SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Effective September 25, 2025, the Commission established a general schedule for the conduct of the final phase of its investigations on silicon metal from Angola, Laos, Thailand, Australia, and Norway (90 FR 54365, November 26, 2025) following preliminary determinations by the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce") that imports of silicon metal from Laos and Thailand were being subsidized by the government of Laos and Thailand (90 FR 46384 and 90 FR 46388, September 26, 2025) and imports of silicon metal from Angola and Laos were being sold in the United States at less than fair value ("LTFV") (90 FR 46807 and 90 FR 46810, September 30, 2025). Notice of the scheduling of the final phase of the Commission's investigations and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade

Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on November 26, 2025 (90 FR 54365).<sup>1</sup> All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

On February 23, 2026, Commerce published in the Federal Register its final affirmative countervailing duty determinations with respect to silicon metal from Laos and Thailand (91 FR 8425 and 91 FR 8436, February 23, 2026) and antidumping duty determinations with respect to silicon metal from Angola and Laos (91 FR 8407 and 91 FR 8419, February 23, 2026). The Commission subsequently issued its final determinations that an industry in the United States was material injured by reason of imports of silicon metal from Laos that were found by Commerce to be sold in the United States at LTFV and subsidized by the government of Laos. The Commission also determined that an industry in the United States was threatened with materially injured by reason of imports of silicon metal from Angola that were found by Commerce to be sold in the United States at LTFV. The Commission further determined that imports of silicon metal from Thailand found by Commerce to be subsidized by the government of Thailand were negligible and terminated the countervailing duty investigation concerning Thailand. (91 FR 18004, April 9, 2026).

On June 30, 2025, Commerce published in the Federal Register its final affirmative countervailing duty and antidumping duty determinations with respect to imports of silicon metal from Australia and Norway (91 FR 39593, 91 FR 39597, 91 FR 39598, and 91 FR 39601, June 30, 2026). Accordingly, the Commission currently is issuing a supplemental schedule for the final phase of its investigations on imports of silicon metal from Australia and Norway.

This supplemental schedule is as follows: the deadline for filing supplemental party comments on Commerce's final antidumping and countervailing duty determinations is 5:15 p.m. on July 10, 2026. Supplemental party comments may address only Commerce's final determinations regarding imports of silicon metal from Australia and Norway. These supplemental final comments may not contain new factual information and may not exceed five (5) pages in length. The supplemental staff report in the final phase of this proceeding will be placed in the nonpublic record on July 27, 2026, and a public version will be issued thereafter.
