

to amend the complaint and notice of investigation to include Lenovo-branded products in the plain-language description of the accused products. Order No. 5, however, denies Complainant's request to amend the complaint to permit Complainant to rely upon Lenovo US's domestic activities to establish the domestic industry requirement.

On July 18, 2022, Complainant filed a motion to terminate this investigation in its entirety based on withdrawal of the complaint, contingent upon the Commission instituting an investigation based on its own separate complaint filed in Certain Mobile Electronic Devices, Dkt. No. 337–3625. On July 25, 2022, Respondents filed a response partially opposing the motion with respect to Complainant's asserted contingency. On July 27, 2022, Complainant filed a reply in support of its motion.

On August 16, 2022, the Commission issued a notice of institution of Investigation No. 337–TA–1324 based on the complaint filed in Certain Mobile Electronic Devices, Dkt. No. 337–3625. See 87 FR 51445–46 (Aug. 22, 2022). In view of the issuance of the Commission's notice, on August 17, 2022, Respondents filed a notice withdrawing their partial opposition with respect to Complainant's asserted contingency.

On August 19, 2022, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 10) granting Complainant's motion to terminate this investigation based on complaint withdrawal. The ID finds that the motion complies with the Commission Rules. See ID at 2–3. In accordance with Commission Rule 210.21(a), 19 CFR 210.21(a), Complainant represents that “there are no agreements, written or oral, express or implied, between Maxell and the Respondents concerning the subject matter of this investigation.” See id. at 3. In addition, the ID finds “no extraordinary circumstances that would justify denying termination of this investigation based on withdrawal of the Complaint.” See id. After the issuance of Order No. 10, Investigation No. 337–TA–1324 was instituted upon publication of the notice of investigation in the Federal Register on August 22, 2022. See 87 FR 51445–46 (Aug. 22, 2022).

No petition for review of the subject ID was filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID. The investigation is terminated.

The Commission's vote for this determination took place on September 19, 2022.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Effective April 15, 2022, the Commission established a general schedule for the conduct of the final phase of its countervailing and antidumping duty investigations on sodium nitrite from India and Russia (87 FR 23567, April 20, 2022), following a preliminary determination by the U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) that imports of sodium nitrite from Russia were being subsidized by the government of Russia (87 FR 22504, April 15, 2022). Notice of the scheduling of the final phase of the Commission's investigations and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S.

International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on April 20, 2022, (87 FR 23567). In light of the restrictions on access to the Commission building due to the COVID–19 pandemic, the Commission conducted its hearing through written testimony and video conference on June 21, 2022. Commerce issued a final affirmative countervailing duty determination with respect to sodium nitrite from Russia (87 FR 38375, June 28, 2022). The Commission subsequently issued its final determination that an industry in the United States was materially injured by reason of imports of sodium nitrite from Russia provided for in subheading 2834.10.10 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (“HTSUS”) that have been found by Commerce to be subsidized by the government of Russia (87 FR 51141, August 19, 2022).

Accordingly, the Commission currently is issuing a supplemental schedule for its antidumping duty investigation on imports of sodium nitrite from Russia.

This supplemental schedule is as follows: the deadline for filing supplemental party comments on Commerce's final antidumping duty determination is September 21, 2022. Supplemental party comments may address only Commerce's final antidumping duty determination regarding imports of sodium nitrite from Russia. These supplemental final comments may not contain new factual information and may not exceed five (5) pages in length. The supplemental staff report in the final phase of the current investigation will be placed in the nonpublic record on October 7, 2022; and a public version will be issued thereafter.
