The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain rechargeable batteries and components thereof by reason of the infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 9,412,994 and 9,954,207. The Commission’s notice of investigation (“NOI”) named the following respondents: Relion of Shenzhen, China; Renogy of Suzhou City, China; RNG of Ontario, CA; Navico Group Americas, LLC (“Navico”) of Menomonee Falls,

WI; Dragonfly Energy Corp. of Reno, NV and Dragonfly Energy Holdings Corp. of Reno, NV (collectively, “Dragonfly”); Shenzhen Yichen S-Power Tech Co. On May 20, 2025, two joint motions to terminate the investigation based on settlement agreements were filed by: 1) Lithiumhub and Relion, and 2) Lithiumhub and Renogy and RNG. On June 2, 2025, the presiding ALJ issued the subject IDs (Order Nos. 30 and 31), granting the joint motions pursuant to Commission Rule 210.21(b) (19 CFR 210.21(b)). Each ID finds that the respective joint motion included an unredacted version of the confidential agreement. Each ID also finds that the joint motion includes the statement that “there are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied between [complainants] and [respondents] concerning the subject matter of this Investigation.” See Order No. 30 at 2; Order No. 31 at 2. Each ID also finds that “termination of this investigation” with respect to respondents “will not adversely affect the public interest.” Id. at 3.
