Further information regarding this determination will be in the press release. Commissioners' opinions are currently scheduled to be transmitted to the Department of Commerce on or before June 26, 2006.

Thank you to the staff who assisted us in this investigation.

Understanding that there is some additional business?

VICE CHAIRMAN OKUN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. As observers of the Senate know, yesterday Senator Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia became the longest serving U.S. Senator at 17,327 days.

As observers of the Commission will note, on Friday, June 16, Chairman Koplan's second term as Chairman will end. While he's not the longest serving Commissioner -- in fact, that goes to Commissioner Brossard, a Republican from Idaho I would note who served for almost 34 years as a Commissioner before the rules were changed and as a Chairman for seven of those years -- I would note that in looking at the records from the Secretary's office, when the gavel falls today, Steve Koplan will have chaired 150 votes and 135 hearings.

While this morning I couldn't verify whether that's the most one person has ever chaired since neither Ask.com, Google, nor EDIS would provide that answer, I do think that it might be a modern day record, and so I would like to take this moment to congratulate Chairman Koplan on his years of service to the Commission.

(Applause.)

CHAIRMAN KOPLAN: Thank you very much for that, Deanna. I appreciate it. I hadn't planned to say anything other than adjourned, but Dominic tipped me off this morning that you had planned to make a few remarks, and since I never saw a microphone I didn't like, I will take a moment now to say this.

One, I greatly appreciate the assistance that I have had ever since I joined the Commission and the support from the dedicated men and women that make up this agency. That has been a tremendous highlight for me as well as the support of my colleagues.

Secondly, I greatly appreciate the fact that both Presidents Clinton and Bush have entrusted the position of Chairman to me, and for that, I am deeply honored.

I also want to acknowledge the fact that I have been blessed with incredible personal staff ever since I've been with this agency. Today that consists of John Fry, John Giamalva, and Bill Trencher and Dida Andrew, who are on the dais with me, two people, those two people are people who were with me in private practice and made the mistake of coming to the Commission with me, and I just can't say enough about the two of them. I practiced law with Bill, and Dida was with me at that same law firm, and I very much appreciate having had them with me the whole eight years that I've been here.

And with that, I have no other business except to say to all of you thank you. And I'll be back for the next hearing next week, but we'll have a different Chairman, and I'm sure it will be a great two years again. So thank you all, and this meeting is adjourned.

(Whereupon, at 11:06 a.m., the Commission meeting was adjourned.)
