FUJIAN HUALONG CARBURETOR CO., LTD. BASED ON A CONSENT ORDER; ISSUANCE OF A CONSENT ORDER

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 18) granting a motion of respondent Fujian Hualong Carburetor Co., Ltd. of Fuding City, China ("Fujian") to terminate the above-captioned investigation based on a consent order. The Commission has entered the consent order.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on July 20, 2018, based on a complaint, as supplemented, filed on behalf of Walbro, LLC of Tucson, Arizona ("complainant"). 83 FR 34,614 (July 20, 2018). The complaint, as supplemented, alleges violations of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337 ("section 337"), based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain carburetors and products containing such carburetors by reason of infringement of one or more of U.S. Patent No. 6,394,424; U.S. Patent No. 6,439,547; U.S. Patent No. 6,533,254; U.S. Patent No. 6,540,212; and U.S. Patent No. 7,070,173. The complaint further alleges that an industry in the United States exists as required by section 337. The Notice of Investigation named numerous respondents, including Fujian of Fuding City, China. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations (“OUII”) was named as a party in this investigation.

On August 23, 2018, Fujian filed a motion pursuant to Commission Rule 210.21(a)(2) to terminate the investigation as to itself based on a consent order, including a consent order stipulation and proposed consent order. On September 4, 2018, complainant opposed the motion arguing that the proposed consent order was improperly restricted. Also on September 4, 2018, OUII filed a response supporting the termination as to Fujian.

On September 12, 2018, the ALJ issued the subject ID, granting Fujian’s motion pursuant to Commission Rule 210.21(c). The ID finds that the motion, consent order stipulation, and proposed consent order satisfy the requirements of Commission rules 210.21 (c)(3) and (c)(4). The ID also finds that termination of the investigation would not be contrary to the public interest. No party petitioned for review of the ID.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Lisa R. Barton
Secretary to the Commission
