SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on March 15, 2013, based on a complaint filed by Tela Innovations, Inc., of Los Gatos, California. 78 Fed. Reg. 16533 (March 15, 2013). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain integrated circuit devices and products containing the same by reason of infringement of seven U.S. patents. The notice of investigation names as respondents HTC Corporation of Taiwan; HTC America, Inc., of Bellevue, Washington; LG Electronics, Inc., of the Republic of Korea; LG Electronics U.S.A., Inc., of Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey; LG Electronics MobileComm U.S.A., Inc., of San Diego, California; Motorola Mobility LLC, of Libertyville, Illinois; Nokia

Corporation (Nokia Oyj), of Finland; Nokia, Inc., of Sunnyvale, California; Pantech Co., Ltd., of the Republic of Korea; and Pantech Wireless, Inc., of Atlanta, Georgia.

On June 2, 2014, the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in Nautilus, Inc. v. Biosig Instruments, -- U.S. -- (June 2, 2014), which altered the legal standard for determining whether a patent claim is indefinite. On June 3, 2014, the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) issued an ID (Order No. 63) extending the target date for completion of the investigation by six weeks, until December 1, 2014. The ALJ stated that the extension was necessary to allow the parties to provide supplemental briefing on the issue of indefiniteness under the Supreme Court’s holding in Nautilus. No petitions for review of the ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
