne plate, or any subsequent use of palm oil residue resulting from the manufacture of iron or steel products, or tin plate or terne plate.

1/ The processing taxes imposed under this section are not taxes imposed on or in connection with the importation of the articles, but they apply principally to imported commodities and the rates must be referred to in applying the import taxes prescribed in section 4581 for certain commodities.

2/ This rate is not applicable to coconut oil, palm oil, palm-kernel oil, fatty acids derived therefrom, or salts thereof, or of any combination or mixture solely because such combination or mixture contains a substantial quantity of one or more such oils, fatty acids, or salts, until the close of June 30, 1966. See Public Law 85-235, 71 Stat. 516, TD 54441; Public Law 86-37, 73 Stat. 64, TD 54942; Public Law 86-432, 74 Stat. 73, TD 55179; and Public Law 87-859, 76 Stat. 1138, TD 55753.
