UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Washington, D.C.

Investigation Nos. 701-TA-465 and 731-TA-1161 (Third Review)

Steel Grating from China

DETERMINATIONS

On the basis of the record[1] developed in the subject five-year reviews, the United States International Trade Commission ("Commission") determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), that revocation of the countervailing and antidumping duty orders on steel grating from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

BACKGROUND

The Commission instituted these reviews on May 1, 2026 (91 FR 23456) and determined on August 4, 2026, that it would conduct expedited reviews (91 FR 54881, August 25, 2026).[2] [3]

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)). It completed and filed its determinations in these reviews on November 13, 2026. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5812 (November 2026), entitled Steel Grating from China: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-465 and 731-TA-1161 (Third Review).

By order of the Commission.

Lisa R. Barton
Secretary to the Commission

Issued: November 13, 2026
