PART I.--GENERAL QUESTIONS

The questions in this questionnaire have been reviewed with market participants to ensure that issues of concern are adequately addressed and that data requests are sufficient, meaningful, and as limited as possible. Public reporting burden for this questionnaire is estimated to average 20 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering the data needed, and completing and reviewing the questionnaire. Send comments regarding the accuracy of this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing the burden, to the Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW, Washington, DC 20436.

I-1a. Please report below the actual number of hours required and the cost to your firm of preparing the reply to this questionnaire and completing the form.

_____ hours _____ dollars

I-1b. We are interested in any comments you may have for improving this questionnaire in general or the clarity of specific questions. Please attach such comments to your response or send them to the above address.

I-2. Provide the name and address of establishment(s) covered by this questionnaire (see page 3 of the instruction booklet for reporting guidelines). If your firm is publicly traded, please specify the stock exchange and trading symbol.

I-3. Please provide the names, street addresses (not P.O. boxes), contacts, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of the FIVE largest U.S. importers of your firm's rebar in 2001-06.

I-4. In Parts II and III of this questionnaire we request a copy of your company's business plan. Does your company or any related firm have a business plan or any internal documents that describe, discuss, or analyze expected future market conditions for rebar?

No Yes--Please provide the requested documents. If you are not providing the requested documents, please explain why not.

PART I.--GENERAL QUESTIONS--Continued

I-5. Does your firm or any related firm produce, have the capability to produce, or have any plans to produce rebar in the United States or other countries?

- No Yes--Please name the firm(s) and country(ies) below and, if U.S. producer(s), ensure that they complete the Commission's producer questionnaire (contact Olympia Hand for copies of that questionnaire).

I-6. Does your firm or any related firm import or have any plans to import rebar into the United States?

- No Yes--Please name the firm(s) below and ensure that they complete the Commission's importer questionnaire (contact Olympia Hand for copies of that questionnaire).

I-7. Does your firm have any related firms that are engaged in the fabrication of rebar in the United States?

- No Yes--Please name the firm(s) and provide their addresses and relationships.

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION

II-1. Has your firm experienced any plant openings, relocations, expansions, acquisitions, consolidations, closures, or prolonged shutdowns because of strikes or equipment failure; curtailment of production because of shortages of materials; or any other change in the character of your operations or organization relating to the production of rebar since 2001 (the year in which the antidumping duty orders under review became effective)?

- No Yes--Supply details as to the time, nature, and significance of such changes.

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

II-2. Does your firm anticipate any changes in the character of your operations or organization (as noted above) relating to the production of rebar in the future?

- No Yes--Supply details as to the time, nature, and significance of such changes and provide underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue. Include in your response a specific projection of your firm's capacity to produce rebar (in short tons) for 2007 and 2008.

II-3. Would your firm anticipate any changes in the character of your operations or organization (as noted above) relating to the production of rebar in the future if the antidumping duty orders on rebar from Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine were to be revoked?

- No Yes--Supply details as to the time, nature, and significance of such changes and provide underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

II-4. Does your firm have any plans to add, expand, curtail, or shut down production capacity and/or production of rebar in Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine in the future?

- No Yes--Please describe those plans, including planned dates and capacity/production quantities involved, and the reason(s) for such change(s). If the plans are to add or expand capacity or production, list (in descending order of importance) the markets (countries) to which such additional capacity or production would be directed. Provide relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation that addresses this issue.

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

II-5. Describe the production technology used in the production of rebar in Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine and identify major production inputs. Also discuss any significant changes in production technology since 2001 (the year in which the antidumping duty orders under review became effective).

II-6. Has your firm since 2001 produced, or does your firm anticipate producing in the future, other products on the same equipment and machinery used in the production of rebar?

No Yes--List the following information and report your firm's combined production capacity and production of these products and rebar in the periods indicated.

Product	Period	Basis for allocation of capacity data
_____	_____	_____

II-7. Has your firm since 2001 produced, or does your firm anticipate producing in the future, other products using the same production and related workers employed to produce rebar?

No Yes--List the following information.

Product	Period	Basis for allocation of employment data
_____	_____	_____

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

II-8. Please describe the constraint(s) that set the limit(s) on your production capacity.

II-9. What percentage of your firm's total sales in its most recent fiscal year was represented by sales of rebar?

_____ Percent

II-10. Is your firm able to switch production between rebar and other products in response to a relative price change in the price of rebar vis-a-vis the price of other products, using the same equipment and labor?

- No Yes--Please identify below the other products, the approximate time and cost involved in switching, and the minimum relative price change required for your firm to switch production to or from rebar.

