SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 2, 2012, based on a complaint filed by Technology Properties Limited, LLC (“TPL”) of Cupertino, California. 77 Fed. Reg. 26041 (May 2, 2012). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,976,623, 7,162,549, 7,295,443, 7,522,424, 6,438,638, and 7,719,847. The complaint further alleges the existence of a domestic industry. The notice of investigation named twenty-one respondents, including Dell Inc. (“Dell”) of Round Rock, Texas.

On June 17, 2013, TPL and Dell filed a joint motion pursuant to Commission Rule 210.21(a)(2) to terminate the investigation as to Dell on the basis of a settlement agreement (“Settlement Agreement”) that resolves their litigation. Public and confidential versions of the Settlement Agreement were attached to the motion. The motion also stated that there are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied, between the parties concerning the subject matter of this investigation. No other parties filed a response to the motion.

On June 19, 2013, the ALJ issued the subject ID granting the motion, finding that no extraordinary circumstances exist that would prevent the requested termination of Dell from this investigation and that the motion fully complies with Commission Rule 210.21. The ALJ further found that partial termination of the investigation is in the public interest. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
