On March 8, 2024, R.J. Reynolds and Innokin jointly moved to terminate the investigation as to Innokin based on a consent order and consent order stipulation. On March 14, 2024, OUII filed a response in support of the joint motion to terminate.

On March 25, 2024, the CALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 13) granting the joint motion to terminate. The ID finds that the consent order stipulation complies with the requirements of 19 CFR 210.21(c)(3) and the proposed consent order complies with the requirements of 19 CFR 210.21(c)(4). ID at 2. The ID further finds that “any effect the proposed consent order may have on the statutory public interest factors does not counsel against entry of the order.” Id. at 3.

No party filed a petition for review of the subject ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID and to issue a consent order with respect to Innokin. The investigation is hereby terminated with respect to Innokin.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on Issued: April 17, 2024.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
