1 As of August 24, 2009. Numbers shown in parentheses are on a grouped basis, meaning that reviews on the same or similar products from different countries that were instituted simultaneously and/or reviews of antidumping and countervailing duty orders on the same or similar products that were instituted simultaneously are counted as 1. Grouped numbers for revocations mean that all orders in a group were revoked; if at least 1 order in a group was not revoked, the group is shown as “not revoked.” See the Commission’s web site for details on each review (www.usitc.gov).
