On August 18, 2004, complainants moved pursuant to section 337(g) and Commission rule 210.16(b) for issuance of an order directing, inter alia, TsingTao China, to show cause why it should not be found in default.  Complainants noted that TsingTao China had not responded to the complaint and notice of investigation. On August 30, 2004, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response supporting complainant’s motion for an order requiring TsingTao China to show cause why it should not be held in default.

On October 5, 2004, the ALJ issued Order No. 6, which ordered TsingTao China to show cause by October 12, 2004, why it should not be found in default. TsingTao China did not respond to the order to show cause. On November 19, 2004, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 8) finding TsingTao China in default. Under Commission rule 210.16(b)(3), TsingTao China is deemed to have waived its right to appear, to be served with documents, and to contest the allegations at issue in this investigation. No petitions for review of the ID were filed.

By order of the Commission.
