SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on February 21, 2012, based on a complaint filed by Mondis Technology, Inc., of London, England ("Mondis"). 77 Fed. Reg. 9964 (Feb. 21, 2012). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain video displays and products using and containing the same by reason of infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,247,090 and 7,089,342. The notice of investigation names Chimei Innolux Corporation of Austin, Texas ("CMI"), as the only respondent.

On August 1, 2012, the presiding administrative law judge issued an initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 9) granting a motion by CMI for summary determination of no violation of section

337. On August 16, 2012, Mondis filed a petition for review of the ID by the Commission. On August 23, 2012, CMI and the IA opposed the petition for review.

On September 7, 2012, the Commission issued a notice that it had extended the time for determining whether to review the ID until October 10, 2012.

The Commission has determined to extend the time for determining whether to review the ID until October 16, 2012.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Rule 210.43(d) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.43(d)).

By order of the Commission.
