AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 17) of the presiding administrative law judge ("ALJ") granting-in-part complainant's motion for summary determination of importation of the accused InReach 1.0 and InReach 1.5 products, and the accused main boards for the InReach 1.5 product with respect to respondents DeLorme Publishing Company, Inc. and DeLorme InReach LLC (collectively, "DeLorme"), both of Yarmouth, Maine.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 21, 2012, based on a complaint filed on behalf of BriarTek IP, Inc. of Alexandria, Virginia. 77 Fed. Reg. 58579-80. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain two-way global satellite communication devices, system and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 7,991,380. The complaint further alleges the existence of a domestic industry. The Commission's notice of investigation named multiple respondents including DeLorme.

On January 23, 2013, complainant moved for summary determination of importation of the InReach 1.0 and InReach 1.5 products, and the InReach 1.5 parts and InReach 2.0 parts with respect to DeLorme. DeLorme filed a response in opposition to the motion and the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the motion.

On February 19, 2013, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 17) granting-in-part complainant's motion for summary determination of importation of the accused InReach 1.0 and InReach 1.5 products, and the accused main boards for the InReach 1.5 product with respect to DeLorme. The ALJ found there was no genuine issue of material facts in dispute regarding whether or not DeLorme has imported these products. No party petitioned for review of the ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42(h) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42(h)).

By order of the Commission.
