The Commission may express an opinion on the HTS classification of a product to facilitate consideration of the bill. However, by law, only the U.S. Customs Service is authorized to issue a binding ruling on this matter. The Commission believes that the U.S. Customs Service should be consulted prior to enactment of the bill.

Technical comments:⁴

According to telephone a conversation with J.P. San Pedro, Director, International Trade, Eastman Chemical Company, on 6/23/2005, the proponent is no longer pursuing this duty suspension. It should be noted that the proponent did not provide any information about the subject chemical, and that estimates of imports and revenue losses were estimated based on import levels for the entire HTS subheading.
