AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) of the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) terminating the investigation as to certain respondents and as to all asserted claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,199,306 (“the ‘306 patent”) and 5,715,014 (“the ‘014 patent”) and as to claims 1, 8, 22, and 26 of U.S. Patent No. 5,467,455 (“the ‘455 patent”).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on April 2, 2010, based on a complaint filed by Freescale Semiconductor of Austin, Texas (“Freescale”). 75 Fed. Reg. 16837-38. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain integrated circuits, chipsets, and products containing same including televisions, media players, and cameras by reason of infringement of certain claims of the ‘455, ‘014, and ‘306 patents. The Commission’s notice of investigation named various respondents, including Panasonic Corporation of Osaka, Japan and Panasonic Corporation of North America of Secaucus, New Jersey (collectively “Panasonic”).

On February 16, 2011, Freescale and Panasonic jointly moved to terminate the investigation as to Panasonic based on a settlement agreement. The parties supplemented the motion on February 17, 2011. On February 22, 2011, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the joint motion. No other responses were filed.

On March 3, 2011, the ALJ issued the subject ID, granting the joint motion. The ALJ found that the investigation is terminated as to all of the asserted claims of the ‘306 and ‘014 patents, as well as claims 1, 8, 22, and 26 of the ‘455 patent, as those claims are not asserted against the respondents remaining in the investigation.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
