On November 1, 2021, the presiding CALJ issued the two subject IDs. Order No. 32 grants the motion to terminate Shoe-Nami. Order No. 33 grants the motion to terminate PW. The subject IDs each find that the parties’ consent order stipulation and consent order comply with the requirements of Commission Rules 210.21(c)(3) and (4) (19 CFR 210.21(c)(3), (4)). Each ID also finds that the settling parties have stipulated that there are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied, in accordance with Commission Rule 210.21(b)(1) (19 CFR 210.21(b)(1)). The subject IDs also find that each of the parties’ settlement agreements is in the public interest, as it avoids litigation, conserves public and private resources, and does not impose any undue burdens on public health and welfare, competitive conditions in the United States economy, production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.

No party filed a petition for review of the subject IDs.

The Commission has determined not to review Order Nos. 32 or 33. Shoe-Nami and PW are hereby terminated from this investigation and consent orders to Shoe-Nami and PW are issued herewith.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on November 26, 2021.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).
