
INTERNATIONAL TRADE
COMMISSION*[Investigation No. 731-TA-1058 (Review)]*Wooden Bedroom Furniture From China*Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission (Commission) determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on wooden bedroom furniture from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted this review on December 1, 2009 (74 FR 62817) and determined on March 8, 2010 that it would conduct a full review (75 FR 14469, March 25, 2010). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's review and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on April 26, 2010 (75 FR 21657). The hearing was held in Washington, DC, on October 5, 2010, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this review to the Secretary of Commerce on December 14, 2010. The views of the Commission are
