SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on January 18, 2018, based on a complaint filed by Qualcomm Incorporated of San Diego, California ("Qualcomm"). 83 FR 834 (Jan. 8, 2018). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337 by reason of the infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 9,154,356; 9,473,336; 8,063,674; 7,693,002; and 9,552,633. Id. The notice of investigation names as the respondent Apple Inc. of Cupertino, California. Id. at 835. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations is also named as a party. Id.

On March 26, 2019, the presiding administrative law judge issued a final initial determination (“the final ID”), finding a violation of section 337. Qualcomm and Apple filed petitions for review of the final ID, and those parties, as well as the Commission investigative attorney, filed responses to the petitions for review.

On April 16, 2019, Qualcomm and Apple filed a motion to suspend the procedural schedule and to stay all deadlines for up to ten days by virtue of a settlement between Qualcomm and Apple, which resolves all of their disputes. The motion indicates that the private parties will soon be filing their motion to terminate the investigation on the basis of settlement, pursuant to 19 CFR 210.21(b).

The Commission has determined to grant the motion. The procedural schedule is suspended and all deadlines are stayed. The private parties are expected to file their motion to terminate the investigation on or before Friday, April 26, 2019.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.
