AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation by notice on September 6, 2005, based on a complaint filed by Xerox Corporation ("Xerox") of Stamford, Connecticut. 70 Fed. Reg. 53027. The complaint, as amended, alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain ink sticks used in solid ink printers by reason of infringement of claim 16 of U.S. Patent No. 6,739,713, claims 5-10 and 13-14 of U.S. Patent No. 6,840,613, and claims 1-2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,840,612. The complaint further alleges the existence of a domestic industry. The Commission's notice of investigation names HANA Corporation ("HANA") of Seoul, Republic of Korea, and InkSticks.com of Cheyenne, Wyoming, as respondents.

On October 26, 2005, complainant Xerox moved pursuant to 19 U.S.C § 1337(g)(1) and Commission rule 210.16 for an order (1) directing that HANA and Insticks.com show cause why each should not be found in default for failure to respond to the complaint and notice of investigation, and (2) upon failure of the respondents to show such cause, for an ID finding the respondents in default. The Commission investigative attorney supported the motion. The respondents did not respond to the motion. Complainant stated that, upon the Commission's finding the respondents in default, it intended to seek immediate relief against the respondents.

The ALJ issued the subject ID on December 20, 2005, finding HANA and InkSticks.com in default because neither respondent had responded to the complaint or notice of investigation, and neither respondent had responded to the show cause order (Order No. 4) that the ALJ issued on November 5, 2005. No one filed a petition for review of the subject ID.

Having examined the record of this investigation, including the ALJ's ID, the Commission has determined not to review the ALJ's ID finding respondents HANA and Inksticks.com, the only respondents named in the investigation, in default.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
