SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 14, 2021, the Commission instituted this investigation under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, based on a complaint filed by Roku, Inc. of San Jose, California (“Roku”). 86 FR 26542-43 (May 14, 2021). The complaint alleged a violation of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain televisions, remote controls, and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 8,378,875 (“the ’875 patent”) and the ’511 patent. On October 28, 2022, the Commission issued a final determination finding no violation of section 337 with respect to either the ’875 patent or the ’511 patent. The Commission terminated the investigation the same day.

Roku filed an appeal from the Commission’s final determination with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. The appeal was docketed on January 3, 2023, as Roku, Inc. v. International Trade Commission, No. 2023-1317 (Fed. Cir. Jan. 3, 2023) (ECF No. 1). On June 17, 2025, the Federal Circuit issued its opinion in that appeal. See Roku, Inc. v. Int’l Trade Comm’n, No. 2023-1317, slip op. (Fed. Cir. June 17, 2025) (ECF No. 95). As to the ’875 patent, the Court dismissed the appeal as moot in view of its decision in Roku, Inc. v. Universal Electronics, Inc., affirming the U.S. Patent Trial and Appeal Board’s final written decision of unpatentability with respect to the sole claim of the ’875 patent at issue in the appeal of the Commission’s final determination. Id. at 4. As to the ’511 patent, which expired during the pendency of Roku’s appeal of the Commission’s final determination, the Court “vacate[d] the ITC’s decision as to that patent and remand[ed] with instructions to dismiss as moot the relevant portions of the complaint.” Id. at 5. The Federal Circuit’s mandate issued on August 8, 2025. Roku, Inc. v. Int’l Trade Comm’n, No. 2023-1317, Mandate (Fed. Cir. Aug. 8, 2025) (ECF No. 97).

As instructed by the Federal Circuit, the Commission has determined to dismiss as moot the portions of the complaint that relate to the ’511 patent. This remand proceeding is terminated.

The Commission’s vote for this determination took place on August 29, 2025.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).
