SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on July 28, 2011, based on a complaint filed by Cypress Semiconductor Corporation of San Jose, California ("Cypress"). 76 Fed. Reg. 45295 (July 28, 2011). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain static random access memories and products containing the same by reason of infringement of various claims of United States Patent Nos. 6,534,805; 6,651,134; 7,142,477; and 6,262,937. The notice of investigation named several respondents.

On October 25, 2012, the ALJ issued his final ID, finding no violation of section 337 by the respondents. On November 7, 2012, Cypress filed a petition for review of the ID. That same day, the respondents filed a contingent petition for review. On November 15, 2012, the parties filed responses to the petition and contingent petition for review.

On December 21, 2012, the Commission remanded the investigation to the ALJ. The Commission's remand order stated that "[t]he ALJ shall issue an ID within 30 days of this Order extending the target date as he deems necessary to accommodate the remand, but in no event shall the target date be extended more than four (4) months" and that "[t]he RID shall issue four months before the target date."

On January 14, 2013, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 50), extending the target date for completion of the investigation by four months, from February 25, 2013 to June 25, 2013, and setting February 25, 2013, as the due date for issuance of the remand ID. None of the parties petitioned for review.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
