The complaint alleges violations of section 337 based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain convertible child highchairs by reason of the infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 9,101,225; 9,883,749; 10,278,513; 10,835,053; and 11,534,006. Id. The Commission’s notice of investigation (“NOI”) named the following entities as respondents: Graco Children’s Products Inc. of Atlanta, Georgia; Newell Brands Distribution LLC of Newville, Pennsylvania; Newell Brands Inc. of Atlanta, Georgia; Newell Brands Canada ULC of Bolton, Canada; and Baby Trend of Fontana, California. Id.

On August 24, 2026, Complainant and Baby Trend filed a joint motion to terminate the investigation as to Baby Trend based on a settlement agreement.

On September 29, 2026, the presiding ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 9) pursuant to Commission Rule 210.21(b) (19 CFR 210.21(b)), granting the joint motion to terminate Baby Trend. The ID finds that the joint motion and settlement agreement were filed in both confidential and public versions, and the motion states that “[t]here are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied between Complainant and the Baby Trend Respondent concerning the subject matter of the Investigation.” ID at 2. In addition, the ID finds that “there are no extraordinary circumstances that warrant denying the motion.” Id. The ID also finds that “there is no evidence indicating that terminating this investigation based on the agreement[] would be contrary to the public interest.” ID at 3.

No petition for review of the subject ID was filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID. Respondent Baby Trend, Inc. is hereby terminated from the investigation.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on October 28, 2026.
