The complaint alleges violations of Section 337 based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation into the United States, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain automated teller machines, ATM modules, components thereof, and products containing the same by reason of infringement of claims 1–3 and 5 of U.S. Patent No. 7,891,551 (the '551 patent); claims 1 and 6 of U.S. Patent No. 7,950,655 (the '655 patent); claims 1–4, 6, and 7 of U.S. Patent No. 8,152,165 (the '165 patent); and claims 1–3, 6, 8, and 9 of U.S. Patent No. 8,523,235 (the '235 patent). Id. The Commission's Notice of Investigation named as respondents Diebold, Incorporated and Diebold Self-Service Systems (collectively, Diebold), both of North Canton, OH. Id. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations is not participating in this investigation.

On July 27, 2016, the Commission determined not to review an initial determination granting Nautilus's motion withdrawing all asserted claims of the '551 and '165 patents. See Notice of Commission Determination Not to Review an Initial Determination Terminating the Investigation in Part As to U.S. Patent Nos. 7,891,551 and 8,152,165.

On July 21, 2016, the ALJ issued the Subject ID, which granted the motion. Id. The Subject ID found that the motion complied with Commission Rule 210.21(a)(1), and further found that no extraordinary circumstances warranted denial of the motion. Id. at 1-2. No petitions for review of the Subject ID were filed. After consideration, the Commission has determined not to review the Subject ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. part 210).
