AN INITIAL DETERMINATION EXTENDING THE TARGET DATE

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 61) extending the target date for completion of the above-captioned investigation to May 10, 2023.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on August 18, 2021, based on a complaint filed on behalf of Masimo Corporation and Cercacor Laboratories, Inc., both of Irvine, CA. 86 FR 46275 (Aug. 18, 2021). The complaint, as amended, alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain light-based physiological measurement devices and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 10,912,501; 10,912,502; 10,945,648; 10,687,745; and 7,761,127. Id. The amended complaint further alleges that an industry in the United States exists and/or is in the process of being established as required by the applicable Federal Statute. Id. The notice of investigation named Apple Inc. of Cupertino, CA as a respondent. Id. at 46276. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations is not participating in this investigation. Id.

On December 9, 2022, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 61) extending the target date by approximately three weeks from April 19, 2023 to May 10, 2023. Based on this target date, the deadline for issuing the final ID is January 10, 2023. The ID states that good cause exists to extend the target date because of “the complexity of this investigation,” the ALJ’s obligations in other investigations, and “upcoming federal holidays and other scheduling issues related to the year-end holiday season.” See Order No. 61 at 1. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID. The target date is now May 10, 2023.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on January 6, 2023.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR Part 210.

By order of the Commission.
