SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 26, 2013, based on a complaint filed on behalf of A&J Manufacturing, LLC of St. Simons, Georgia and A&J Manufacturing, Inc. of Green Cove Springs, Florida. 78 Fed. Reg.59373 (Sept. 26, 2013). The complaint alleged violations of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the sale for importation, importation, or sale within the United States after importation of certain multiple mode outdoor grills and parts thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 8,381,712, U.S. Patent No. D660,646, and U.S. Patent No. D662,773 patent. The Commission's notice of investigation named several respondents, including Keesung Manufacturing Co., Ltd. (“Keesung”) of Panyu, China; and GHP Group, Inc. (“GHP”) of Morton Grove, Illinois.

On November 21, 2013, Complainants filed a motion for an order to show cause and for entry of default judgment against Keesung. On December 2, 2013, the Office of Investigative Import Investigations filed a response in support of the motion. Respondent GHP filed a response opposing the motion in-part. On December 4, 2013, the ALJ issued a show cause order.

On December 20, 2013, the ALJ issued the subject ID finding Keesung in default. The Complaint and Notice of Investigation were served on Keesung on September 23, 2013. The ALJ found that Keesung failed to respond to the Complaint and Notice of Investigation, and the order to show cause. Therefore, the ALJ determined that Keesung has waived its right to appear, to be served with documents, and to contest the allegations at issue in the investigation. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
