On December 1, 2008, the ALJ issued his final Initial Determination (“ID”) finding no violation of section 337 by Respondents. On January 30, 2009, the Commission issued a Notice determining to review the final ID in part and requesting written submissions from the parties regarding the issues under review concerning violation of section 337, as well as from the public regarding issues of remedy, the public interest, bonding. *74 Fed. In response to the Commission’s March 26th Notice, the parties and various interested parties timely submitted initial written submissions on April 10, 2009.

In light of the fact that public versions of the initial written submissions are not due to be filed until April 20, 2009, the Commission has determined to extend the deadline for receiving reply submissions from the interested parties until Wednesday, April 29, 2009. The parties to this investigation must still file reply submissions by Monday, April 20, 2009.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document and 12 true copies thereof on or before the deadlines stated above with the Office of the Secretary. Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment unless the information has already been granted such treatment during the proceedings. All such requests should be directed to the Secretary of the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons why the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 C.F.R. § 210.6. Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is sought will be treated accordingly.