II-11. Has your firm maintained any inventories of rebar in the United States (not including inventories held by firms identified in questions I-3, I-5, or I-6 above¹) since 2001?

- No Yes--Report the quantity (in short tons) of such end-of-period inventories below.

2001 2002 2003 2004 2005 2006

II-12. (a) Are your firm's exports of rebar subject to tariff or non-tariff barriers to trade (for example, antidumping or countervailing duty findings or remedies, tariffs, quotas, or regulatory barriers) in any countries other than the United States?

- No Yes--List the products(s), country(ies), the year each such barrier was imposed, and the type of barrier.

Product	Country	Year imposed	Barrier (if tariff, give rate)
----------------	----------------	---------------------	---------------------------------------

_____	_____	_____	_____

¹ Such firms will report inventories in the Commission's importer or producer questionnaire.

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

(b) Are your firm's exports of rebar subject to current investigations in any countries other than the United States that might result in tariff or non-tariff barriers to trade?

No Yes--List the products(s), country(ies), and type of investigation.

Product	Country	Type of investigation

II-13. Identify export markets (other than the United States) that you have developed or where you have increased your sales of rebar as a result of the antidumping duty orders on rebar from Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine. Please identify and discuss below.

II-14. Describe the significance of the existing antidumping duty orders covering imports of rebar from Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine in terms of its effect on your firm's production capacity, production, home market shipments, exports to the United States and other markets, and inventories. You may wish to compare your firm's operations before and after the imposition of the orders.

II-15. Would your firm anticipate any changes in its production capacity, production, home market shipments, exports to the United States and other markets, or inventories relating to the production of rebar in the future if the antidumping duty orders on rebar from Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine were to be revoked?

No Yes--Supply details as to the time, nature, and significance of such changes and provide underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, for any trends or projections you may provide.

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

II-16a. Please report production capacity, production, shipments, and inventories of rebar (carbon and alloy) produced by your firm in Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine in 2001-06. Country (specify) _____

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

II-16c. Please provide a narrative indicating whether any of the projected figures, such as shipments to the United States, would be different if the orders were revoked.

II-16d. Please provide documentary support, such as a business plan, for your projections.

PART II.--TRADE AND RELATED INFORMATION--Continued

II-16e. Please report production capacity, production, shipments, and inventories of rebar shipped to the United States UNDER HTS SUBHEADINGS OTHER THAN 7214.20.00 (included in your response to question II-16a) produced by your firm in Belarus, China, Indonesia, Korea, Latvia, Moldova, Poland, and Ukraine in 2001-06.

Country (specify) _____

(Quantity in short tons, value in 1,000 U.S. dollars)
Item	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006
SHIPMENTS:

II-16f. Please identify each HTS subheading other than 7214.20.00 used to characterize U.S. exports of rebar sold in straight lengths during 2001-06. Provide the quantities (in short tons) and values (in $1,000) for each HTS subheading and year involved.

II-16g. Please identify the additives (e.g., boron, copper, manganese, silicon, vanadium) that were added to the steel and discuss the performance improvements/physical benefits gained by use of these additives/alloying elements. Please identify the specific U.S. customers for these products, identify the specific end-uses for these products, and please explain why carbon steel rebar products would be inadequate for these end uses.

II-16h. Does your firm obtain a price premium or cost recovery (whether termed an "extra" or some other term) for rebar sold in straight lengths entered under HTS subheading other than 7214.20.00?

PART III.--MARKET FACTORS

III-1. Approximately what share of your firm's sales of rebar to U.S. customers in 2006 were on a (1) long-term contract basis (multiple deliveries for more than 12 months), (2) short-term contract basis (multiple deliveries up to 12 months), and (3) spot sales basis (for a single delivery)?

Type of sale	Share of sales (percent)
Long-term contracts
Short-term contracts
Spot sales
Total	100%

III-2. If you sell on a long-term contract basis, please answer the following questions with respect to provisions of a typical long-term contract.

- (a) What is the average duration of a contract? _____
- (b) Can prices be renegotiated during the contract period? _____
- (c) Does the contract fix quantity, price, or both? _____
- (d) Does the contract have a meet or release provision? _____

III-3. If you sell on a short-term contract basis, please answer the following questions with respect to provisions of a typical short-term contract.

- (a) What is the average duration of a contract? _____
- (b) Can prices be renegotiated during the contract period? _____
- (c) Does the contract fix quantity, price, or both? _____
- (d) Does the contract have a meet or release provision? _____

III-4. What is the average lead time between a U.S. customer's order and the date of delivery for your firm's sales of rebar?

