DETERMINATION GRANTING REALTEK SEMICONDUCTOR CORPORATION'S

U.S. PATENT NO. 6,963,226

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the administrative law judge's ("ALJ") (Judge Rodgers) initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 17) granting a motion to terminate the investigation as to U.S. Patent No. 6,963,226.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on October 23, 2012, based on a complaint filed by Realtek Semiconductor Corporation ("Realtek") of Hsinchu, Taiwan alleging violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337), as amended, by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,787,928 and 6,963,226 ("the '226 patent"). 77 Fed. Reg. 64826. The notice of investigation named as respondents LSI Corporation of Milpitas, California; and Seagate Technology of Cupertino, California.

On January 30, 2013, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 12) granting Realtek's motion to terminate the investigation as to the asserted claims of the '226 patent. On February 25, 2013, the Commission determined to review and reverse the ID because Realtek's motion did not comply with Commission Rules.

On March 11, 2013, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 17) granting Realtek's renewed motion to terminate the investigation as to the asserted claims of the '226 patent. The ALJ determined that there were no extraordinary circumstances that would prevent the termination requested by Realtek and that public policy supports termination. ID at 2. The ALJ noted that Realtek asserted in its motion that "there are no agreements, written or oral, express or implied between the parties concerning the subject matter of the investigation except that RealTek has agreed to dismiss the '226 patent from the district court action Realtek Semiconductor Corporation v. LSI Corporation, Case No. 5:12-ccv-03437-EJD, United States District Court for the Northern District of California, once the litigation stay currently in place in that action is lifted." Id. The ALJ concluded that this is the only agreement between the parties with respect to the requested dismissal. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
