SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on March 13, 2007, based on a complaint filed by SiRF Technology, Inc. ("SiRF") of San Jose, California. 72 Fed. Reg. 11378 (March 13, 2007). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain GPS chips, associated software and systems, and products containing the same by reason of infringement of certain claims of United States Patent Nos. 6,304,216 ("the '216 patent"); 7,043,363 ("the '363 patent”); 7,091,904 (“the ‘904 patent”); and 7,132,980 (“the 980 patent”). The complaint named as respondent Global Locate, Inc. of San Jose, California. The complaint and notice of investigation were later amended to include one additional claim of the ‘904 patent. Subsequently, the investigation was terminated with respect to the ‘904 patent, the ‘980 patent, and certain claims of the ‘216 and the ‘363 patents, and the complaint and notice of investigation were amended to add Broadcom, Inc. of Irvine, California as a respondent to the investigation.

On March 13, 2008, the Commission determined not to review an ID issued by the ALJ granting in part SiRF’s motion for summary determination that it had satisfied the importation requirements of 19 U.S.C. § 1337. On March 20, 2008, the Commission further determined not to review an ID issued by the ALJ granting SiRF’s motion for summary determination that it had satisfied the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. On June 13, 2008, the ALJ issued his final ID finding no violation of section 337 by respondents Global Locate and Broadcom.

The Commission has determined to extend the deadline for determining whether to review the subject ID by seventeen (17) days to August 14, 2008.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42(h) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42(h)).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
