SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on September 26, 2013, based on a complaint filed on behalf of A&J Manufacturing, LLC of St. Simons, Georgia and A&J Manufacturing, Inc. of Green Cove Springs, Florida (collectively “Complainants”). 78 Fed. Reg. 59373 (Sept. 26, 2013). The complaint alleged violations of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the sale for importation, importation, or sale within the United States after importation of certain multiple mode outdoor grills and parts thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 8,381,712, U.S. Patent No. D660,646, and U.S. Patent No. D662,773 patent. The Commission's notice of investigation, as amended, named several respondents, including Rankam.

On July 8, 2014, Rankam filed a motion to terminate the investigation as to Rankam based upon a consent order stipulation and a proposed consent order. Rankam represented that there are no other agreements, written or oral, other than the consent order stipulation. On July 11, 2014, Rankam filed a corrected consent order stipulation and a corrected proposed consent order. Also on July 11, 2014, the Office of Unfair Import Investigations filed a response in support of the motion, based on the corrected documents, and Complainants filed a response stating that they do not oppose the motion.

On July 14, 2014, the ALJ granted the motion for termination of Rankam based on the consent order stipulation and proposed consent order. The ALJ found that the consent order and consent order stipulation complied with the Commission's rules. The ALJ also found that there was no evidence that terminating the investigation as to Rankam would be contrary to the public interest. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Secretary to the Commission
