ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 11) of the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) terminating the above-captioned investigation as to respondents Contixo Co. of Ontario, California and ZTO Store a.k.a. ZTO Trading, Inc. of Monterey Park, California (collectively, “Contixo”) based on a consent order stipulation and proposed consent order. The Commission has issued the consent order.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 26, 2016, based on a complaint filed on behalf of Razor USA LLC of Cerritos, California; and Inventist, Inc. and Shane Chen, both of Camas, Washington. 81 Fed. Reg. 33548-49. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 8,738,278. The complaint further alleges violations of section 337 based upon false advertising, misrepresentation, and unfair competition, the threat or effect of which is to destroy or substantially injure an industry in the United States. The Commission's notice of investigation named several respondents including Contixo. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations ("OUII") is also a party to the investigation. Id.

On June 30, 2016, complainants and Contixo jointly moved to terminate the investigation as to Contixo based on a consent order stipulation and proposed consent order. OUII supported the motion and no other responses were received.

The ALJ issued the subject ID on July 12, 2016, granting the joint motion for termination as to Contixo. He found that the joint motion for termination by consent order stipulation satisfied Commission rule 210.21(c). He further found, pursuant to Commission rule 210.50(b)(2), that termination of this investigation as to Contixo by consent order would not be contrary to the public interest. No party petitioned for review of the ID and no other responses were received.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID and has issued the consent order.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 C.F.R. Part 210.

By order of the Commission.