Source	Share of 2006 sales	Lead time
From inventory
Produced to order

III-5. To what extent have changes in the prices of raw materials affected your firm's selling prices for rebar since 2001? Also discuss any anticipated changes in your raw material costs in the future, identifying the time period(s) involved and the factor(s) that you believe would be responsible for such changes. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-6. Have any changes occurred in any other factors affecting supply (e.g., changes in availability or prices of energy or labor; transportation conditions; production capacity and/or methods of production; technology; export markets; or alternative production opportunities) that affected the availability of the subject country-produced rebar in the U.S. market since 2001?

No Yes--Please note the time period(s) of any such changes, the factors(s) involved, and the impact such changes had on your shipment volumes and prices.

III-7. (a) Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the availability of the subject country-produced rebar in the U.S. market in the future?

Increase No Change Decrease

(b) If you anticipate changes in supply, please identify the changes including the time period and the impact of such changes on shipment volumes and prices. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-8. Describe how easily your firm can shift its sales of rebar between the U.S. market and alternative country markets. In your discussion, please describe any contracts, other sales arrangements, or other constraints (including any third-country trade barriers such as tariffs, quotas, or other non-tariff barriers) that would prevent or retard your firm from shifting rebar between the U.S. and alternative country markets within a 12-month period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-9. Is the product range, product mix, or marketing of rebar in your home market significantly different from the product range, product mix, or marketing of rebar for export to the United States or to third-country markets? Have there been any significant changes in the product range, product mix, or marketing of rebar in your home market, for export to the United States, or for export to third-country markets since 2001?

No Yes--Please describe and quantify if possible.

III-10. Please discuss any anticipated changes in terms of the product range, product mix, or marketing of rebar in your home market, for export to the United States, or for export to third-country markets in the future, identifying the time period(s) involved and the factor(s) that you believe would be responsible for such changes. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-11. (a) Please list in order of importance any products that may be substituted for rebar.

(1) _____ (2) _____ (3) _____

(b) For each possible substitute product, please give examples of applications and end uses for which they are substitutes.

(c) Have changes in the prices of these products affected the price for rebar?

No Yes--To what degree do changes in their prices affect the price for rebar?
Does this effect have a time lag? If so, how long is the time lag for each substitute product? Does this vary by type of rebar or final end use?

III-12. Have there been any changes in the number or types of products that can be substituted for rebar since 2001?

- No Yes--Please explain.

III-13. Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the substitutability of other products for rebar in the future?

- No Yes--Please describe. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-14. Is the rebar produced by your firm and sold in its home market interchangeable (i.e., can be used in the same applications) with your firm's rebar sold to the United States and/or to third-country markets?

- Yes No--Identify the market(s) and any differences in the products.

III-15. Describe the end uses of the rebar that you manufacture and sell to your home market. If these end uses differ from those of the rebar you sell to the U.S. market or to third-country markets, explain.

III-16. Have there been any changes in the end uses of rebar since 2001?

- No Yes--Please describe.

III-17. Do you anticipate any changes in terms of the end uses of rebar in the future?

- No Yes--Please describe and identify the time period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-18. How has demand within your home market for rebar changed since 2001?

- Increased Unchanged Decreased
 Other (describe) _____

What were the principal factors affecting changes in demand?

III-19. How has demand within the United States for rebar changed since 2001?

- Increased Unchanged Decreased
 Other (describe) _____

What were the principal factors affecting changes in demand?

PART III.--MARKET FACTORS--Continued

III-20. How has demand in other markets for rebar changed since 2001?

Increased Unchanged Decreased

Other (describe) _____

What were the principal factors affecting changes in demand?

III-21. Do you anticipate any future changes in rebar demand in your home market and the United States and, if known, the rest of the world?

No Yes--Please describe and identify the time period. Provide any underlying assumptions, along with relevant portions of business plans or other supporting documentation, that address this issue.

III-22. Please compare market prices of rebar in your home market, the United States, and third-country markets, if known. Provide specific information as to time periods and regions for any price comparisons.

III-23. Describe briefly your home market for rebar, including the number of, and competition between, producers.

III-24. Do you face competition from imports of rebar in your home market?

- No Yes--Please identify the country sources of any imports of rebar into your home market.

III-25. Please provide as a separate attachment to this request any studies, surveys, etc. that you are aware of that quantify and/or otherwise discuss rebar supply (including production capacity and capacity utilization) and demand in (1) the United States, (2) each of the other major producing/consuming countries, including subject countries, and (3) the world as a whole. Of particular interest is such data from 2001 to the present and forecasts for the future.

III-26. Does your firm sell rebar over the internet?

- No Yes--Please describe, noting the estimated percentage of your firm's total sales of rebar in 2006 accounted for by internet sales.
