SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 63) of the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) extending the target date for completion of the investigation from January 27, 2025 to February 24, 2025.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On September 26, 2023, the Commission instituted this investigation based on a complaint filed by NJOY, LLC of Scottsdale, Arizona. 88 FR 66050-51 (Sept. 26, 2023). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 based on the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain vaporizer devices, cartridges used therewith, and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 11,497,864 and 10,334,881. The Commission’s notice of investigation named JUUL Labs, Inc. of Washington, D.C. as the sole respondent. Id. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations was named as a party in the investigation. Id.

On September 26, 2024, the ALJ issued the subject ID, Order No. 63, extending the target date for completion of the investigation from January 27, 2025 to February 24, 2025. The ID explained that good cause for the extension exists because it will allow for adequate time to draft the final ID while attending to responsibilities in other investigations. The subject ID stated that the final ID shall be due no later than October 24, 2024. No petitions for review of the subject ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID. Accordingly, the target date is February 24, 2025.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on October 25, 2024.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
