AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission (“Commission”) has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 23) of the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”), terminating the investigation as to U.S. Patent No. 8,139,878 (“the ’878 patent”).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on November 29, 2022, based on a complaint filed on behalf of VideoLabs, Inc. of Palo Alto, California (“VideoLabs”). 87 FR 73329 (Nov. 29, 2022). The complaint, as supplemented, alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain video processing devices and products containing the same by reason of infringement of claims of the ’878 patent and of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,769,238 and 8,208,542. Id. The complaint further alleges that a domestic industry exists. Id. The Commission’s notice of investigation named as the respondent HP Inc. of Palo Alto, California. Id. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations is not participating in the investigation. Id.

On August 3, 2023, VideoLabs filed an unopposed motion pursuant to Commission Rule 210.21(a) (19 CFR 210.21(a)) seeking to terminate the investigation in part by withdrawing the '878 patent from the investigation in its entirety.

On August 7, 2023, the ALJ issued Order No. 23 (the subject ID), which granted the motion. The ID found that the motion complied with the Commission's rules and no extraordinary circumstances or public interest concerns warranted denying the motion. No party filed a petition for review of the subject ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The following claims are hereby terminated from the investigation: all asserted claims of the '878 patent.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on August 25, 2023.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Lisa R. Barton
Secretary to the Commission
